

I. Annual Meeting:

Your Executive Committee has scheduled the Annual Conference of the Society for JANUARY 31 - FEBRUARY 1, 1958, at Los Angeles. The tentative program involves consideration of the following topics:

1. International Research in the field of Criminology.
2. Future of the Society.
 - a. Request for foundation support for
 - (1) Special conference for consideration of nationwide problems of academic approaches to criminology.
 - (2) Creation of Executive-Director organization to further the work of the Society.
 - b. Expansion of membership.
 - c. Incorporation.

(Formal program will follow shortly.)

II. Results of Vote on New Constitution and New Name.

A. Constitution:	Approve new Constitution . . .	32
	Reject new Constitution .. .	2
	No vote	2
		36

The new Constitution is adopted as the organic document for the Society.

B. Name:	American Society of Criminology . . .	18
	American Criminological Society . . .	7
	American Criminological Association .	10

The new name adopted is American Society of Criminology.

Note: Results of the voting have been ratified by the Executive Committee.

III. Donal E. J. MacNamara, our official representative to the AAAS, announces special program of this organization will be held December 27-28, 1957 at the Annual Conference in Indianapolis. For further information, write Mac.

IV. We need notes on research, publications, specific activities of members, and status changes. Please submit to your Editor:

C. Robert Guthrie
 School of Public Administration
 University of Southern California
 Los Angeles 7, California

V. News Notes:

Past President Richard Hankey is now Associate Professor of Public Administration at Los Angeles State College.

G. Douglas Gourley is now Professor of Police Administration and Head of Police Program at Los Angeles State College.

Vice-President A. C. Germann has transferred to Long Beach State College with the rank of full Professor and Head of the Program.

F. M. Fabian has received an appointment to work with the Michigan State Program in Viet Nam and is now "down under."

Ralph Turner spent the summer on special assignment in Viet Nam.

President Kenney did a special study, Police Technical Assistance; An Evaluation of the Training of Foreign Police Officers in the United States, for the Civil Police Administration Division of the International Cooperation Administration in Washington, D. C. during the summer.