35th ANNUAL MEETING IN DENVER

Travis Hirschi, President of the American Society of Criminology, reports that over 180 sessions are scheduled for the Society's annual meeting November 9-13th, 1983. Hirschi stated that over 960 people are on the program from some 17 foreign countries and 49 of the 50 states (our Hawaiian members undoubtedly have chosen to remain in the sun rather than join us in Denver).

Hirschi reported that this year's meeting is truly multidisciplinary reflecting the meeting's theme. Although 75 percent of the participants are university affiliated, they are from some 30 different academic disciplines. Nonuniversity participants are from numerous types of foundations, agencies and organizations including: the United Nations, the F.B.I., the Royal Mounted Police, the U.S. Mint, the Forest Service, the Environmental Protection Agency, the Center for Disease Control, ABC News, N.I.M.H., N.I.C., N.I.J. and from local, state and federal courts, corrections and police agencies.

Computer Workshop

Hirschi reported that a special computer workshop is being organized for Sunday morning, the 13th of November from 8:00 a.m. to noon. Professor Carol Fenster of the University of Denver's Sociology Department has invited several personal computer manufacturers/distributors to demo their

Keep November 9-13 on your calendar for what promises to be a most informative and enjoyable conference in Denver.
DINITZ TO HOLD BETO PROFESSORSHIP

The Beto Chair in Criminal Justice at Sam Houston State U. will be held this fall by Simon Dinitz, professor of sociology at Ohio State University. Named for George J. Beto, distinguished professor of criminal justice at Sam Houston and former director of the Texas Department of Corrections, the Beto chair was established in 1979.

Dinitz, senior Fellow at the Academy for Contemporary Problems' Center on Crime and Justice, has been a member of the Ohio State Faculty since 1951. Previously, Dinitz has been a visiting professor at the Universities of Tel Aviv, Wisconsin, and Southern California.

In 1974, Dr. Dinitz received the ASC’s Sutherland Award for outstanding contributions to the field. In addition, he has received awards for outstanding teaching, including the OSU Alumni Award for Distinguished Teaching; in 1981, he was named as one of the five best professors in the United States by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education.

While at Sam Houston, Dinitz will teach a graduate course entitled “Prison Riots in the 20th Century” and direct research on prison riots.

Dr. Dinitz will hold the Beto Professorship for the Fall Semester of 1983. The Chair allows the College to support outstanding criminologists as visiting professors who conduct academic courses, special seminars, and research.

SCHLESINGER ASSUMES BJS POST

Steven R. Schlesinger was sworn in by Attorney General William French Smith on May 17, 1983, as director of the Bureau of Justice Statistics. He had been serving as the acting director since January 3, and was confirmed by the Senate on April 13.

In commenting on his new post, Schlesinger pledged to continue the work of the bureau as the national repository of criminal justice information.

He added, “In creating the bureau, the Congress directed that attention be given to the problems of state and local justice systems. The bureau will continue to meet this important mandate through a variety of innovative statistical programs and the wide dissemination of criminal justice data.”

Before coming to the bureau, Schlesinger was associate chairman and associate professor in the Department of Politics at the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. He received a B.A. cum laude from Cornell University in 1967 and holds a M.A. and a Ph.D. from Claremont Graduate School, Claremont, Calif.

POSITIONS—VACANCIES—OPPORTUNITIES

THE CRIMINOLOGIST will regularly feature in these columns position vacancies available in organizations and universities, as well as positions sought by members of the Society.

There will be no charge for placing such announcements. For those agencies or persons not wishing to have their identities known, arrangements can be made for a box number and all appropriate inquiries will be forwarded accordingly.

It is the policy of ASC to publish free of charge position vacancy announcements only from those institutions or agencies which subscribe to equal educational and employment opportunities and those which encourage women and minorities to apply.

Institutions should indicate the deadline for submission of application materials.

The Professional Employment Exchange will be a regular feature at each Annual Meeting. Prospective employers and employees should register with the Society no later than three weeks prior to the Annual Meeting of the Society. Appropriate forms may be obtained by writing to the ASC offices in Columbus, Ohio.

To place announcements in The Criminologist, send all materials to: John H. Kramer, Editor, THE CRIMINOLOGIST, P.O. Box 1200, State College, PA 16801.
