1. Meeting called to order by President Larry Sherman.

2. Executive Director’s report (Chris Eskridge)
   A. The Board voted in favor of the By-law amendment making the editor of Criminology & Public Policy a member of the Board.
   B. Site Selection- There were some concerns raised regarding the new charges of discriminatory practices allegedly being engaged in by the Adams Mark Hotel chain. Some thought was given to the possibility of moving the Denver (2003) and St. Louis (2008) meetings since they are scheduled to be held at Adams Mark properties. Chris Eskridge looked into the matter and found that it would be prohibitively expensive for us to cancel these contracts. He also found that the general sentiment in the hotel industry is that the Adams Mark hotels will soon be sold off to other entities. The Board voted to wait to see if the Adams Mark hotel is in fact sold before giving further consideration to the possibility of moving the St. Louis meeting to another location.

3. President’s report on 2002 Program (Larry Sherman)
   A. Revised call for papers.

However, they wonder if ASC is sending the appropriate members. They ask the ASC Board to require reports of meetings attended. The DIC would like to publish the reports in their newsletter.
   D. People of Color and Crime (Stephanie Bush-Baskette, Chair reporting)
   E. Women and Crime (Mona Dan reporting). The Division makes the following requests of the Board: (1) Listserve at ASC offices, (2) Division rooms during conferences be reinstated so members can meet informally or formally during the
5. Discussion of 2002 program and new submission guidelines. The Divisions expressed concern about the new submission guidelines for ASC 2002 meeting. They were concerned about the following issues: (1) the complex structure of submission process; (2) the change had not taken advantage of the process ASC has developed to discuss new and radical changes (e.g., town meeting, etc); (3) the procedure will be hierarchical and exclusionary; (4) non-mainstream perspectives, critical perspectives, new faculty perspectives and students may be excluded, feel excluded, or not apply for the panels (5) the changes could jeopardize attendance at the meeting at a critical time for the ASC and this could have a potentially disastrous impact on ASC's finances.

A. The Board accepted the following motion: Larry Sherman will reorganize his call for papers with a more traditional format and send it out to members. ASC Board, Divisional Chairs, and Ph.D. granting organization will be polled for comments and approval of the description of the program submission guidelines and the membership of the program committee. There will be 6 program areas, each Division and each Ph.D. granting university will be asked to indicate members in each of the six areas. Guidelines for submissions will be: Panel sessions, Presidential Poster sessions, roundtables, and Presidential Panel Sessions. The program committee will be responsible for forming the presidential sessions and anyone can organize a presidential session and the committee will not change that proposed session. Presidential sessions will be pre-formed by members, formed by the president or commissioned by the program committee. Christy Visher and Larry Sherman will draft a letter to the membership that will include the revised program submission guidelines.

B. Rules for number of appearances on the program. The Board accepted a motion that ASC will suspend the rule on limits on number of appearances on the program for one year and this information will be included in the call for papers to be sent to the membership accepted.

6. Code of Ethics. The Board discussed the legal and financial ramifications of having a formal Code of Ethics. A revised draft (fall, 2001) of the “American Society of Criminology Code of Ethics” was received from committee. The Board voted to defer further action on this until April and ask Chris for a report on liabilities. Move that Chris Eskridge notify the committee chair that we are in substantial discussion about the submitted code accepted.

7. A discussion of the role of the ASC National Policy Committee and NPC report until was postponed until April.

8. Minority mentorship committee. The Board accepted a motion to invite Orlando to attend the April ASC Board meeting to discuss the Minority Mentorship Proposal.

9. ASC prizes and cash awards deferred until April.

10. Sutherland Award. The Board accepted a motion that the Sutherland Address at the Annual Meeting be published in Criminology. The Board discussed requirements for the Sutherland Award and whether the winner is required to be a North American which is the language on the website. There is no language to limit the award to a North American and the charge to the committee must be changed. The Board requested that Chris Eskridge write a letter to the award committee to inform them that they may be misinformed about qualifications for the Sutherland award.

11. Decade of Behavior. The Board accepted a motion to leave the decision about the request for an ASC member to market information about the education project to the discretion of the Executive Director.
12. The Board voted to accept the committee member list proposed by President Larry Sherman.

13. Financial update after 2002 meeting. It looks as if we will have to pay the Sheraton $10,000-$12,000 based on lower room rentals. We don't know whether we will owe anything to the Marriot. The attendance was approximately 2,060.

14. The Criminology editorship changes this year. There is no restriction on term limits for the editor so Bob Bursik could reapply.

15. The April Board meeting will be held the last weekend in April at Palmer House from 3:00 PM April, 26 of Friday and end Sat 5:00PM.
