Division on Women and Crime: A Response to the Five-Year Plan Committee

Drew Humphries
Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminal Justice
Rutgers University-Camden Campus

Chaired by Todd Clear, Vice President of this organization, the Five-Year Plan Committee is engaged in answering a number of questions about the future of the American Society of Criminology. Is the ASC an academic organization that puts on an annual conference for its membership? Or is it an organization that looks to affect policy, playing on a larger more political stage? Many would have the ASC step up to the larger stage. One vision includes an ASC presence in Washington, D.C., a partnership with the ACJS for joint staffing to cover program and policy functions, as well as a policy journal, and a committee, with its own budget to oversee international activities. I think we are all aware that there is significant support for change, although we may differ over specific priorities.

I was asked to comment on potential changes by Nancy Wonders, Chair for the Division on Women and Crime (DWC). I was selected because I have been active in the ASC for a long time. I belong to several Divisions, including the DWC, and I was an Executive Counselor when the Board discussed some of these issues.

The strategic issues before the Five-Year Plan Committee concern diversity within the profession, public policy and international ties, the ASC office, and the annual meetings. I should stress that my comments about these matters reflect my own opinions and should not be misconstrued as belonging to the DWC.

Diversity and Discrimination

The Division on Women and Crime has taken the lead in advancing the study of gender and crime within the Society. Over the course of the last twenty years, DWC founders and members have compiled a remarkable record. Gender-related journals in our field abound. Gender articles appear in the leading publications. Among the recipients of the awards given by the ASC, are women and men who have written in the area of gender. Another visible sign of the impact of the DWC on the Society is in the area of leadership. Women routinely serve as President, Vice President, Executive Counselors, Committee Chairs, Division Chairs, and Division Committee memberships. Within the DWC, the achievements of a junior and senior scholar are recognized annually. Seasoned academics provide support for new comers in negotiating key career decisions: graduate school, job search, tenure, and promotion. As a result, the DWC stands as an intellectual haven for criminologists and criminal justice scholars involved in the study of gender and crime or justice.

Discussions within the Division on Women and Crime have encompassed a variety of topics, but sexual harassment has been a continuing theme. At a business meeting several years ago, members laid bare quid-pro-quo incidents, related encounters that would now be considered criminal, and described the hostile environments, which sabotaged their productivity. While such overt discrimination may not be typical, incidents, nonetheless, drive women away from and undermine the profession. For this reason, the Division explored options. How could the ASC, with its commitment to diversity, be more useful to its members? A professional standard of conduct, endorsed by the ASC, would, the reasoning runs, go a long way in preventing sexual harassment and
AROUND THE ASC

LOIS PRESSER was awarded the Distinguished Dissertation Fellowship at the University of Cincinnati for her research: “Stories of Violent Men: Constructing and Reconstructing Narratives About Violence.” The Fellowship is awarded to one candidate in each of four broad areas. Lois received the award in the ‘Behavioral and Social Science’ area.

ERIC L. JENSEN, University of Idaho, has been awarded a Fulbright grant to conduct research on comparative drug policy and lecture at the University of Aarhus, Denmark for the spring semester of 2001-2002. He will be working with Jogen Jepsen and located at the Law School.

DEAN ROJEK, University of Georgia, received the 2000 Regents’ Excellence in Undergraduate Research Mentoring Award for outstanding commitment to improve student learning and advance teaching of undergraduate researchers.

MARGARET A. ZAHN, former dean of Humanities and Social Sciences and Professor of Sociology at North Carolina State University took leave from NC State on September 8th to head a division at the National Institute of Justice in Washington, D.C. In her role as division head she will provide strategic planning for the Violence and Victimization Program; establish partnerships with other federal agencies; direct and guide extramural and intramural research agendas in violence. She may be reached at: 810 7th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20531. Phone: 202-616-8592; e-mail: zahnm@ojp.usdoj.gov.

CONFERENCES AND WORKSHOPS

INTERNATIONAL POLICE EXECUTIVE SYMPOSIUM 9th Annual Meeting, “Police Training & Education: A Comparative Global Perspective”, May 21-24, 2002, Antalya, Turkey. For further details, contact Dilip K. Das, E-mail: dilipkd@aol.com/dilip.das@plattsburgh.edu/Hranei@plattsburgh.edu.

JUSTICE STUDIES ASSOCIATION Fourth Annual Conference, May 30-June 1, 2002, Eastland Park Hotel, Portland, Maine. Contact Program Chair, Dennis Sullivan, for details: e-mail: gezellig@global2000.net; Fax 518/765-2967.

SECOND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON SENTENCING & SOCIETY, Strathclyde University, Glasgow, June 27-29, 2002. For further details, click on www.law.strath.ac.uk/CSR.
in providing a point of reference should it occur. A statement requesting that the ASC should look into developing a professional standard of conduct was drawn up, approved by a business meeting, and sent to the Executive Council where it was referred to committee. Handed from one committee to another, the statement, which has become a draft code of ethics, will be reviewed again in November 2002 by the Executive Council.

Meanwhile, sexual harassment and discrimination continues, and in particular gay and lesbian scholars are made vulnerable by the quasi-legitimacy afforded homophobia. One does not hear racist or sexist jokes at the annual meetings, but homophobic jokes occasionally go unchallenged. Can the young scholar assume that the playing field is level or that work on gay and lesbian justice issues will be taken seriously? I think not.

Todd Clear put it this way: "For an organization that has dominant majorities of white males and yet deals with public policy affecting historically disenfranchised groups, the question is, 'How do we enhance the level of participation of historically excluded groups?" Clear correct points out that recruitment efforts are important. But recruiting for diversity and ignoring young scholars does not in the long run balance demographics or improve the legitimacy of the organization. Like Julius Debro, I write on behalf of a division identified by a minority status and so I share his concern with the ways that graduate faculties, review panels, journal editors, granting agencies, search committees and potential collaborators or mentors distribute opportunities and shape the profession. I am well aware that practical support for scholars in coping with discrimination has fallen to the Division on People of Color and to the Division on People of Color, which I might add do an admirable job in compensating for the shortcoming of the discipline. But there has to be material support for diversity initiatives, e.g., summer institute for minority scholars, and a commitment that spans more than a single presidency.

National Policy

The only policy position the Society has ever endorsed concerns the death penalty. On the basis of an extensive analysis of the data, it approved the statement that there is no evidence that the death penalty deters crime. While many approved, others resigned, leaving in their wake an entrenched reluctance to involve the Society in partisan efforts of any kind. The National Policy Committee, the present forum for discussing policy related issues, is charged with reviewing the scientific basis or the state of knowledge pertaining to policy issues and with making recommendations to the Executive Board when warranted. The likelihood of initiating a review of the scientific evidence depends greatly on outside funding, because the ASC has no provisions for supporting the work of review panels. Even if a review panel were to produce a recommendation, the chances that it would receive the approval of the Society is complicated by a multi-body, two year review process.

Current practices have pulled back from policy positions in favor of "white papers." The National Policy Committee's current policy paper, "The Use of Incarceration in the United States," is available on the ASC web site [http://asc41.com/policypaper1.html] [Quotations are taken from this document]. It is a wonderful example of how policy relevant research can be useful. The report recommends that criminologists develop studies that examine "the long-term implications of high life time incarceration rates for certain minority populations," and would investigate "the effects of the War on Drugs with particular attention its role in increasing rates of imprisonment for African Americans, Hispanics, women and their children." This year, the National Policy Committee will take up the issue of juveniles who are waived to adult courts, conditions of confinement in juvenile justice, and the death penalty.

The idea that the ASC acquire publication rights to a policy journal, Criminology and Public Policy, idea has some support on the ASC Board. It opens a potential new forum for the assessment policy, while reflecting the ASC's mandate as an organization dedicated to research, education, and the creation of knowledge. The journal idea also avoids the divisiveness associated with committing the Society to a particular position. As with any potential acquisition, details over the selection of editors, editorial control, production costs, and distribution would have to be worked out to the satisfaction of the membership and within budgetary constraints of the organization.

ASC Administrative Office

Whenever we talk about the administrative office, we invariably talk about Sarah Hall, and the amazing job she has done in managing the operation of the ASC. We all have much to thank her for. I'm not sure when the bookkeeper came on staff, but with the recent addition of a part-time Executive Director, there are still only 2.5 staff members to run an organization of 3400 professionals. I have no hard and fast method to judge the adequacy of staffing, but using the figures that Todd Clear provided and calculating ratios, it seems plain that we have overworked the staff for some time. The ASC has a staff to member ratio of 1:1360, ACJS has a staff to member ratio of 1:800, and the ASA's ratio is 1 to 565. Just to come up to the staffing levels of comparable organizations, we would have to add 1.5 to 3.5 new people to the administrative office.

Although the future has been framed as a choice between annual meetings and national presence, the administrative office has the same basic tasks in both models. I doubt if anyone can draw up an exhaustive list of what the staff does, but let me try to get the main outlines. The office oversees the annual meetings, including its governance and the divisions. It manages the financial records and the database of membership. It runs the elections, fields inquiries from members, media, and academics in search of reviewers. It updates the web site, has some responsibilities for our various publications, and it probably has hundreds of other obligations. While we may be able to manage temporarily, viability of the ASC depends on adding staff to the administrative office. Any additions to the administrative office's responsibilities makes new staff mandatory.

Adding staff, however, means that the Society would also have to move the administrative office to larger quarters. The day-to-day business of the ASC is conducted in surprisingly cramped quarters: four rooms and storage area. Staffing and relocation are linked. On the issue of relocation, there seem to be at least three proposals on the table: relocate in Columbus, relocate to office space at another University, or relocate to office space in Washington, D.C. There are a lot of advantages to moving to Washington, not the least of which is to provide Congressional staffers with the results of the best policy-related research available. Washington brings increased visibility for the organization; something I don't think can be achieved with high tech communications. The proximity to policy makers and policy-related information would assist our membership in myriad ways.

I'm inclined to support the move to Washington, D.C., but it may be the more expensive alternative. That the move from Buffalo to Knoxville almost bankrupted the Society for the Study of Social Problems stands as a cautionary tale. Liaison work with lawmakers and agency personnel mandate additional staff. Although I agree in principle with sharing staff with an organization like the ACJS, I'm not so sure the Executive Board is going to be content to share control with another organization.

Annual Meetings
A lot has been said about the quality of the annual meetings. Complaints focus on no-show presenters, ill-prepared papers, too many sessions, and low attendance at panels. While there are a few simple remedies, requiring presenters to remit a refundable deposit or requiring panel organizers to submit completed papers as a condition for inclusion in the final program, there are some compelling reasons to avoid limiting inclusion in the program.

One set of reasons has to do with the economics of the ASC's annual meetings. Attendance is critical to whether the Society loses money or breaks even on its annual meeting. In order to book a hotel, the organization has to commit to filling up a certain number of rooms. If the meeting fails to fill up the rooms, the organization pays a whopping penalty, which may put the organization in the red. First tier cities like Washington D.C., San Francisco, Chicago tend to attract more people. College and university subsidies for faculty who present papers help too, but the practical meaning of this provision is that all attendees expect to be included in the program. My experience with working on program committees confirms this and more. The pressure is not to limit participation, but to construct as many panels as possible for inclusion in the program. I agree that fewer panels might be better, but restricting the program threatens attendance.

The other set of reasons for not limiting participation has to do with why people attend the meetings. The majority of people come to the meetings to network, e.g., to meet friends, to find like-minded scholars, to talk about on-going research projects, to make contact with funding agents or publishers, and to share a meal or drink with colleagues. Graduate students quickly discover that the real business of the meeting is conducted informally. Of course, funding agencies require researchers to take an active role in conference presentations. And some people are interested in specific topics. Members would probably attend more presentations, if similar panels were not all scheduled at the same time. However, with over 500 formal sessions in which some 2000 presenters have 15 minutes to deliver a paper, program chairs cannot hope to satisfy everyone.

I would personally like to see fewer formal panels and more informal opportunities that allow members to be included in program. Poster sessions, roundtables, working groups, and work-in-progress sessions, which typically involve a core of researchers meeting to advance various projects, have been used quite successfully. A single poster session can accommodate a large number of papers. A dozen roundtables can be run at once. Consolidating in this way leaves members freer to attend panels where fully completed papers have been submitted for inclusion in the final program.

Let me return to the original question: Do we want to remain an organization that runs an annual conference or do we want to play a role in administrative or international circles? It should be clear that I see advantages in moving to a larger stage, although bringing staffing levels up to the requirements of our current needs and finding appropriate office space may in the short run be more urgent. All this aside, my first priority—a vision for the next years—would be to see the ASC become a model for other professions in recruiting, supporting, and then recognizing the work of scholars from minority racial, ethnic, and gender backgrounds. Significant progress in these areas is a precondition for establishing an legitimate voice in national policy matters and ought to be a pivotal factor in building alliances with criminal justice and criminology organizations in other nations.

DREW HUMPHRIES
Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminal Justice - Armitage Hall
Rutgers University
311 North Fifth Street
Camden, NJ 0-8102
Phone: 856-225-6073 Email: humphri@crab.rutgers.edu
CALL FOR PAPERS

The new ASC journal, Criminology & Public Policy, is currently accepting manuscripts for consideration.

Criminology & Public Policy is a peer-review journal devoted to the study of criminal justice policy and practice. The central objective of the journal is to strengthen the role of research findings in the formulation of crime and justice policy by publishing empirically based, policy focused articles. Authors are encouraged to submit papers that contribute to a more informed dialogue about policies and their empirical bases. Papers suitable for CPP not only present their findings but explore the policy-relevant implications of those findings. Appropriate papers (1) empirically evaluate criminal justice policy or practice, (2) provide scientific support for new policies or practices, or (3) review existing research from a policy framework.

Criminology & Public Policy only considers original manuscripts which have not been previously published and are not currently under consideration elsewhere. Manuscripts should be typed, double-spaced and limited to 30 pages, including tables and figures. Style sheets are available upon request. Please submit five hard-copies and one electronic copy of the manuscript, an abstract of approximately 150 words, and a brief biographical sketch of the author(s) including contact information (address, phone number and e-mail), affiliation, recent publications and research interests.

Criminology & Public Policy
John Jay College of Criminal Justice
555 West 57th Street, Rm. 603
New York, NY 10019-2925

phone: (212) 237-8988
fax: (212) 237-8315
e-mail: cpp@jjay.cuny.edu
THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY

announces a call for papers for the THIRTEENTH WORLD CONGRESS OF CRIMINOLOGY

to be held in
RIO DE JANIERO, BRAZIL
August 17-22, 2003

on the theme of REDUCING CRIME AND PROMOTING JUSTICE: Challenges to Science, Policy and Practice and for the FOURTEENTH WORLD CONGRESS OF CRIMINOLOGY

to be held in
PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, USA
August 6-12, 2005

Please send inquiries, paper titles and proposals for panels for one or both Congresses to the following chairs of the program areas.

Address all general inquiries to the President of the ISC Scientific Commission, Professor Tony Peters of the Catholic University of Leuven, Belgium (tony.peters@law.kuleuven.ac.be)

Program Area Chair:

CRIME AND DEMOCRATIZATION
Rosemary Barberet, barberet@cica.es

COMMUNITY JUSTICE
Hans Bouteiller, jc.bouteiller@vrowc.minjust.nl

DRUGS AND CRIME
Serge Brochu, brochu@ere.montreal.ca

CLINICAL CRIMINOLOGY
Anne-Marie Favard-Drillaud, anne-marie.favard@wanadoo.fr

CRIME AND SOCIAL CAPITAL
Uberto Gatti, criminoc.unige.it

VICTIMLOGY
Jianin Guo, jcmaj@public.bta.net.cn

CORRECTIONS
Ole Ingstrup, ole@ingstrup@nhq.csc.s

CRIMINOLOGY AS A PROFESSION
Miklos Levay, oglm@silver.uni-miskolc.hu

ORGANIZATIONAL CRIME
Setsuo Miyazawa, miyazawa@rose.roudakai.kobe

GENDER AND CRIME
Sue Moody, s.r.moody@dundee.ac.uk

ALTERNATIVE JUSTICE
Luis Rodriguez-Manzanera, lurom@themisderecho.unam

SOCIAL NETWORKS AND CRIME
Jerzy Sarnecki, jerzy.sarnecki@crim.su.se

VICTIM POLICY
Leslie Sebb, fax 011-972-25-88-17-25

CORRUPTION
Alekna Selihi, alekna.selihi@uni-lj.si

POLICING
Wesley Skogan, skogan@wu.edu

CRIMES AGAINST CHILDREN
Rodica Stanicu, stanicu@univ1.senat.ro

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
Giovanni Traverso, traverso@unisi.it

CRIME AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT
Richard Tremblay, fax 514-343-6962

PSYCHOANALYSIS, JUSTICE AND THERAPY
Alfredo Verde, alverde@katalina.com

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE
Elmar Weitekamp, elmar.weitekamp@uni-tuebingen.de

NATIONAL RESEARCH INSTITUTES ON CRIME
Paul Wiles, pols.ho@gtnet.gov.uk

MEDIATION: PRACTICAL ISSUES
Dobrochna Wojcik, Fax 011-00-48-22-826-78-53

CRIMINOLOGY OF THE ARAB WORLD
Mohammed Zeid, Fax 011-003-9077-4366-135

DESISTANCE FROM CRIMINAL CAREERS
Hans-Juergen Kerner, hansjuergen.kerner@uni-tuebingen.de

CRIME, TRUST AND CIVIL SOCIETY
Susanne Karstedt, karstedts@aol.com

WHITE COLLAR CRIME
Peter Grabosky, peter.grabosky@aic.gov.au

ECO-CRIMINOLOGY
Tony Peters, tony.peters@law.kuleuven.ac.be

UNIVERSAL ETHICS & CRIMINOLOGY
Antonio Berestain, sz01vac@sz.ehu.es

COMPUTER CRIME
Peter Grabosky, peter.grabosky@aic.gov.au

THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY
Lawrence W. Sherman, President, lws@pobox.upenn.edu

Georges Picca, Secretary-General, crim.sic@wanadoo.fr
ACA Seeks Article Submissions for Peer-Reviewed Research Journal

Have you just completed a research study or scholarly essay that you think would be of interest to those in corrections? Corrections Compendium, the monthly journal of the American Correctional Association, is seeking submissions for upcoming issues. Its international readership includes individuals involved in various sectors of the corrections and criminal justice fields, including individuals employed in academia, correctional institutions and community corrections, to those in probation and parole and juvenile services. A leading peer-reviewed publication in the corrections field, Compendium welcomes you to submit your research-based papers for possible publication. We are open to submissions on all subjects — provided that they relate to corrections and adhere to standards of quality scholarship. A typical article is approximately 3,000 to 6,000 words, excluding references, endnotes, tables, charts, etc. All submissions are reviewed by members of our editorial advisory board. Articles must not have been published elsewhere or be under consideration by another publication. Do you think you may have just what we are looking for? If so, please send your article on an IBM-compatible disk in WordPerfect or Microsoft Word format, double spaced, with any tables or charts at the end of the copy, and accompanied by a hard copy to: Susan Clayton, Managing Editor, American Correctional Association, 4380 Forbes Boulevard, Lanham, MD 20706-4322; or e-mail it to: susanc@aca.org. Please remember to include your name, title, affiliation, address, daytime telephone number, fax number and e-mail address.

LAW AND SOCIAL INQUIRY
GRADUATE STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION

The editors of Law and Social Inquiry are pleased to announce a competition for the best journal-length paper in the field of sociolegal studies written by a graduate student. The winning paper will be published in Law and Social Inquiry and the author will receive a cash prize of $500.00. Submissions will be judged by the editorial board, and the winning submission will be internally reviewed for publication. The author must be a graduate student or law student at the time of submission. Entries should be received by March 1, 2002. The winner will be selected by May 1 and the prize will be awarded at the annual meeting of the Law and Society Association. Law and Social Inquiry publishes both empirical and theoretical studies of sociolegal processes from a variety of disciplinary perspectives.

Please send your best work to: The Editors, Law and Social Inquiry, American Bar Foundation, 750 N. Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, IL 60611. For further information send e-mail to: lsi-sbf@abfn.org, or call 312-988-6517.

THE CAMPBELL COLLABORATION

Whose mission is to prepare, maintain and disseminate high quality systematic reviews of studies that involve interventions in crime and justice, education, social welfare and other social and behavioral arenas is pleased to announce THE SECOND ANNUAL CAMPBELL COLLABORATION COLLOQUIUM, “Joining the Disciplines to Improve Public Policy: The Role of Research and Systematic Reviews”.

The Aim of the colloquium is to help develop mechanisms for bringing people from different disciplines together in the preparation of high quality systematic reviews on social and behavioral interventions and programs.

Contact: Dr. Dorothy de Moya, The Campbell Collaboration Secretariat
http://campbell.gse.upenn.edu ddemoya@erols.com 215-848-5489
CALL FOR PAPERS

CRIMINAL JUSTICE REVIEW
The Criminal Justice Review is a biannual scholarly journal dedicated to presenting a broad perspective on criminal justice issues. It focuses on any aspect of crime and the justice system, and can feature local, state, or national concerns. Both qualitative and quantitative pieces are encouraged, providing that they adhere to standards of quality scholarship. As a peer-reviewed journal, we encourage the submission of articles, research notes, commentaries, and comprehensive essays that focus on crime and justice-related topics broadly defined. Four copies of manuscripts should be submitted in English, follow APA style, be double-spaced throughout, including references, tables and indented quotations, and cannot be under consideration by another publication. An abstract not to exceed 200 words must be included with submissions. Send to:

Michael S. Vaughn, Editor
Criminal Justice Review
P.O. Box 4018
Georgia State University
Atlanta, GA 30302-4018
404-651-3660; Email: mvaughn@gsu.edu; Web Site: www.gsu.edu/cjr.

INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE REVIEW
The International Criminal Justice Review is an annual scholarly journal dedicated to presenting system wide trends and problems on crime and justice throughout the world. Articles may focus on a single country or compare issues affecting two or more countries. Both qualitative and quantitative pieces are encouraged, providing they adhere to standards of quality scholarship. Manuscripts may emphasize either contemporary or historical topics. As a peer-reviewed journal, we encourage the submission of articles, research notes, commentaries, and comprehensive essays that focus on crime and justice-related topics in an international and/or comparative context broadly defined. Four copies of manuscripts should be submitted in English, follow APA style, be double-spaced throughout, including references, tables and indented quotations, and cannot be under consideration by another publication. An abstract not to exceed 200 words must be included with submissions. Send to:

Michael S. Vaughn, Editor
International Criminal Justice Review
P.O. Box 4018
Georgia State University
Atlanta, GA 30302-4018
404-651-3660; Email: mvaughn@gsu.edu; Web Site: www.gsu.edu/icjr.

JUSTICE POLICY JOURNAL: The Official Journal of the Justice Policy Institute
The purpose of the Justice Policy Journal is to provide a forum for the publication and discussion of current policy issues related to criminal and juvenile justice. The specific focus of the journal will be on the promulgation of innovative policy ideas and initiatives. Theoretical and historical approaches are encouraged, as long as these are related to current public policy issues. Stipends of $500 will be provided for each article accepted for publication. The overall goal is to provide a professional venue to practitioners, researchers, policy makers and critics on current issues related to criminal and juvenile justice. Each issue will not only have scholarly articles, but also commentaries, news briefs and up-dates on current legislative initiatives. Article submissions should be provided on a disk or e-mail attachment. Include title page, abstract, institutional affiliation, brief biographical sketch and an e-mail address. Send the manuscript to: Dan Macallair, Justice Policy Journal, 1622 Folsom Street, San Francisco, CA 94103; 415-621-5661; journal@cjci.org Scholarly articles should not exceed 30 typed pages (double-space), excluding endnotes, references, tables, etc. An abstract of no more than 250 words must accompany the title page of all manuscripts submitted. We also encourage individuals to submit brief commentaries, reviews of current legislative initiatives, and news briefs. A stipend of $100 will be awarded for the publication of commentaries. The length of these reports may vary, but should not exceed five pages.
CALL FOR PAPERS

CRIMINAL JUSTICE: The International Journal of Policy and Practice
This is a peer-reviewed journal that will include scholarly articles that focus on the policy-making process, current criminal justice policies and practices, and the gap that sometimes exists between policy and practice. It will also include regular features on policy development and national practice initiatives and a book review section. For submission details, contact the following. Regarding papers from Europe, contact Tim Newburn (t.newburn@gold.ac.uk). Regarding papers from Australia, contact David Dixon (D.Dixon@unsw.edu.au). Regarding papers from the Americas, contact Martin D. Schwartz (schwartz@ohio.edu).

CRITICAL CRIMINOLOGY: AN INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL
This open call requests quality manuscripts pertaining to critical criminology in all its manifestations, including critical legal studies and social justice issues. We welcome qualitative and quantitative methodologies, including non-traditional approaches to data gathering and analysis. Papers should expose and oppose forms of domination that include class, gender, race/ethnicity and sexual orientation — especially their intersecting and interlocking nature. We encourage works that focus on creative and cooperative solutions to justice problems, plus strategies for the construction of a more inclusive society. All manuscripts are subject to peer review. Papers should be 4,000 to 6,000 words (including tables, illustrations, notes and references) and framed in a manner that would be of interest to an international audience. Book reviews are also welcome and shorter research notes (3,000 words) will be considered for publication. Submissions not from North America or Europe are welcome and can be sent to any editor.

European/Continental Editor: Jock Young, Centre for Criminology, Middlesex University, Queensway, Enfield EN3 4SF, United Kingdom - j.young@mdx.ac.uk
North American Editor: Paul Leighton, Dept. of Sociology, Anthropology & Criminology, 712 Pray Harrold, Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, MI 48197 - paul@stopviolence.com

For more information see http://paulsjusticepage.com>Critical Criminology Journal

JOURNAL OF CRIME AND JUSTICE
The Journal of Crime and Justice, the official publication of the Midwestern Criminal Justice Association, is a biannual peer-reviewed journal dedicated to the presentation of original empirical works and theoretical commentaries relevant to criminal and social justice. Both quantitative and qualitative pieces are solicited on a broad range of crime and justice related topics. The manuscript should not exceed 30 pages (including tables and references) and must be in APA style and double-spaced. An abstract of not more than 200 words and a $10.00 submission fee (payable to MCJA) must also be included. Send to: J. Mitchell Miller, Editor, Currell College of Criminal Justice, University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC 29208. Correspondence to: Hololy Ventura, Graduate Editorial Assistant, University of South Carolina. Email: ventura@gwm.sc.edu FAX 803-7770108.

CRIME, LAW AND SOCIAL CHANGE: An International Journal
Crime, Law and Social Change is a peer-reviewed journal that publishes essays and reviews dealing with the political economy of organized crime whether at the transnational, national, regional or local levels anywhere in the world. In addition, the Journal publishes work on financial crime, political corruption, environmental crime, and the expropriation of resources from developing nations. The Journal is also committed to publishing in the general area of Human Rights including studies of genocide, essays of compensation and justice for survivors of mass murder and state-sponsored terrorism, analyses of international human rights organizations (both governmental and NGO's), and essays focused on gender, racial and ethnic quality.

Crime, Law and Social Change invites scholars from all disciplines to submit book reviews. The Journal recently expanded its book review section, and will work with scholars to match their research interests with books we have received for review. Furthermore, Crime, Law and Social Change will, on occasion, solicit books from publishers at the request of prospective authors. Young scholars looking for publishing opportunities are also encouraged to submit reviews. For further information, please contact Sean Patrick Griffin, Book Review Editor, Crime, Law and Social Change, 134 Brackett Hall, Clemson, SC 29634-1356, USA, (864) 656-3814, griff@clemson.edu.
CALL FOR PAPERS

JOURNAL OF QUANTITATIVE CRIMINOLOGY
The Journal of Quantitative Criminology invites ASC members to submit their research to the journal. JQC publishes papers that use quantitative techniques to address substantive, methodological, or evaluative topics in criminology and criminal justice. While some articles are at the forefront of quantitative methodology, others apply familiar methods to substantively important topics. The Journal emphasizes the use of sound quantitative methods, not methodological sophistication for its own sake. Persons interested in submitting their work to JQC should send four copies of their manuscript to: Journal of Quantitative Criminology, School of Criminal Justice, University at Albany, State University of New York, Albany, NY 12222. Style guidelines and a sample copy are available at the Journal's web site: www.wkap.nl/journalhome.htm/0748-4518

SOCIOLOGY OF CRIME, LAW, AND DEVIANCE, Volume 4
(Published by Elsevier Sciences)
Violent Acts and Violentization: Assessing, Applying, and Developing Lonnie Athens’ Theory and Research
Edited by Lonnie Athens and Jeffrey T. Ulmer
Sociology of Crime, Law and Deviance is an annual series of volumes that publishes scholarly work in the areas of criminology and criminal justice, the sociology of law, and the sociology of deviance. The series is now accepting manuscripts for consideration for publication in Volume 4. The theme of Volume 4 will be “Violent Acts and Violentization: Assessing, Applying, and Developing Lonnie Athens’ Theory and Research.” Athens’ theory and research largely appears in his books, Violent Criminal Acts and Actors Revisited (1997, University of Illinois Press) and the Creation of Dangerous Violent Criminals (1989, Routledge), and was the subject of the popular and controversial book, Why They Kill: Discoveries of a Maverick Criminologist by Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist/author Richard Rhodes (1999, Knopf). We invite theoretical developments, reviews, and critiques of the theory of violentization, and especially empirical research that applies or tests the key concepts and propositions of violentization. Publication decisions will be made based on evaluations by external reviewers and the judgement of the editors. Volume 4 is tentatively scheduled to be published in the fall of 2002. The submission deadline for consideration for Volume 4 is January 10, 2002. Please send all manuscripts to: Jeffrey T. Ulmer, Department of Sociology, 211 Oswald Tower, Penn State University, University Park, PA 16802 jtu100@psu.edu

POLICE PRACTICE AND RESEARCH: An International Journal
Manuscripts are solicited for Police Practice and Research: An International Journal, which is published in four issues per volume. The journal presents current and innovative police research, as well as operational and administrative practices from around the world. Articles and reports are sought from practitioners, researchers, and other interested in developments in policing, analysis of public order, and the state of safety as it affects the quality of life everywhere. The journal seeks to bridge the gap in knowledge that exists regarding who the police are, what they do, and how they maintain order, administer laws, and serve their communities. Attention is also focused on specific organizational information about the police in different countries and regions, and periodic special issues are devoted to studying police policies and practices regarding a particular topic or issue. The editors aim to improve cooperation between those who are active in the field and those who are involved in academic research, such as a relationship is essential for innovative police work. To this end, the editors encourage the submission of manuscripts co-authored by police practitioners and researchers that highlights a particular subject from both points of view.

Submission of Manuscripts
Manuscripts should be no more than 30 typed, double-spaced pages with text presented on one side of paper in English. The manuscripts should be accompanied by an abstract of no more than 100 words, up to six key words, and a brief biographical sketch. For a complete Notes for Contributors, contact: Arvind Verma, Managing Editor, Department of Criminal Justice, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47405, USA, or any other member of the Journal team.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
Dilip K. Das, 23 Carolanne Drive, Delmar, NY 12054, USA
Tel: (518) 475-1189, Fax: (518) 475-0078 - Email: dilipkd@aol.com or - State University of New York, Dept. of Sociology and Criminal Justice, Plattsburgh, NY 12901, USA,
Tel: (518) 564-3045, Fax: (518) 564-3333
Email: dilip.das@plattsburgh.edu
CALL FOR PAPERS

JOURNAL OF ETHNICITY IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE
The Journal of Ethnicity and Criminal Justice is affiliated with the Minorities and Women of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences. The first issue will be published in spring 2002. This unique multidisciplinary journal will be the only publication that focuses exclusively on crime, criminal justice, and ethnicity. As a peer-reviewed journal, we encourage critical analyses of ethnicity and criminal justice; empirical data on criminal justice and ethnicity; international and cross-cultural perspectives of ethnicity and criminal justice, and articles that explore the broad themes of ethnicity and criminal justice and advance theory, research, and policy in these areas. Four copies of the manuscript should be submitted. The manuscript should be approximately 15-20 pages double-spaced with a one-inch margin on all four sides and should include an abstract of 100 words, a title page, and a brief biographical sketch of author(s). References, citations, and general style of manuscripts should follow the Chicago style (as outlined in the latest edition of the Manual of Style of the University of Chicago Press). References should be double-spaced and placed in alphabetical order. Send all requests and manuscripts to: Dr. Janice Joseph, Editor, Journal of Ethnicity and Criminal Justice, Criminal Justice Program, Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, Jim Leeds Road, Pomona, NJ 08240

THE JUSTICE PROFESSIONAL
The Justice Professional is a refereed journal published quarterly by Thomas & Franklin. It is housed at the C.W. Post Campus of Long Island University, Department of Criminal Justice. The Justice Professional publishes articles that deal with substantive criminal justice and criminological issues, inviting both qualitative and quantifiable papers. We welcome all articles relevant to areas of criminal justice as well as areas such as public administration and public affairs. Literature reviews, summary reports of innovative research projects, and research notes are all considered. MANUSCRIPTS: Typewritten, double-spaced manuscripts must be submitted in quadruplicate to: Roslyn Muraskin, Ph.D. Editor, THE JUSTICE PROFESSIONAL, Dept. of Criminal Justice, C.W. Post Campus-Long Island University. 720 Northern Blvd., Post Hall 3C3, Brookville, NY 11548. An abstract of not more than 100 words, as well as a brief biographical statement describing the authors' current affiliation and rank should accompany the manuscript along with the article on disk in Word. THE JUSTICE PROFESSIONAL regards submission to the journal as commitment to publish herein. Permission for use of copyright materials is the responsibility of the author. Manuscripts should not exceed 20 typewritten double-spaced-pages. All footnotes, references, tables, figures and illustration must be camera ready on an eight and one half by eleven wide paper. Footnotes and bibliographic citations must follow the journal style based upon that followed by the American Psychological Association (APA). Since manuscripts are sent out anonymously for editorial evaluation, the authors' name should appear on a separate cover sheet. INQUIRIES: 516/299-3146 (phone); 516/299-2640 Fax; muraskin@liu.edu

JOURNAL OF CONTEMPORARY ETHNOGRAPHY
Special Issue on Gender, Crime and (In)Justice
The Journal of Contemporary Ethnography announces a Call for Papers for a special issue on Ethnographic Perspectives on Gender, Crime and (In)Justice. The issue will focus on problems related to gender inequality, situated femininities/masculinities, and their relations to crime, juvenile delinquency, and justice. In addition to traditional topics within criminology and criminal justice, the themes of crime and justice will be considered broadly to include legal, human rights, and labor issues associated with the commercial sex industry and other criminalized activities, as well as issues facing women in prison. As JCE increasingly includes a global perspective, we encourage submissions based on international research.

All papers will be peer reviewed. If you are unsure whether your topic or research is suitable, or are interested in reviewing for this issue, contact the Special Issue Editor, Jody Miller, via e-mail at millerja@msx.umsl.edu or phone at 314-516-5426.

Please send four manuscript copies and a US$10 submission fee (payable to Jody Miller) by December 31, 2001 to: Jody Miller, JCE Guest Editor, Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice, University of Missouri-St Louis, 8001 Natural Bridge Rd., St. Louis, MO 63121.
CALL FOR PAPERS

HOMICIDE: AN INTERDISCIPLINARY AND INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL
Thomas A. Petee, Auburn University, and Jay Corzine, University of Central Florida, have been appointed as Co-Editors of Homicide: An Interdisciplinary and International Journal for a six-year term, beginning August 1, 2001. For the first three years, the journal's editorial office will be located at Auburn University; the office will move to the University of Central Florida for the second three years. Authors should submit manuscripts in triplicate to: Thomas A. Petee, Co-Editor, Department of Sociology, 7030 Haley Center, Auburn University, Auburn, AL 36840-5209/. Phone 334/844-5018 or 844-2821; fax 334-844-2851; email: pettea@mail.auburn.edu

Homicide Studies is a publication dedicated to the dissemination of empirical research addressing issues pertinent to the study of homicide. Submissions for review should be empirically based, using quantitative or qualitative methods. Theoretical papers, research summaries, and public policy reviews are also welcomed.

PRAEGER SERIES ON CRIMINAL JUSTICE, DELINQUENCY, AND CORRECTIONS
Book: Racial Issues in Criminal Justice: The Case of African Americans
Marvin D. Free, Jr., will be editing a book of readings for the Praeger Series. He will consider both qualitative as well as quantitative works that examine racial issues using a critical perspective. He has set up a website for prospective contributors to visit (http://facstaff.uww.edu/freem).

ANZSOC 2002 16TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE
"Preventing Crime and Doing Justice"

The 16th annual conference of the Australian and New Zealand Society of Criminology will be held in Brisbane October 1-3, 2002. Hosted by the School of Criminology and Criminal Justice and the Key Centre for Ethics, Law, Justice and Governance at Griffith University, the conference next year will take place at the Sheraton Hotel, located a above Central Station in the heart of Brisbane, accessible directly from the airport by AirTrain.

Confirmed speakers include Tony Bottoms and David Farrington, both from the Institute of Criminology at Cambridge University. In addition, Robert Sampson, from the Department of Sociology, University of Chicago, is among the keynote speakers. A large number of other speakers from Australia and around the world are expected to attend. Highlights of the social calendar will include a dinner at the old Boggo Road jail and a welcome reception co-hosted by the American Society of Criminology.

CALL FOR PAPERS

SENTENCING & SOCIETY: SECOND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
Strathclyde University, Glasgow
June 27-29, 2002

The aim of the International Conference is to bring together those working in the area of sentencing and punishment, whether as scholars and researchers, judges and practitioners or policy makers to exchange ideas, and develop knowledge and debate. As well as well-established areas of study (such as the politics of sentencing reform; effectiveness; disparity etc.), the international conference organisers also welcome papers developing newer areas of socio-legal interest (such as the social history of punishment, restorative justice, the use of IT, judicial education, organisational perspectives etc).

Strathclyde's Centre for Sentencing Research organised and hosted The First International Conference on Sentencing & Society in 1999, which attracted over 130 delegates from over 15 countries: a mix of researchers, senior policymakers, and senior practitioners. The organisers warmly welcome papers and participation from all those concerned with the study of sentencing and society.

Contact: Neil Hutton OR Cyrus Tata, Centre for Sentencing Research, Law School, Strathclyde University, Glasgow, G4 ORQ. E-mail: Cyrus.Tata@strath.ac.uk OR n.hutton@strath.ac.uk OR click on www.law.strath.ac.uk/CSR.

******************************************************************************

BRITISH SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY CONFERENCE
"Crossing Borders"
July 17-20, 2002 - Keele University

The conference will be 'Crossing Borders' through a variety of topical streams, and the organizers invite creative proposals for presentations and discussion. We would like to receive proposals for themed sessions, for roundtable discussions, book discussions, poster sessions and postgraduate sessions. European and international perspectives will be particularly welcomed. We invite European and International research groups, networks, and projects to take advantage of the site and topic to convene their partners at the conference.

The organizers are offering two Pre-conference Workshops on Tuesday, July 16: 'Doing Restorative Justice: Practice and Research' and 'Criminology Meets the Media'. Both workshops will provide training opportunities.

The beautiful rural campus of Keele University has been voted 'Best UK Academic Conference Venue' for the past three years in the prestigious MIT awards and will provide an attractive location for a stimulating and exciting conference experience.

All information on the programme, proposals and registration for the conference and the pre-conference workshops can be found on the conference website: http://www.,keele.ac.uk/depts/cr/bsc/. Forms for proposals and registration will be available at this site.

For further information, inquiries and suggestions please contact the conference administrator:

Sian Payne
BSC2002@keele.ac.uk
Or
Susanne Karstedt
S.karstedt@crim.keele.ac.uk

Department of Criminology, Keele University, Keele Staffordshire ST5 5BG, UK. FAX 44 1782 584269
ASC STUDENTS

CALL FOR ENTRIES

2002 ASC GENE CARTE STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION

We invite participation in The American Society of Criminology Gene Carte Student Paper Competition. These awards are given to recognize outstanding scholarly work of students. Following are the procedures for the 2000 competition.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

Any student currently enrolled on a full-time basis in an academic program at either the undergraduate or graduate level. Persons who are previous first place prize winners of this competition are ineligible.

SPECIFICATIONS FOR PAPERS

No paper may be submitted to more than one ASC student competition for the same year. Any paper that has previously won any prize in any ASC competition is ineligible for submission to another ASC competition. Papers may be conceptual and/or empirical but must be directly related to criminology. Papers must be typewritten, double-spaced on 8-1/2 x 11 white paper, and no longer than 7,500 words. The CRIMINOLOGY format for the organization of text, citations and references should be used. Authors' names, departments and advisors (optional) must appear ONLY on the title page, since papers will be evaluated anonymously. The next page of the manuscript should include the title and a 100-word abstract. The author must submit EIGHT copies of the manuscript, accompanied by a letter indicating the author's enrollment status and co-signed by the dean, department chair or program director.

DEADLINE

Papers must be submitted with a postmark on or before April 15, 2002 to:

NANCY WONDER
Department of Criminal Justice
Northern Arizona University
P.O. Box 15005, Building 65
Flagstaff, AZ 86011-5005
520/523-6336 520/523-8011 FAX
nancy.wonders@nau.edu

PROCEDURES FOR JUDGING ENTRIES

The Student Awards Committee will rate entries according to criteria such as the quality of the conceptualization, significance of the topic, clarity and aptness of methods, quality of the writing, command of relevant work in the field, and contribution to criminology. The Committee's award determinations will be final.

AWARDS

The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place papers will be awarded prizes of $500, $300, and $200, respectively and will be eligible for presentation at the 2002 meeting of The American Society of Criminology in Chicago, Illinois, November 13-16, 2002. The 1st prize winner also will be granted a travel award to the meeting. The Committee may decide that no entry is of sufficient quality to declare a winner. Fewer than three awards may be given. Prize-winning students will be acknowledged at the Annual Meeting Awards Ceremony.

NOTIFICATION OF AWARDS

The author(s) of entries selected by the judges for awards will be notified in writing by August 1, 2002.
MICHAEL J. HINDELANG AWARD
For the Most Outstanding Contribution to Criminology

Nominations for 2002

The American Society of Criminology has established the Michael J. Hindelang Award, to be given annually for book/published during the previous two to three years that makes the most outstanding contribution to research in criminology.

To be considered, books may be submitted by individuals, publishers, or institutions. The Committee will not consider anthologies and/or edited volumes. The Award will be presented during the annual meeting of the Society. The Executive Board may decide not to give the Award in a given year.

The Award Committee is soliciting nominations for the Michael J. Hindelang Award. To nominate a book, please send the title of the book, its authors, the publishers, the year of the publication, and a brief discussion of your reasons for the recommendation to the Award Committee.

The deadline for receiving nominations is March 15, 2002. Send your nominations to:

MICHAEL TONRY
Criminology Department
Cambridge University
7 West Road
Cambridge CB3 9DT England
United Kingdom
Mt261@cam.ac.uk

************************************************************************

FELLOWSHIPS AVAILABLE
University of New Hampshire, Durham

The University of New Hampshire Family Research Laboratory (FRL) has fellowships for research on family violence available beginning immediately. Applicants interested in starting dates beyond June, 2002 may apply pending funding from sponsor. These NIMH-funded positions are open to new and experienced researchers with doctorates in the fields of psychology, sociology, social work, law, nursing, public health and medicine. The fellowships are intended for work in the area of child abuse, marital violence, elder abuse, sexual abuse, child victimization, rape, homicide and other family-violence related topics with special attention to mental health impact. Scholars use the one-year fellowships (with possible one-year extension) to collaborate with FRL faculty on a current project, to work on one of the many data sets archived at the FRL or, in the case of senior candidates, to work on their own projects.

Fellows must be able to reside within commuting distance to UNH (one and a half hours from Boston). Annual stipends run from $26,916 to $42,300 depending upon the number of years since receipt of doctorate. Applications from scholars with backgrounds in developmental or cognitive psychology, or interests in family violence in minority families, or families of persons with disabilities are particularly encouraged. Applications (FRL application form required from website (www.unh.edu/frl) letter of interest, curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation and publications or work sample) will be accepted beginning immediately. For more information, contact David Finkelhor, Co-Director, Family Research Laboratory (603) 862-1888; email: david.finkelhor@unh.edu. Complete applications should be sent to Program Administrator, Family Research Laboratory, University of New Hampshire, 126 Horton SSC, Durham, NH 03824.
NEW EDITOR SOUGHT
FOR CRIMINOLOGY

The American Society of Criminology invites applications for the position of Editor of CRIMINOLOGY, one of its official journals. The new Editor will be responsible for three volumes beginning with the February, 2004 issue. It is anticipated that manuscript submissions will transfer to the new Editor during the spring of 2003.

In addition to supervising the peer review process and selecting articles for publication, the Editor is responsible for the production of the journal. The American Society of Criminology now pays for copy editing, printing, and mailing of the journal and for a one-half time managing editor. The Editor's supporting institution normally provides office space, file storage, equipment, and funds to cover office expenses such as postage and phone for editorial correspondence, copying, graduate student assistance, and release time for the Editor. Supporting institutions may propose to assume some of the expenses now provided by the ASC. ASC will provide a $5,000 honorarium to the Editor each year.

Application materials should include (1) a statement of editorial philosophy, (2) resumes of all proposed personnel, including the Editor, Managing Editor, Copy Editor, and Associate Editors, and (3) assurances and details of institutional support.

Interested applicants may contact the current Editor, Robert Bursik (314-516-6644) for additional information regarding the logistics or operational details of editing and producing the journal. Applicants are also encouraged to call Christy Visher, Chair, ASC Editorial Board, to discuss their applications before submission.

Applications (ten copies) should be sent to:

Christy A. Visher
Chair, ASC Editorial Board
The Urban Institute
Justice Policy Center
2100 M Street, NW
Washington, DC 20037

They must be received by May 15, 2002.
SARAH HALL

Twenty-five Years of Service to the American Society of Criminology

How time flies! It’s been twenty-five years since Harry Allen, John Conrad, Simon Dinitz, and then-ASC president Gil Geis talked with Sarah Hall about a job. Some concerns were expressed about committing such a large (don’t laugh, Sarah!) portion of the budget to the job, and Sarah herself wasn’t sure she wanted it. Thankfully, as it turned out, when Gil said “Give her the job,” she accepted and moved into Harry Allen’s office suite on the campus of Ohio State University in Columbus, and she has been there ever since.

The Society’s current president, Ron Huff, was program chair (with Bob Meier) for the Tucson meeting in 1976, Sarah’s first. That meeting drew some 300 attendees and had 58 sessions. Last year’s meetings had 547 sessions and 2,800 attendees. Things have certainly changed.

During the annual meeting, Sarah can always be found at the registration desk making sure things go smoothly. Less well known is her important work behind the scenes, especially with program chairs, presidents, and the board. The annual meeting is like a family gathering, and Sarah wanted me to mention some members whose help and support has been especially appreciated over the years: Among others, Jim and Bunny Hackler, Kelma Short, Debbie Curran, Jennifer Bursik, Liz Chilton, and Bruce Berg. “I know as long as they are there, everything is going to be OK.” And Menachem Amir always makes sure Sarah gets ice cream during the ice cream social!

I asked some ASC members who have worked directly with Sarah to share their thoughts on her twenty-five years with us. Joan McCord remembers many occasions in which Sarah saved the day with her “unfailing good humor.” Frank Scarpitti notes how Sarah’s career has provided the ASC with continuity and stability, and answers for our many questions, especially from younger colleagues. Harry Allen (“#1” to Sarah) remembers returning with Sarah from some meetings in San Francisco years ago. An exhausted Sarah took dictation most of the way back to Columbus, and had the letters ready by 10:00 am the next morning. Chris Eskridge, who began working with Sarah as a graduate student, claims he was initially enticed into doing ASC work by the ready supply of jelly beans she kept on her desk. He still sinks his hand into that jar during his occasional visits to Columbus.

Jim Short applauds Sarah as a dedicated professional, with “an amazing capacity to tolerate complaints and requests from sometimes unreasonable ASC members” – including some board members, he adds. Her “prodigious institutional memory has served us well.” Ira Schwartz sees Sarah as one of the reasons the ASC is so widely respected. Joan Petersilia fondly remembers her encounters with Sarah when Joan was a young graduate student at Ohio State. After many years of association, Joan is still amazed that Sarah is always “up” and available to help; as president of ASC, she writes, “I came to see first hand what an integral part of the ASC she is.” Chris Eskridge notes the extraordinary “above and beyond” effort that Sarah has put forth for years and years, and her remarkable ability to link and remember names and faces.

Whether from home or abroad, members of the American Society of Criminology seem to agree that Sarah can resolve just about anything, and that she does it with a smile and friendly voice. Happy anniversary, Sarah, and as Joan Petersilia observes: “We couldn’t have done it without you!”

Hugh Barlow
NOMINATIONS FOR ASC FELLOWS

The ASC Fellows Committee invites nominations for Fellows in the Society. This title is available to those members of the Society in good standing who have achieved distinction in criminology. The last meeting of the ASC Executive Board approved the following clarification of this distinction: "The honorary title "Fellow" recognizes persons who have made a scholarly contribution to the intellectual life of the discipline, whether in the form of a singular, major piece of scholarship or cumulative scholarly contributions. Longevity alone is not sufficient. In addition, a Fellow must have made a significant contribution to the field through the career development of other criminologists and/or through organizational activities within the ASC."

The names of those who have been awarded the Fellow status will be announced at the 2002 Annual Meeting and the candidates will be acknowledged by the Society with the presentation of a Certificate.

In your nominating letter, please describe the reasons for your nomination and include a copy of the nominees curriculum vitae (or make arrangements to have it sent to the Committee). All materials should be received by March 1, 2002 to:

ROBERT J. SAMPSON
Chair, ASC Fellows Committee
Department of Sociology
University of Chicago
1126 East 59th Street
Chicago, IL 60637
773/256-6357 773-702/4607 FAX

The nominations will be reviewed by all members of the Committee and recommendations made to the Executive Board for their consideration during their Spring Board meeting. Any questions concerning eligibility or the nomination process should be directed to Professor Sampson.

ASC FELLOW RECIPIENTS (as of November, 2001)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Freda Adler</th>
<th>Vladimir Eliasberg</th>
<th>John H. Laub</th>
<th>George Reed</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Robert Agnew</td>
<td>Delbert S. Elliott</td>
<td>Peter Lejins</td>
<td>Sue Titus Reid</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ronald L. Akers</td>
<td>LaMar T. Empey</td>
<td>Edwin M. Lemert</td>
<td>Albert J. Reiss, Jr.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Harry E. Allen</td>
<td>David P. Farrington</td>
<td>Alfred Lindesmith</td>
<td>Edward Sagarin</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>William E. Amos</td>
<td>Vernon Fox</td>
<td>Allen Liska</td>
<td>Robert Sampson</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John Ball</td>
<td>Marcel Fryn</td>
<td>Rolf Loeber</td>
<td>Frank Scarpetti</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>David Bayley</td>
<td>Gilbert Geis</td>
<td>Coramae Richey Mann</td>
<td>Thorsten Sellin</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Donald Black</td>
<td>Don Gibbons</td>
<td>Donal E.J. MacNamara</td>
<td>Lawrence W. Sherman</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alfred Blumstein</td>
<td>Jack Gibbs</td>
<td>Joan McCord</td>
<td>James F. Short, Jr.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Frank Booson</td>
<td>Daniel Glaser</td>
<td>Albert Morris</td>
<td>Richard Simon</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>David Borudia</td>
<td>Don M. Gottfredson</td>
<td>Novam Morris</td>
<td>Rita Simon</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John Braithwaite</td>
<td>Michael Gottfredson</td>
<td>June Morrison</td>
<td>Wesley G. Skogan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Robert J. Bursik, Jr.</td>
<td>David Greenberg</td>
<td>Gerhard O.W. Mueller</td>
<td>Jerome H. Skolnick</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Maureen Cain</td>
<td>John Hagan</td>
<td>W. H. Nagel</td>
<td>Darrell Steffensmeier</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ruth Shonle Cavan</td>
<td>Richard Hankey</td>
<td>Daniel Nang</td>
<td>Denis Szabo</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>William Chambliss</td>
<td>Frank Hartung</td>
<td>Charles L. Newman</td>
<td>Terence P. Thomberry</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Meda Chesney-Lind</td>
<td>Michael Hindelang</td>
<td>Gwynne Netller</td>
<td>Charles R. Tittle</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Roland Chilton</td>
<td>Travis Hirsch</td>
<td>Arthur Niederhoff</td>
<td>Hans Toch</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jacob Chwast</td>
<td>James Inciardi</td>
<td>Lloyd E. Ohlin</td>
<td>Michael Tonry</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Marshall Clinkard</td>
<td>John Irwin</td>
<td>J. J. Panakal</td>
<td>Austin T. Turk</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Albert Cohen</td>
<td>C. Ray Jeffery</td>
<td>Raymond Paternoster</td>
<td>August Vollmer</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Philip J. Cook</td>
<td>Gary F. Jensen</td>
<td>Joan Peterslia</td>
<td>Charles F. Welford</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bruno Cormier</td>
<td>Douglas Kelley</td>
<td>Ruth D. Peterson</td>
<td>Leslie T. Wilkins</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Donald Cressey</td>
<td>John Kenney</td>
<td>Barbara Raffel Price</td>
<td>Orlando W. Wilson</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Francis T. Cullen, Jr.</td>
<td>Nicholas Kittrie</td>
<td>Richard Quinney</td>
<td>Ann Witte</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>William Dienstein</td>
<td>Malcolm W. Klein</td>
<td>Nicole Hahn Rafter</td>
<td>Marvin Wolfgang</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Simon Dinitz</td>
<td>Solomon Kobrin</td>
<td>Walter Reckless</td>
<td>Margaret A. Zahn</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
NOMINATIONS FOR 2002 ASC AWARDS

The ASC Awards Committee invites nominations for five major awards, to be presented at the 2002 annual meetings. In submitting your nominations, provide six copies of the following supporting materials: a letter evaluating a nominee's contribution and its relevance to an award, and the nominee's c.v. (short version preferred) by March 1, 2002 to the appropriate committee chair. The awards:

EDWIN H. SUTHERLAND AWARD, which recognizes outstanding contributions to theory or research in criminology on the etiology of criminal and deviant behavior, the criminal justice system, corrections, law, or justice. The distinguished contribution may be based on a single outstanding book or work, a series of theoretical or research contributions, or the accumulated contributions by a senior scholar.

Committee Chair: Alfred Blumstein 412/268-8269
The Heinz School of Public Policy 412/268-2175 FAX
Carnegie Mellon University
5000 Forbes Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15213-3890
ab0q@andrew.cmu.edu

THORSTEN SELLIN & SHELDON AND ELEANOR GLUECK AWARD, which is given to those who reside outside of North America who have gained international recognition for their contributions to criminology.

Committee Chair: Martin Killias 44 21 6924640
School of Forensic Science/Criminology 44 21 6924605 FAX
University of Lausanne
BFSH-1
CH-1015 Lausanne, SWITZERLAND
Martin.killias@ipsc.unil.ch

AUGUST VOLLMER AWARD, which recognizes outstanding contributions to justice or to the control, treatment, or prevention of criminal and/or deviant behavior. The distinguished contribution may be from a single major effort by a social activist or leading practitioner in the criminal justice system, the police, judiciary, or corrections; a series of contributions to control, treatment, prevention, or justice over a period of time; or an accumulated series of contributions during the lifetime of a distinguished practitioner, judge, lawyer, police officer, activist or scholar who has contributed to policy and practice.

Committee Chair: Julie Horney 402/472-6384
Department of Criminal Justice 402/472-6758 FAX
University of Nebraska at Omaha
Lincoln, NE 68588-0630
jhorney@unomaha.edu

HERBERT BLOCH AWARD, which recognizes outstanding service contributions to the American Society of Criminology and to the professional interests of criminology.

Committee Chair: Doris Layton MacKenzie 301/405-3008
Criminology and Criminal Justice 301/405-4733 FAX
2220 LeFrak Hall
University of Maryland
College Park, MD 20742-8235
dmacken@crim.umd.edu
NOMINATIONS FOR 2002 ASC AWARDS (cont’d)

RUTH SHONLE CAVAN YOUNG SCHOLAR AWARD
(Sponsored by Wadsworth Publishing Co.) which recognizes outstanding scholarly contributions to the discipline of criminology by someone who has received the Ph.D., MD, LL.D. or a similar graduate degree no more than five years before the year of the award (for this year the degree must have been awarded no earlier than May of 1996). The Award may be for a single work or a series of contributions, and may include co-authored works. The person selected for the Award will receive a plaque commemorating the Award, one thousand dollars, and up to five hundred dollars towards airfare to travel to the ASC Annual meeting.

Committee Chair: Cathy Spatz Widom
Department of Psychiatry
New Jersey Medical School
30 Bergen Street, ADMC-14
Newark, NJ 07107-3000

973/972-8369
973-972-8368 FAX
widomca@umdnj.edu

**********************************************************************

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY
Announces
FELLOWSHIP FOR ETHNIC MINORITIES
UP TO $18,000
Deadline: March 1, 2002

ELIGIBILITY: The Fellowship is designed to encourage African American, Asian American, Latino, and Native American students to enter the field of criminology and criminal justice. Applicants need not be members of the American Society of Criminology. Individuals studying criminology or criminal justice issues are encouraged to apply. The recipient or recipients of the Fellowship must be accepted into a program of doctoral studies.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES: A complete application package must be received no later than March 1, 2002. A complete application must contain (1) up-to-date curriculum vita; (2) indication of race or ethnicity; (3) copies of undergraduate and graduate transcripts; (4) statement of need and prospects for financial assistance for graduate study; (5) a letter describing career plans, salient experiences, and nature of interest in criminology and criminal justice; and (6) three letters of reference.

NOTIFICATION: Award(s) will be made by June 1, 2002.

Applications should be sent to:

Sarah Hall, Administrator
American Society of Criminology
1314 Kinnear Road, Suite 212
Columbus, Ohio 43212-1156

The Society reserves the right not to award the Fellowship.
National Consortium on Violence Research

Fellowship Opportunities

The National Consortium on Violence Research (NCOVR) invites applications for its fellowship programs. NCOVR is based at the Heinz School of Public Policy and Management at Carnegie Mellon University and is funded by the National Science Foundation.

The purpose of the NCOVR fellowships is to involve young scholars in interdisciplinary research on issues of interpersonal violence. Each fellow works as a member of an interdisciplinary team; is introduced to new methodologies for studying violence; and is provided with opportunities for frequent interactions with other fellows, with NCOVR members, and other leading scholars in this research area.

All fellows must be in a position to conduct research on violence, and be willing to work with NCOVR mentors, some from a discipline different from theirs. They must also be willing to attend various meetings sponsored by NCOVR and to report regularly on their research progress.

NCOVR awards three types of fellowships.

- Pre-doctoral fellowships. Applicants are doctoral students who are working with an adviser who regularly conducts violence research. Awards are renewable for up to two years, contingent on satisfactory performance and on continuing research progress.

- Post-doctoral fellowships. Applicants hold a doctorate in a field relevant to violence research or will complete their degree by June 1, 2002. Awards are full-time two-year employment fellowships during which time the post-doctoral fellows work at the home institution of their mentor.

- Career Development fellowships. Applicants are untenured minority faculty members who have received a doctorate in a field relevant to violence research within the past four years. Awards are for two years, dependent on satisfactory performance and continuing research progress.

Members of racial and ethnic minority groups are strongly encouraged to apply.

The deadline for receipt of completed application packets is February 1, 2002. For additional information and application forms please visit NCOVR's website at www.ncovr.heinz.cmu.edu or call Carol Miller at 412-268-8010.
Teach Online
Working Professionals and Academics!
Teach online with the world's leader in distance education.
Programs designed for working adults.
Undergraduate: 21 majors and 39 certificates.
Graduate: 16 programs and 37 certificates.

Adjunct faculty are especially sought for all computer disciplines; biotechnology, telecommunications, and technology management; meteorology; electronic commerce; meteorology; and technical and business writing. See www.umuc.edu for curriculum information and for further disciplines.

UMUC provides free online training required for Web-based teaching.
PhD or terminal degree required for all programs (except undergraduate business and computer-related subjects).
Teaching and professional and experience required in all fields.

Teach Onsite
Adjunct teaching available in the greater Washington, DC area.

Teach Overseas (full-time)
Experienced faculty sought to teach in UMUC programs for personnel on U.S. military bases in Asia and Europe. Broad teaching expertise desired. See www.ed.umuc.edu & www.ad.umuc.edu for programs and disciplines taught.
10-month renewable contracts.
Begin January or August 2002.
U.S. citizenship required.
Benefits include transportation, military base privileges, health insurance and TIAA/CREF.
Not suitable for faculty with children.

Send resume and coverletter to: CRIM 801 <Faculty-recruit@umuc.edu> (attachments in MSWord, Wordperfect, or Text) or to:
Office of Faculty Recruitment, CRIM801
University of Maryland University College
3501 University Boulevard East
Adelphi, MD 20783

AA/EEO
POSITION ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE CRIMINOLOGIST will regularly feature in these columns position vacancies available in organizations and universities, as well as positions sought by members of the Society.

A charge of $150.00 with the absolute maximum of 250 words allowed will be made. The position announcement will also appear on the ASC website: www.asc41.com. The charge will be waived for institutional members of ASC.

It is the policy of the ASC to publish position vacancies announcements only from those institutions or agencies which subscribe to equal education and employment opportunities and those which encourage women and minorities to apply.

Institutions should indicate the deadline for the submission of application materials. The Professional Employment Exchange will be a regular feature at each Annual Meeting. Prospective employers and employees should register with the Society no later than three weeks prior to the Annual Meeting of the Society. Appropriate forms may be obtained by writing to the ASC offices in Columbus, Ohio.

To place announcements in THE CRIMINOLOGIST, send all material to: Sarah Hall, ASC, 1314 Kinnear Road, Suite 212, Columbus, OH 43212-1156. Telephone (614) 292-9207, Fax (614)292-6767.

When sending announcements, please include a phone number, fax number and contact person in the event we have questions about an ad.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY

The Department of Justice, Law and Society has a full-time tenure-line position at the Assistant Professor level beginning in Fall 2002. Candidates can specialize in any subfield of justice, law and society; must show evidence of professional and scholarly activity as well as a commitment to service in keeping with university standards. Teaching experience is preferred. A Ph.D. in a relevant field is required. (Relevant academic fields include anthropology, economics, history, criminology, justice, philosophy, psychology or sociology). Interdisciplinary candidates, and candidates with research interests relating to race, class and gender, are especially welcome. Review of applications will begin December 1, 2001, and continue until the position is filled. Interested candidates should also send a letter of interest, their current curriculum vitae, available teaching evaluations, and three letters of reference to: Ms. Bridget Hartman, Search Coordinator, Office of the Dean, SPA/American University, 4400 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20016. American University is an AA/EEO university committed to a diverse faculty, staff and student body. Minority and women candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

BALL STATE UNIVERSITY

The Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position beginning August 15, 2002. For this position, the Department is seeking a generalist with the ability to teach undergradu-ate and graduate courses. Minimum qualifications: Ph.D. in criminal justice, criminology, or sociology; evidence of ability to teach at the college or university level, such as faculty or student evaluations of teaching; and evidence of scholarly work. Preferred qualifications: Evidence of one-year, full-time teaching experience at the college or university level. Send letter of application; vita; transcripts; names and addresses of three references; student and peer teaching evaluations; and publications, presentations, or other examples of scholarly work to: Chair, Search Committee, Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology, Ball State University, Muncie, IN 47306. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. (www.bsu.edu). Ball State University is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer and is strongly and actively committed to diversity within its community.

BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY

Bowling Green State University is seeking applicants for a tenure-track Associate Professor position in support of its new Masters degree in Criminal Justice. This Program seeks to add an individual with primary expertise within the area of corrections, who also has experience working with graduate students. A secondary interest in ethics and/or diversity issues is also welcome. A strong commitment to Graduate teaching and quality scholarship is essential. Responsibilities include teaching at the graduate and undergraduate level; conducting research, student advising and program/university service. Candidates are required to hold a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice/Criminology or closely related field. ABD candidates and those holding a JD degree will not be considered for this position. Review of applications will begin on January 15, 2002 and continue until the position is filled. Anticipated starting date of employment is August, 2002. BGSU is an AA/EEO employer and encourages applications from women, minorities, veterans, and persons with disabilities. A letter of interest, vitae, and three current letters of reference should be sent to: Criminal Justice Search Committee, Department of Human Services, 223 Health Center, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, OH 43403-0284.

BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY FIRELANDS COLLEGE

Bowling Green State University's Firelands College is recruiting for a tenure-track position, available August 2002, in the Natural and Social Sciences Department, teaching 12 hours per semester of courses in criminal justice (law enforcement and research methods) and related fields, as well as directing the college's degree programs in criminal justice. Possess a doctorate in criminal justice or equivalent. Info on BGSU Firelands available at www.firelands.bgsu.edu. Send letter of application, resume/vitae, official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate courses, and at least 3 letters of reference dated within the last year to: Office of the Dean, BGSU Firelands, Attn: Criminal Justice Search Committee, One University Drive, Huron, OH 44839. Must be postmarked by January 11, 2002. Electronic and fax applications cannot be considered. BGSU is an AA/EEO institution.

CALIBER ASSOCIATES

ASSOCIATE: Caliber Associates, an applied research, evaluation, information, and human resources management consulting organization, seeks an experienced Associate to be a key member of
The Child, Family, and Community Studies team. Responsibilities include serving as a member of a project team conducting multi-site evaluations of community-based initiatives and other social science research and evaluation projects. Project activities include developing research designs, collecting data through site visits and other means, analyzing quantitative and qualitative data, and producing reports suitable for multiple audiences. Master's Degree in a social science or related field required, preferably with an emphasis in child, family, or community violence, 3-5 years applied research methods experience in the field of child welfare, child abuse and neglect, and domestic violence required. Associates must be able to apply a variety of data collection and analysis methods, use theory-based approaches to evaluation and research and implement data collection in the field. Expertise in the content area, supported by strong methodological, communication, conceptual and organizational skills are required together with the ability to work in a team environment. If interested, please forward a cover letter and resume to: Caliber Associates, Attn: Human Resources-ASSOC, 1050 Rosehaven Street, Suite 400, Fairfax, VA 22030. Email: hr@calib.com; Fax: 703/835-3206; website: www.calib.com. Caliber Associates, the measure of excellence. EOE.

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LONG BEACH
The Department of Criminal Justice is recruiting for the position of Assistant Professor. The Department is seeking applicants with a specialization in Law Enforcement. Applicants are desired who have a potential for securing research grants and contracts, publications, who have experience teaching courses on Law Enforcement (Introductory Policing, Criminal Investigation, Police Administration), and who have an interest in at least one or more of the following: Theory, Corrections, Juvenile Delinquency, Research Methods, Crime Analysis, and GIS Mapping. The salary range is negotiable depending on experience. Applications received January 31, 2002 will be given priority. Letters of application addressing the qualifications, professional resume, three letters of recommendation, and an official transcript from the institution awarding the highest degree are all required in the full application package. Application material should be sent to Dr. Sam Torres, Chair, Search Committee, Department of Criminal Justice, California State University, Long Beach, 1250 Bellflower Blvd., Long Beach, CA 90840.

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, SACRAMENTO
The Division of Criminal Justice seeks to fill a tenure-track administration and leadership position at the Assistant Professor level, with a salary range of $41,940 - $52,872. Minimum educational requirement is a Ph.D. or D.P.A. in criminal justice, public administration, or closely related field from an accredited university. Degree must be completed
AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY
Annual Meeting 2002
CALL FOR PAPERS
Chicago, Illinois
November 13-16, Palmer House Hilton Hotel

THEME: RE-INVENTING JUSTICE:
Theories, Innovations and Research

William S. Laufer, University of Pennsylvania, Program Chair
Ellen G. Cohn, Florida International University, Program Co-Chair

The 2002 Annual Meeting of the American Society of Criminology will be held from Wednesday, November 13 through Saturday, November 16, 2002. The 2002 Program solicits papers for presentation in six broadly-defined areas:

-- Theories of Crimes, Criminality and Justice--both normative and empirical
-- Innovations and Experiments in Justice and in Crime Prevention
-- Types of Crime, Victims and Offenders
-- Crime and Justice Over the Life Course
-- Crime and Justice in Social Settings
-- What We Do and Don’t Know: Systematic Reviews and Methods

All submissions for papers presented are due by April 1, for four types of sessions:

1. Presidential Plenary Poster Session, based on title and abstract
2. Presidential Panel Sessions, based on peer-reviewed 5-page “previews”
3. Panel Session papers, based on a title and abstract
4. Round Tables, based on title and abstract

Panel session papers will not be peer-reviewed. Only papers presented to the new, experimental “Presidential” panel sessions will be peer-reviewed, based on a five-page “preview” of the research question or normative argument, research design or data analysis, theoretical model or other evidence of the substance of the presentation. All submissions by the April 1 deadline are guaranteed a program listing. Panels organized by presenters will be listed exactly as received, with no additions made by the Program Committee. For this year only, there is no limit on the number of papers each individual may present. Submissions for any format of paper presentation may be sent to any member of the Program Committee listed below, or directly to the Program Co-Chairs at:

ASC 2002 Program Committee
Lee Center of Criminology, Fels Building
University of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia PA 19104
lauferw@wharton.upenn.edu
Presidential Plenary Poster Session. This session will be held on Thursday, November 14 from 6:00 to 7:30 pm with complimentary wine and cheese. It will include presentations by distinguished scholars recruited by the Program Committee, as well as by anyone who submits an abstract by the deadline. Poster sessions should display data, policy analyses or theoretical work in a visually appealing recommended poster format to encourage more interactive communication (see www.asc41.com for details). Authors should submit a title and abstract by April 1, 2002.

Presidential Panel Sessions will feature papers that have demonstrated substantial preparation, although not completion, by April 1. A five-page “preview” of Presidential Panel papers should be submitted by April 1, 2002, in whatever form is appropriate for the substance of the paper, such as the research question or normative argument, research design or data analysis, theoretical models, or other evidence of the substance of the presentation. Each preview will be reviewed by one or more members of the Program Committee. Papers not accepted for research panels will be returned to authors for revision and re-review, or assigned to regular panel sessions, at the discretion of the author.

All participants are encouraged to submit proposals for entire Presidential Panel Sessions, focused on a specific topic, theme or issue. The Program Committee will not alter or add presenters to participant-formed panels accepted for presentation. All accepted five-page previews submitted by individuals will be combined with other relevant papers into Committee-formed Presidential Panel Sessions. In order to encourage more interaction with session audiences, we suggest that each panel contain no more than four papers or three papers and a discussant for the 90 minute session.

Panel Sessions for presenting papers will follow the same format as the Presidential Panel Sessions. The only differences between the two types of session are in the depth of material to be submitted by April 1 and the times and days the sessions will be scheduled. Panel sessions will be scheduled in all time slots during the ASC meetings, and will require only the submission of an abstract and title by April 1. Participants are encouraged to submit proposals for entire panel sessions focused on a specific topic, theme or issue. The Program Committee will not alter or add presenters to Participant-Formed Panel Sessions.

Round Tables will be the venue for all papers submitted after April 1, 2002, but may also be the authors’ venue of choice for submissions at any time. Round Tables will consist of three to five presenters on related topics organized either by the Program Committee or by participants in Participant-Formed Round Tables. Submissions should include an abstract and title.

Any and all submissions may be sent to one, and only one, member of the Program Committee. Please do not submit the same paper to more than one committee member. Please direct questions about the program format to the Program Committee Chair or Co-Chair at the following email addresses:

William Laufer, University of Pennsylvania, Chair
lauferw@wharton.upenn.edu

Ellen G. Cohn, Florida International University, Co-Chair
cohne@fiu.edu
2002 ASC PROGRAM COMMITTEE

*Designated member of the Division on International Criminology
Designated member of the Division on Corrections and Sentencing
Designated member of the Division on People of Color and Crime

Designated members of the Division on Critical Criminology, the Division on Women and Crime, and the American Association of Doctoral Programs in Criminology and Criminal Justice are included in sections 7-9.

1. Theories of Crime, Criminality and Justice

Robert Agnew, Emory University, bagnew@emory.edu
Frank Cullen, University of Cincinnati, cullenft@email.uc.edu
Daniel Nagin, Carnegie-Mellon University, dn03@andrew.cmu.edu
Marty Schwartz, Ohio University, schwartz@ohiou.edu
Sally S. Simpson, University of Maryland, ssimpson@crim.umd.edu
*Rosemary Barbaret, University of Leicester, rb78@le.ac.uk
Pat Van Voorhis, University of Cincinnati, pvanvoorhis@fuse.net
Delores Jones-Brown, John Jay College, CUNY, djonesbr@jjay.cuny.edu

2. Innovations and Experiments in Justice and Crime Prevention

Philip Cook, Duke University, cook@pps.duke.edu
John Eck, University of Cincinnati, john.eck@uc.edu
Denise Gottfredson, University of Maryland, dgottfredson@crim.umd.edu
Robert Langworthy, University of Alaska, afrhl@uaa.alaska.edu
Ed Maguire, George Mason University, emaguire@gmu.edu
*/ Cindy J. Smith, University of Baltimore, cjsmith@ubmail.ubalt.edu
3. Types of Crime, Victims and Offenders

Candace Kruttschnitt, University of Minnesota, krttsch@atlas.socsci.umn.edu
Cathy Spatz Widom, New Jersey Medical School, widomca@umdnj.edu
Margaret Zahn, National Institute of Justice, zahnm@ojp.usdoj.gov
Matt Zingraff, North Carolina State University, matt_zingraff@ncsu.edu
*Liqun Cao, Eastern Michigan University, soc_cao@online.emich.edu

Jodi Lane, University of Florida, jlane@crim.ful.edu

Katheryn K. Russell, University of Maryland, krussell@crim.umd.edu

4. Crime and Justice Over the Life Course

Shawn D. Bushway, sbushway@crim.umd.edu
Marc LeBlanc, University of Montreal, marc.leblanc@umontreal.ca
Ray Paternoster, rpaternoster@crim.umd.edu

Neal Shover, University of Tennessee, nshover@utk.edu

*Alexander Vazsonyi, Auburn University, vazsonyi@auburn.edu

Pam Lattimore, Research Triangle Institute, lattimore@rti.org

5. Crime and Justice in Social Settings

Marcus Felson, Rutgers University, felson@andromeda.rutgers.edu
Julie Horney, University of Nebraska at Omaha, jhorney@unomaha.edu
Cheryl Maxson, University of California at Irvine, cmaxson@uci.edu
Brenda Blackwell, Georgia State University, bblackwell@gsu.edu
Calvin Johnson, University of Pennsylvania, calvinc.johnson@dc.gov

*William Chambliss, George Washington University, jackie@gwu.edu

James Trudeau, Research Triangle Institute, trudeau@rti.org

Stephanie Bush-Baskette, NCCD, Sbushbask@aol.com
6. What We Do and Don’t Know: Systematic Reviews and Methods

David Farrington, Cambridge University, dpfl@cam.ac.uk
Peter Reuter, University of Maryland, pr39@umail.umd.edu
David Weisburd, University of Maryland and Hebrew U., dweisburd@crim.umd.edu
*Bonnie Fisher, University of Cincinnati, bonnie.fisher@uc.edu
Doris MacKenzie, University of Maryland, dmacken@crim.umd.edu

7. Division on Critical Criminology

Walter DeKeseredy, Ohio University, dekesere@ohiou.edu
Gregg Barak, Eastern Michigan University, barak@online.emich.edu
Mark Hamm, Indiana State University, henrypor@aol.com
Ken Mentor, New Mexico State University, kmentor@nmsu.edu
Barbara Sims, Pennsylvania State University at Harrisburg, bas4@psu.edu
Jim Thomas, Northern Illinois University, jthomas@sun.soci.niu.edu

8. Division on Women and Crime

Joanne Belknap, University of Colorado, Joanne.Belknap@colorado.edu
Kimberly Cook, University of Southern Maine, kjcook@usm.maine.edu
Jeanne Flavin, Fordham University, jflavin@fordham.edu
Mona Danner, Old Dominion University, mdanner@odu.edu
Sharon Pickering, Charles Sturt University, spickering@csu.edu.au
Susan Sharp, Oklahoma University, sssharp@ou.edu
Debra L. Stanley, Central Connecticut State University, stanleyd@ccsu.edu
Vernetta D. Young, Howard University, vyoung@fac.howard.edu
9. American Association of Doctoral Programs in Criminology and Criminal Justice

Todd Clear, John Jay College, tclear@jjay.cuny.edu

James Levine, John Jay College, jlevine@jjay.cuny.edu

Janet L. Lauritsen, University of Missouri-St. Louis, janet_lauritsen@umsl.edu

Ralph Taylor, Temple University, ralph@blue.vm.temple.edu

M. Kay Harris, Temple University, mkay@astro.temple.edu

James Acker, University at Albany, acker@cnsvax.albany.edu

Valerie Jenness, University of California at Irvine, jenness@uci.edu

James W. Meeker, University of California at Irvine, jwmeeker@uci.edu

Robert Johnson, American University, rjohnso@american.edu

Richard Bennett, American University, Bennett@american.edu

John Johnson, Arizona State University, John.Johnson@asu.edu

James Frank, University of Cincinnati, james.frank@uc.edu

Ronet Bachman, University of Delaware, ronet@udel.edu

Bruce Bullington, Florida State University, bbulling@mailer.fsu.edu

Bernard McCarthy, University of Central Florida, bjm@mail.ucf.edu

Dennis Rosenbaum, University of Illinois at Chicago, dennisr@uic.edu

Steven Chermak, Indiana University, schermak@indiana.edu

Dennis M. Giever, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, dgiever@grove.iup.edu

Michael Lynch, University of South Florida, mlynch@luna.cas.usf.edu

Charles Wellford, University of Maryland, cwellford@crim.umd.edu

Edmund McGarrell, Michigan State University, mcgarrell@msu.edu

Guy Lemire, University of Montreal, simardgi@crim.umontreal.ca

Jack Greene, Northeastern University, j.greene@nunet.neu.edu

Wayne Osgood, Pennsylvania State University, wosgood@psu.edu

Robert Meier, University of Nebraska, rmeier@unomaha.edu
9. American Association of Doctoral Programs (continued)

Frank P. Williams, Prairie View A&M University, Frank_Williams@pvamu.edu

Leslie Kennedy, Rutgers University, kennedy@andromeda.rutgers.edu

Mike Maxfield, Rutgers University, maxfield@andromeda.rutgers.edu

Richard H. Ward, Sam Houston State University, ward@shsu.edu.

Faith Lutze, Washington State University, lutze@mail.wsu.edu

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY
ANNUAL MEETING 2002

PAPER PROPOSAL FORMAT

Firm Deadline: April 1, 2002

All submitted paper proposals should follow the format below in an email message or WORD attachment submitted to any member of the Program Committee or to the Program Chair (lauferw@wjarton.upenn.edu):

1. Proposal type (choose one only for each proposal):
   -- Presidential Panel Session Paper
   -- Panel Session Paper
   -- Round Table Paper
   -- Presidential Plenary Poster Session Paper

2. Title of Paper

3. Author information (name, affiliation, address, telephone number, fax number, email address). Full mailing addresses must be supplied for each author in order to send acceptance letters by snail mail. Please indicate with an asterisk the individual who will be presenting the paper.

4. Abstract - 200 words maximum.

5. For Presidential Panel Papers, please attach a five-page “preview” for peer review. This may include any (but not necessarily all) of the following items:
   --abstract
   --partial text (introduction, literature review, hypotheses, moral argument etc.)
   --references or bibliography
   --tables, charts, graphs, or maps
   --theoretical models or diagrams
   --bullet points or outlines
   --pictures or illustrations to be used in the presentation
AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY
ANNUAL MEETING 2002

PROPOSAL FORMAT FOR FULL PANEL OR ROUND TABLE SUBMISSION

Firm Deadline: April 1, 2002

All submitted panel sessions and round table proposals should follow the format below in an email message or WORD attachment submitted to any member of the Program Committee or to the Program Chair (laufew@wharton.upenn.edu):

1. Proposal type (please indicate your preferred format):
   --Presidential Panel Session Panel Session
   --Round Table Session

2. Title of Panel

3. Panel Chair or organizer information (name, affiliation, address, telephone number, fax number, email address)

4. Title of Each Paper

5. Each Paper's Author information (name, affiliation, address, telephone number, fax number, email address). Full mailing addresses must be supplied for each author in order to send acceptance letters by snail mail. Please indicate with an asterisk the individual who will be presenting the paper

6. Abstract - 200 words maximum.

7. For Presidential Panel Papers, please attach a five-page “preview” for peer review of each paper. This may include any (but not necessarily all) of the following items:
   --abstract
   --partial text (introduction, literature review, hypotheses, moral argument etc.)
   --references or bibliography
   --tables, charts, graphs, or maps
   --theoretical models or diagrams
   --bullet points or outlines
   --pictures or illustrations to be used in the presentation
within one year of appointment date. J. D. degrees will not be considered for this position. Evidence of successful teaching experience in the area of policing or corrections and one year (three years preferred) of agency/field experience in the criminal justice area is required. Preference will be given to applicants who have a record of publication and research experience in law enforcement, investigations, interviewing and/or in the police or corrections area. The ability to work with diverse groups is necessary. Courses to be taught include undergraduate and graduate courses in criminal justice. Further, the position entails student advising, supervision of master's theses, active participation in Division, school, and university committees, involvement in scholarly and creative activities, and utilizing computers. In addition, faculty are required to participate actively in a variety of community activities, including those directly connected to their professional field. Submit cover letter of application, names, addresses, and phone numbers of three professional references, curriculum vita, and transcripts to Division Chair, California State University, Sacramento, Division of Criminal Justice, 6000 J Street, Sacramento, CA 95819-6085. Review of applications begins November 5, 2001 and will continue until position is filled. AA/EEO.

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, SACRAMENTO
The Division of Criminal Justice seeks to fill a tenure-track criminologist position at the Assistant Professor level, with a salary range of $41,940 – $52,872. Minimum educational requirement is a Ph.D. or equivalent terminal degree in criminal justice, criminology, public administration, or close related field in the social sciences from an accredited university. Degree must be completed within one year of appointment date. J.D. degrees will not be considered for this position. Evidence of successful teaching experience in a college or university is required. Preference may be given to applicants who have a demonstrated interest in criminological theory and criminal behavior research methods coursework. Graduate teaching experience desired. The ability to work with diverse groups is necessary. Courses to be taught include undergraduate and graduate courses in criminal justice. Further, the position entails student advising, supervision of master's theses, active participation in division, school, and university committees, involvement in scholarly and creative activities, and utilizing computers. In addition, faculty are required to participate actively in a variety of community activities, including those directly connected to their professional field. Submit cover letter of application, names, addresses, and phone numbers of three professional references, curriculum vita, and transcripts to Division Chair, California State University, Sacramento, CA 98519-6085. Review of applications begins November 5, 2001 and will continue until the position is filled. AA/EEO.

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, SAN BERNARDINO
Assistant/Associate Professor – Tenure Track. The Criminal Justice Department is seeking to fill two faculty lines; one at the Associate and one at the Assistant level. Applicants should be capable of teaching a variety of courses in criminal justice and criminology. Candidates with proven experience in environmental criminology, white collar crime, gangs, or organized crime will be given preference. Candidates should have a strong research agenda and evidence of scholarly work, and have a doctorate in criminal justice or a closely related field. Candidates who expect to receive their doctorate by the fall 2002 term will also be considered. Applicants applying for the associate rank should also have demonstrated experience with grants and contracts. Interested persons should send a letter of interest, a resume, three letters of reference, and transcripts to: Dr. Larry K. Gaines, California State University, Criminal Justice Department, 5500 University Parkway, San Bernardino, CA 92407. For additional information, please e-mail: lgaines@csusb.edu. Review of applications will begin December 1, 2001, and the positions will remain open until filled. California State University, San Bernardino is situated 70 miles east of Los Angeles offering easy access to beaches (70 miles), Palm Springs (50 miles), mountain resorts for skiing (30 miles), and Las Vegas (200 miles). The Department of Criminal Justice is one of 9 departments in the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences. The Department consists of 11 full-time faculty, 500 undergraduate majors and 30 graduate students working toward an M.A. in Criminal Justice. California State University is an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to a diversified work force.

THE COLLEGE OF NEW JERSEY
The Department of Law and Justice is accepting applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor. Applicants with strong empirical abilities must demonstrate competence in teaching criminal justice research methods and policy analysis. The Department is committed to the ideals of a teacher-scholar-mentor model. Thus, the applicant will be expected to develop a policy analysis course that weaves the threads of criminology, the legal-political-institutional responses to crime, and research methods into a capstone course. To that end, the applicant will be expected to develop relationships with faculty of related disciplines, members of criminal justice agencies and local community groups in order to bring the richness of applied science into the educational process. Requirements: Ph.D. in criminology, criminal justice, or related discipline. Professional or academic experience in policy analysis preferred. To apply, please send letter of application, curriculum vitae, evidence of teaching experience and names and addresses of three professional references to: Chair, Search Committee, Department of Law and Justice, The College of New Jersey, P.O. Box 7718, Ewing, NJ 08628-0718. To enrich education through diversity, The College of New Jersey is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

GEORGIA COLLEGE & STATE UNIVERSITY
The Department of Government and Sociology invites applications for two tenure-track positions in criminal justice at the Assistant Professor level, beginning August 1, 2002. A Ph.D. in criminal justice or a related field is required at the time of appointment. We will not consider a J.D. for these positions. While areas of specialization are open for both positions, the successful candidate for the first position should be able to teach a variety of law enforcement related courses such as policing, police administration and management, and community-oriented policing. The successful candidate for the second position should be able to teach a variety of courses dealing with the juvenile justice system, delinquency, and gangs. For either position, an expertise in white collar crime, the ecology of crime, and crime prevention is a definite advantage. The candidate must have an interest in teaching in a liberal arts, interdisciplinary setting. Responsibilities include effective teaching, advising, scholarly activity, and service, all required for tenure. Normal teaching load is 12 hours per semester. The BS in Criminal Justice is the Department’s largest program. A master’s program in Criminal Justice began in August 2001. The Department also has majors in political science and sociology, and an accredited MPA program with a criminal justice concentration. GC&SU is the public liberal arts university of the state of Georgia. The University is located in a historic community of 45,000, approximately 90 miles southeast of Atlanta. Review of applications will begin December 1, 2001 and will continue until the position is filled. An application package consists of a letter of application, curriculum vita, copies of transcripts showing degrees, and three current letters of recommendation. Send materials to Dr. Terry Wells, Chair of Criminal Justice Search Committee, Department of Government and Sociology, Georgia College & State University, CBBX 018, Milledgeville, GA 31061. Official transcripts from all colleges and universities will be required before appointment. GC&SU is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Institution.

GRAND VALLEY STATE UNIVERSITY
The School of Criminal Justice invites applications for three tenure-track positions, beginning August 2002. Position #1 will be filled at the Assistant, Associate or Full Professor rank. Positions #2 and #3 will be filled at the Assistant of Associate Rank. The School of Criminal Justice, a leader in criminal justice education and training in the state of Michigan, is located at the Pew Campus in downtown Grand Rapids, just blocks away from the new County Justice Center, police headquarters, and thriving business district. Grand Rapids, the business, legal, and cultural center for Western Michigan, is just three hours from Chicago and Detroit and only thirty minutes from Lake Michigan. The Department has 20 faculty and staff members, over 650 undergraduate majors, 60 full and part-time graduate students, an additional 90 legal studies majors, an accredited police academy, and the Grand Valley Criminal Justice Education Center. Successful candidates will be expected to teach a variety of courses at the undergraduate and graduate level and may be required to teach courses at off-campus centers in Holland and Muskegon (each located about 25 miles from Grand Rapids). All faculty members at Grand Valley State University are evaluated for promotion and tenure in the areas of teaching, scholarship, and university and community service.

Position #1 will be filled at the Assistant/Associate/Full Professor rank. Field of specialty is open. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in criminal justice, criminology, or related field. Evidence of teaching experience and scholarship is required. Field or agency experience preferred.

Position #2 will be filled at the Assistant/Associate/Full Professor rank. Successful candidates will be expected to teach a variety of classes, including introductory criminal justice and courses in the candidate’s field of specialty. While the area of specialty is open, preference will be given to those with the ability to teach in the area of law enforcement. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in criminal justice, criminology, or related field. Evidence of teaching experience and scholarship is required. Field or agency experience preferred.

Position #3 will be filled at the Assistant/Associate Professor level. Successful candidates will be expected to teach a variety of classes, including introductory criminal justice, criminology, and courses in the candidate’s field of specialty. While the area of specialty is open, preference will be given to those with the ability to teach management and policy related courses. Applicants are required to have a Ph.D. in criminal justice, criminology, or related field. Teaching, field or agency experience, and evidence of potential for scholarly productivity are strongly preferred. Applicants should submit a letter of application, current vita, and names, addresses, and phone numbers of at least three references to: James Houston, Ph.D., Director, School of Criminal Justice, Grand Valley State University, 237-C DeVos Center, 401 W., Fulton Street, Grand Rapids, MI 49504. Telephone 616-336-7130. Review of applications will begin December 1, 2001 and continue until positions are filled. Please state which position you are applying for. University information: http://www.gvsu.edu/cj. Grand Valley State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY, BLOOMINGTON

The Department of Criminal Justice invites applicants for one tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level. The Department of Criminal Justice is a nationally ranked multi-disciplinary department with emphases in nature of crime and delinquency, criminal justice systems and processes, law and society and cross-cultural studies. We welcome candidates from a full range of disciplines who can combine teaching and research on Latinos with one of the areas of emphasis. Latino Studies is a new program at IU. The individual filling this position will be expected to participate actively in developing Latino Studies, which will become the tenure home for this position should Latino Studies achieve department status. In the ideal case, the incumbent will teach the same courses and maintain a strong collegial relationship with both Criminal Justice and Latino Studies before and after such a change. IU Bloomington, which ranks nationally among top research institutions, provides a supportive research environment. The position is authorized at the level of tenure-track Assistant Professor, tenured Associate Professor, or tenured Full Professor. Send letter of application, curriculum vita, examples of scholarship, evidence of effective teaching experience, descriptions of potential courses and three letters of reference to Professor Kip Schlegel, Chair, Department of Criminal Justice, Sycamore Hall 302, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47405. Fax: Criminal Justice Department 812/855-5522. First consideration will be given to applications received by November 16, 2001. Women and minorities are strongly urged to apply. Indiana University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY, BLOOMINGTON

Indiana University invites applications for a faculty position at any level in the Department of Criminal Justice and the Latino Studies Program. The candidate will be jointly appointed by Criminal Justice (the tenure home department) and Latino Studies. We seek a specialist in U.S. Latino populations and one of the Criminal Justice Department's four areas of emphasis. The Department of Criminal Justice is a nationally ranked multi-disciplinary department with emphases in nature of crime and delinquency, criminal justice systems and processes, law and society and cross-cultural studies. We welcome candidates from a full range of disciplines who can combine teaching and research on Latinos with one of the areas of emphasis. Latino Studies is a new program at IU. The individual filling this position will be expected to participate actively in developing Latino Studies, which will become the tenure home for this position should Latino Studies achieve department status. In the ideal case, the incumbent will teach the same courses and maintain a strong collegial relationship with both Criminal Justice and Latino Studies before and after such a change. IU Bloomington, which ranks nationally among top research institutions, provides a supportive research environment. The position is authorized at the level of tenure-track Assistant Professor, tenured Associate Professor, or tenured Full Professor. Send letter of application, curriculum vita, examples of scholarship, evidence of effective teaching experience, descriptions of potential courses and three letters of reference to Professor Kip Schlegel, Chair, Department of Criminal Justice, Sycamore Hall 302, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47405. Fax: Criminal Justice Department 812/855-5522. First consideration will be given to applications received by November 16, 2001. Women and minorities are strongly urged to apply. Indiana University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY-EAST

School of Public and Environmental Affairs at Indiana University-East (Richmond, Indiana) is seeking candidates for a full time lecturer position in Criminal Justice, a multi-year non tenure track appointment beginning in the Fall of 2002. The ideal candidate will have a Ph.D. in Public Affairs, Criminal Justice, Criminology, or a closely related social science discipline. Candidates who are ABD or who have a Masters Degree are encouraged to apply. Candidates should be committed to high undergraduate teaching standards, community service, and scholarly research with ability to teach in various areas of criminal justice such as theoretical foundations; data analysis and methodology; and policing, criminal law, and forensics is desirable. SPEA is a multi-disciplinary, university-wide division of Indiana University with over 10 faculty (tenured or tenure-track) on seven campuses. Organized as a professional school, SPEA is committed to excellence in teaching, research, and service, addressing critical issues of environmental science, public and environmental policy and management. Indiana University East is a regional campus in the Indiana University system, located in Richmond, Indiana. It serves more than 2,400 commuter students. The review of applications will begin on November 2, 2001, and will continue until the position is filled. Although the position is on the Richmond campus of Indiana University, please submit a letter of application, current vitae, and names, addresses, e-mail, and phone number of four references to: Professor C. Kurt Zorn, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, School of Public and Environmental Affairs, Indiana University, 1315 East Tenth Street, Bloomington, IN 47405. Fax: 812/855-5522. First consideration will be given to applications received by January 4, 2002. Additional information about Criminal Justice is available at http://www.indiana.edu/~crimejust/ and about Latino Studies at http://www.indiana.edu/~latino. Indiana University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer, and strongly committed to achieving excellence through cultural diversity. The University actively encourages applications and nominations of women, persons of color, applicants with disabilities and members of other underrepresented groups.

INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

Assistant Professor (full-time, 9-month appointment, tenure-track, possible summer teaching). Begin August 14, 2002. Criminology/criminal justice generalist. Special interest in corrections preferred. Doctorate in Criminology/Criminal Justice or closely related field (Ph.D. or equivalent preferred). A.B.D. with firm completion date considered. J.D. alone is not appropriate for this position. If the degree is not in Criminology/Criminal Justice, an identifiable track or specialization in Criminology/Criminal Justice is necessary. Criminal justice agency experience desired. Publication in refereed journals desired. Evidence of successful grant activity is desired. Position requires teaching undergraduate and graduate courses (including distance education, specifically web-based), advising students, scholarly research and publication, and university and community service. Competitive salary with excellent benefits. Position open until filled. Screening begins January 15, 2002. Further information about the department and position is available at http://indstate.edu/crim. Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, three letters of reference (official transcripts will be required prior to any interviews), and any other supporting material to: Robert G. Huckabee, Chairperson, Search Committee, Department of Criminology, Indiana State University, Terre Haute, IN 47809; (812) 237-2195, voice; (812) 237-8099, fax; crhuck@scifac.indstate.edu. Indiana State University is committed to enhancing the cultural diversity among its faculty and staff and is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

The Department of Sociology invites applications for one or two tenure-track, 9-month, full-time positions for August 2002. Rank is open; associate and full professors are encouraged to apply. The position provides affiliation with the Institute for Social and Behavioral Research, a nationally prominent center with funding from several NIH agencies. The Department of Sociology offers a Ph.D. in sociology, has 38 faculty, and is strongly committed to research and teaching excellence. Required: Assistant Professor: Ph.D. in sociology with demonstrated potential for scholarship and external funding. Associate Professor and Professor: Ph.D. in sociology and an established scholar with a record of obtaining external research funding, and a strong drive for obtaining funding in the future. Teaching experience. Preferred: Teaching and research interests in family and deviance, mental health, inequality, child development, community, or demography. Salary: competitive and based on experience. Applicants should send a curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation, examples of written material, and a cover letter detailing research and teaching interests to Ronald Simons, Recruitment Committee, Department of Sociology, Iowa State University, Ames, IA 50011-1070. To guarantee consideration, application must be received by December 31, 2001. ISU is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer; women, minorities and members of other protected groups are encouraged to apply.

THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF CALIFORNIA

SR/RESEARCH/STAFF ANALYST I (RC-96/95/97) The Judicial Council of California, Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC), located in San Francisco, is accepting applications for several research positions assigned to the Center for Families, Children & the Courts (CFCC). 1 Sr. Research Analyst + Staff Analyst I are available immediately. 2 Sr. Research Analyst positions + 1 Research Analyst position will be filled in 12/01-1/02. Applicants are encouraged to carefully read the min. qualifications and apply at the level most appropriate to their qualifications. Duties include: Project Management; Needs Assessment; and Data Collection, Management Analysis Presentation. Requires: equiv. To BA/BS pref. With major course work in stats, math, social science, or public/business admin. With a concentration in research methods, with at least 0-3 years of experience. Visit: www.courtinfo.ca.gov/jobs/listings/MULRESAN.HTM

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

The Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Social Work invites applications for the position of Department Head beginning Summer or Fall 2002. Minimum qualifications include a Ph.D. in one of the three disciplines and a distinguished record of academic achievement that is commensurate with tenure at the Associate or Full Professor level. Candidates must be able to provide strong academic leadership and evidence of administrative skill. Salary and benefits are competitive. The Department is part of the College of Arts and Sciences, and offers B.S. and B.A. degrees in Sociology, Anthropology and Social Work. Additionally, the Department offers the M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in Sociology with specialization in Community Organization, Criminology, Social Change and Development, and Social Demography. The Department is active and collegial, consisting of 23 faculty serving approximately 600 undergraduate majors and 30 graduate students. Kansas State University is a land grant institution with an enrollment of nearly 22,000 students. The campus is located in the scenic Flint Hills of northeast Kansas in the city of Manhattan. With a population of over 45,000, Manhattan serves as a regional center for the arts and entertainment, supports a strong school system, and maintains a high quality of life. Applicants must submit: (1) a letter of application that describes the applicant’s qualifications, ideas about program development, and philosophy of leadership for a multidisciplinary program; (2) a detailed curriculum vita; and (3) three letters of reference that address the applicant’s administrative and scholarly achievements. These materials should be sent to: Janice Dinkel, Chair, c/o Chassy Nichols, Department Head Search Committee, Department of Sociology, Anthropology, & Social Work, College of Arts & Sciences, 117 Eisenhower Hall, Kansas State University, Manhattan, KS 66506. Screening of applications begins November 15, 2001 and will continue until the position is filled. Please direct inquiries to Janice Dinkel at (785) 532-4980 or dinkel@ksu.edu. Kansas State University is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer, and has a strong commitment to faculty diversity.

KENT STATE UNIVERSITY

Assistant/Associate Professors, Justice Studies. Nine-month, tenure-track positions to begin Fall, 2002. The Justice Studies Department is a growing program with multidisciplinary faculty that offers B.A. and M.A. degrees, a Paralegal Studies Program, and a focus in the Political Science Department’s Public Policy doctoral program. Additional information is available at www.kent.edu/cjst. Successful candidates are expected to contribute to the mission of the department, college and University through a strong commitment to teaching, research, grantsmanship, and advising. Required: A Ph.D. in a relevant social science discipline at the time of hire (the JD alone is not equivalent) and expertise in one or more of the following areas: Corrections, Criminology, Quantitative or Qualitative Methodology, Minorities/Gender and Justice, Theory, and Courts. Application Deadline:

Review of applicants will begin November 13, 2001 and will continue until the positions are filled. Appointments are subject to final budget approval. To apply, submit a letter of application outlining research and teaching interests, curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation, evidence of teaching effectiveness, examples of scholarly work and a copy of a transcript from the institution awarding the highest degree to: Chair, Faculty Search Committee, Department of Justice Studies, Kent State University, P.O. Box 5190, Kent, OH 44242-0001.

EQUITABLE ACTION EMPLOYER

MINOR STATE UNIVERSITY

The Department of Criminal Justice at Minot State University invites applications for two tenure-track Assistant Professor positions to begin August 2002. For the first position we are particularly interested in applicants with expertise in research methods/statistics, criminal investigation and corrections. We seek to staff the second position with a candidate in political science with expertise in public policy and public administration. A doctorate in criminal justice/criminology or related field (sociology, political science, public administration) is required. Candidates will be expected to teach undergraduate and graduate courses and develop courses in their area of interest. The Department has five faculty, 200 undergraduate majors and 30 M.S. candidates. Salary and benefits nationally competitive. Review of applications will begin immediately and to be assured consideration, all materials must be received by January 15, 2002. Please send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation, evidence of teaching effectiveness, and graduate transcript(s) to: Harry Hoffman, Search Committee Chair, Department of Criminal Justice, Minot State University, Minot, ND 58707. Minot State University is an Equal Opportunity Institution.

MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY – BOZEMAN

The Department of Sociology and Anthropology invites applications for an entry level Assistant Professor position (tenure-track) to teach in the Sociology and Justice Studies options beginning Fall 2002. We seek primarily an individual with a sociological perspective on corrections and/or policing. All areas of secondary specialization will be considered but preference will be given to those with the ability to teach in the areas of juvenile justice, social control, white collar crime and/or political sociology. A Ph.D. in Sociology or a closely related field firmly grounded in sociological theory and methods is required at the time of appointment. Faculty are expected to teach courses per year and maintain an active research program. Review of applications begins December 7 and will continue until the position is filled. Applicants should submit a letter of application, a curriculum vita, a writing sample, and arrange for three letters of reference to be sent. In the application letter, describe your research agenda and teaching interests. Send materials to Steven Swinford, Chair, Search Committee, Department of Sociology & Anthropology, Montana State University, Bozeman, MT 59717. Bozeman is a lively mountain community located 90 miles north of Yellowstone National Park. As the flagship institution of the Montana State University system, MSU-Bozeman enrolls 11,500 students. The Department offers a B.S. in Sociology with concentrations in Sociology and Justice Studies, with 11 full-time faculty, and approximately 255 majors. Minorities and women are encouraged to apply. ADA/AA/EO/VET/PREF.

NIAGARA UNIVERSITY

Niagara University, a private Catholic institution sponsored by the Vincentian Community, seeks applications to fill a tenure track faculty position at the Assistant Professor level in the Criminal Justice program. The faculty member will teach in the Bachelor Degree program in Criminology and Criminal Justice and in the Master’s Degree program in Criminal Justice Administration. The successful candidate must hold a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or Criminology, have a record of effective teaching, and provide evidence of the potential for scholarly work. The candidate’s specialization is open but the person must be willing to teach a variety of criminal justice courses including Introduction to Criminal Justice and Juvenile Justice. The faculty position entails student instruction, advisement, and other related departmental and university-wide activities. To further explore our program, please contact us at www.niagara.edu. Candidates should send a letter of application, vita, and three letters of reference to Harry Dammer, Chair, Criminal Justice Department, Niagara University, NY 14109. Tel.: (716) 286-8095; Fax (716) 286-8061, or hdammer@niagara.edu. Niagara University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

NORTHEASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

Criminal Justice invites applications for an Assistant Professor position in the areas of restorative/transformative/critical criminology orientation. We seek a dynamic and culturally sensitive teacher who is committed to student advocacy and social justice. Responsibilities include teaching, research and/or activist agenda, and service. Required: Ph.D. in social sciences or J.D. (with additional graduate work preferred). Commitment to community involvement in teaching and research is a plus. Applicants should send a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching philosophy, copies of transcripts, and three letters of reference (at least one addressing leadership and teaching effectiveness) to: Chair, Search Committee, Criminal Justice, Northeastern Illinois University, 5500 N. St. Louis Ave., Chicago, IL 60625. Review of applications begins immediately and will continue until position is filled.

NORTHERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY
The Department of Political Science at Northern Kentucky University invites applications for a tenure-track position in Criminal Justice at the Assistant Professor level beginning August 2002. Areas of specialization are open but applicants with teaching and research interests in policing, research methods and/or the administration of justice are preferred. Applicants who can also contribute to the Masters of Public Administration program are highly desired. A completed Ph.D. (or equivalent) in Criminal Justice or related field is required by appointment. Candidates holding a Juris Doctorate only will not be considered. NKU (www.nku.edu) is a metropolitan university in the greater Cincinnati area that values teaching, research and service. The Department has 16 full-time faculty members and offers the associate degree in law enforcement, bachelor degrees in international studies, criminal justice, political science, and a master degree in public administration. Standard teaching load for full time faculty is twelve semester hours. The NKU area is one of the most enjoyable urban environments offering a range of cultural activities and professional sporting events, affordable housing choices, and moderate weather. NKU is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action University. Women and minority candidates are encouraged to apply. Review of applications will begin on November 15, 2001 and continue until the position is filled. To apply: send a letter of application, a vitae, evidence of teaching quality, and a list of three references to: Dr. Amy Thistlethwaite (thistlethwaite@nku.edu), Search Committee Chair, Northern Kentucky University, Department of Political Science, 217 Landrum Academic Center, Highland Heights, KY 41099.

PORTLAND STATE UNIVERSITY
The Division of Administration of Justice at the Mark Hatfield School of Government at Portland State University (PSU) seeks a Director of its Criminal Justice Policy Research Institute. The Director position is for a joint faculty appointment at any rank. The position is a nine-month tenure track appointment starting Fall 2002 with a salary range of $48,000 to $68,000. Priority is given to candidates with a strong record in obtaining research grants from national, private, state, or local levels on criminal justice issues. The position entails teaching three courses in an academic year. A Ph.D. in criminal justice or directly related fields is required. Applicants should submit a detailed letter of application, curriculum vitae, and three reference letters. Review of applications begins December 1. Send applications to: Chair, search Committee, Portland State University, Division of Administration of Justice, P.O. 751-just, Portland, OR 97207-0751. PSU is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Institute.

RADFORD UNIVERSITY
Tenure track position for Assistant Professor to teach graduate and undergraduate criminal justice courses. Will teach four courses per semester with generalist orientation. In letters of application, candidates should indicate areas of criminal justice that they are particularly suited to teach or special competencies. Doctorate in criminal justice or related field preferred. ABD's will be expected to complete doctorate within one year of hire. Demonstrated research or experience in the criminal justice system and ability to use technology in teaching and scholarship desirable. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Send letter, vita, and list of references to Dr. Jack Call, Dept. of Criminal Justice, Radford University, Box 6934, Radford, VA 24142 (540) 831-6148.

SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE
The Criminal Justice Department at Saint Anselm College invites applications for a tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor beginning Fall 2002. Applicants must have a Ph.D. or ABD from a program in Criminal Justice, Criminology or related discipline at the time of appointment. Areas of specialization are open but preference will be given to those applicants whose research and teaching reflect an interest in comparative criminal justice systems, corrections, or police and society. In addition, candidates who possess a strong background in research methods are strongly encouraged to apply. Primary consideration will be given to candidates with a completed Ph.D., strong teaching skills and an active research agenda. Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience. The successful candidate will be expected to support the mission of Saint Anselm College, a Catholic liberal arts college in the Benedictine tradition located in southern New Hampshire in close proximity to Boston. Applications must include a letter of interest, curriculum vita and three letters of recommendation. Application materials should be addressed to: Search Committee, Criminal Justice Department, Saint Anselm College, 100 Saint Anselm Drive, Manchester, NH 03102. Review of applications will begin December 15, 2001. Saint Anselm College is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer.

SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY
Saint Louis University, a Catholic, Jesuit institution dedicated to education, research and healthcare, is seeking applicants for the Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice. The full-time tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level begins fall semester 2002. A doctorate in Criminal Justice, Criminology, or Sociology with strong research and teaching skills is required. Saint Louis University is classified as a Research Extensive Institution by the Carnegie Foundation. Teaching and research interests in one or more of the following areas are desirable—Criminal Justice Policy, Criminal Justice System, and Law Enforcement Administration. The Department offers a B.A. in Criminal Justice, a B.A. in Sociology, and a certificate program in forensic science in conjunction with the Department of Biology and Chemistry and the School of Medicine. Secondary appointments are possible at the graduate level in a number of areas, including Public Policy Studies and Social Service. The Department has working relationships with more than 50 criminal justice agencies and organizations. in the Saint Louis metropolitan area. Send an application letter, curriculum vitae, three letters of reference, and representative publications to: Dr. Charles E. Marske, Chair, Department of Sociology & Criminal Justice, Saint Louis University, 221 N. Grand, St. Louis, MO 63103. Saint Louis University is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer, and encourages nominations and applications of and applications of women and minorities.

SALEM STATE COLLEGE
Salem State College is seeking to fill a tenure track position as Assistant or Associate Professor in Criminal Justice for the Fall of 2002. Required qualifications include a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or related areas. ABD candidates will be considered. A JD is an insufficient terminal degree for this position. Candidates should have college teaching experience, especially in the areas of Community Corrections, Criminal Justice Administration and/or Court Administration. We also prefer candidates with experience in teaching in multicultural, multicultural environments with students of diverse backgrounds and learning styles, and who enjoy serving as role models and mentors for a diverse group of students. Opportunities for graduate teaching are available and subject to appropriate credentials and experience. Candidates should have an interest in pursuing research, and diverse research opportunities are available with multiple criminal justice agencies in the area. Salem State is located on the North Shore, in close proximity to Boston. Salary is competitive and commensurate with education and experience. Applications are currently being accepted and review is ongoing. Please apply immediately. To apply, send a letter of application specifying the reference number of the position for which you are applying, resume, appropriate transcripts, and three letters of reference to: Office of Equal Opportunity and Human Rights, Salem State College, 352 Lafayette St., Salem, MA 01970. Salem State is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Persons of color, women, sexual orientation and those with disabilities are urged to apply.

SAN FRANCISCO STATE UNIVERSITY
Priority Deadline: January 15, 2001. Appointment starts Fall 2002. Criminal Justice seeks an Assistant Professor who will teach, assist in development of Criminal Justice curriculum and integration of innovative technologies into course materials. Assigned time may be available for instructional research, course development, and program administration, etc. Undergraduate advising and academic committees participation expected. Must have completed Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or related field—ABDs considered with evidence of completion—and must be prepared for Criminal Justice research. Prior success in effective college-level teaching (especially interdisciplinary), previous professional experience, and background in related areas that will contribute to the development of Criminal Justice curriculum are preferred. Competitive salary based on experience, qualifications and reputation in the field. Please send letter of application (including a brief statement of teaching philosophy and any additional expertise in other areas of Criminal Justice), curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation, sample of scholarly research writing and graduate transcript(s) to: Professor C. Daniel Vencill, Director, Criminal Justice Program, San Francisco State University, 1600 Holloway Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94132-4155 (415) 338-7514; cdanielevencill@netscape.net. San Francisco State University, a member of the California State University system, serves a diverse student body of 27,000 undergraduate and graduate students. The University seeks to promote scholarship, freedom and human diversity through excellence in instruction and intellectual accomplishment. SFSU faculty are expected to be effective teachers and demonstrate professional achievement and growth through research, scholarship and/or creative work. SFSU is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

SAN JOSE STATE UNIVERSITY
Criminal Justice/Forensics: The Administration of Justice Department at San Jose State University is seeking applications for the position of a probationary (tenure-track) professor at the Assistant/Associate Professor rank, depending upon qualifications. Appointment is on an academic basis, starting August 23, 2002. Qualifications: Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, Criminology or a related field with an emphasis in forensics and/or criminalistics is required. The candidate is also required to teach courses in the core program. Additional expertise in other areas, such as cyber crime, technological crimes, environmental crime, intelligence, terrorism, and corrections is desired. Primary responsibility is to teach undergraduate Administration of Justice courses in the Forensics Program (normally 12 WTU/semester). Further responsibilities would include awareness of and sensitivity to the educational goals and needs of student population of great diversity—in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation—through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement. Consideration of retention, tenure and promotion will be based upon effectiveness in academic assignment (particularly teaching) and on scholarly and/or professional achievements. Review of applications will begin on January 28, 2002, and search will remain open until position is filled. Please submit: (1) letter of application, (2) detailed resume with record of education, teaching and professional appointments, and experience, (3) university transcripts, (4) three current letters of recommendation to: Professor Inger Sagatun-Edwards, Chair, Administration of Justice Department, San Jose State University, One Washington Square, San Jose, CA 95192-0030. SJSU is an Equal Opportunity/ Affirmative Action Employer.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY
Instructor of Criminal Justice. A non tenure-track position in the Department of Criminal Justice. Review of applications will begin January 22, 2002. Position available August, 2002. Teaching undergraduate courses in criminal justice and corrections; conducting research in area(s) of expertise; supervising field experience; advising undergraduates; participating in committee work, public service, and professional organizations. Required: M.S. in Criminal Justice or related field, J.D. only dMoes not qualify; record of quality teaching in criminal justice and corrections. Preferred: Professional experience in institutional or community-based corrections; established record of scholarly activity; active community service. Demonstrated history of working with multicultural populations and awareness of issues affecting women and minorities. Salary commensurate with professional experience and qualifications. Excellent fringe benefits. Cover letter, vita, transcripts, and 3 letters of reference should be forwarded to: Dr. Louis Veneziano, Department of Criminal Justice, Southeast Missouri State University, Mail Stop 8200, Cape Girardeau, MO 63701. Phone: (573) 986-7369; E-mail: Lveneziano@semo.edu. Southeast Missouri State University is a regional, multi-purpose institution of more than 8,000 students in a wide variety of programs. The Department of Criminal Justice includes six full-time faculty members which serve approximately 400 undergraduate and graduate majors. The Department offers a B.S. in Criminal Justice and an M.S. in Criminal Justice. Cape Girardeau is a community of 35,000 population 120 miles south of St. Louis and 175 miles north of Memphis on the Mississippi River. Southeast Missouri State University is an Equal Opportunity, M/F/Affirmative Action Employer. Women and minorities are strongly encouraged to apply.

STONEYHILL COLLEGE

The Department of Sociology and Criminology at Stonehill College invites applications for a tenure track position for Fall, 2002. Rank Open. Primary teaching responsibilities in critical criminology with opportunities to teach courses in such areas of specialization as sociology of the prison, corporate crime, sociology of law, restorative justice, victimology, research methods, and police studies. Ph.D. in Sociology, Criminology or Criminal Justice desired with consideration to ABD. Strong teaching skills and scholarly potential desired. Contact: Dr. Susan Guarino, Search Committee Chair, Stonehill College, Department of Sociology and Criminology, 288 Wollaston Ave., Easton, MA 02357. Send email to: Sguarino@stonehill.edu.

SUNY COLLEGE AT OLD WESTBURY

The Department of Sociology invites applications for a tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level, beginning August 2002. A Ph.D. in Sociology with a specialty in Criminology is required. (ABD will be considered for appointment at the level of Instructor. The successful candidate is expected to demonstrate excellence in undergraduate teaching in a multicultural environment and be qualified to teach such courses as Introduction to Criminology, Criminal Justice Administration, Juvenile Delinquency and Victimology, as well as Introductory Sociology and general electives in the discipline. Preference will be given to candidates with research interests in Criminology. Send letter of interest and vita to SUNY College at Old Westbury, Office of Human Resources, Search Committee SOC-C, Box 210, Old Westbury, NY 11568. AA/EOE.

UNIVERSITE DE MONTREAL

School of Criminology seeks applications for two tenure-track Assistant Professor positions. The first position calls for candidates to teach at undergraduate and graduate level as well as pursue research in the field of security and police studies. The second position calls for candidates to teach (undergraduate and graduate) and research in police and security matters at the international level. Requirements: Ph.D. in criminology or closely related field (before starting date); experience in research and teaching at both undergraduate and graduate level; academic publishing experience. Knowledge of French is essential. The Universite de Montreal offers competitive salary rates combined with a complete ensemble of social benefits. The expected starting date for both positions is June 1, 2002. All candidates are invited to send a vita, a copy of official undergraduate and graduate transcripts, a description of their areas of interest and research projects, the name and coordinates of three persons who would provide eventual reference letters. Send all documents to: Le directeur, Ecole de criminologie, Faculte des arts et des sciences, Universite de Montreal, C.P. 6128, Succursale Centre-ville, Montreal, Quebec Canada H3C 3J7. In conformance with conditions maintained for immigration matters in Canada, this announcement is directed with priority to Canadian citizens and permanent residents in Canada. The Universite de Montreal subscribes to a program of occupational equality for women and principles of equity in occupational matters.

UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

The Department of Criminal Justice in the College of Arts and Sciences seeks a chairperson (tenure track, associate/full) beginning in the Fall 2002 semester. The Department presently has seven faculty, approximately 200 undergraduate majors and approximately 25 masters students. The new chairperson will lead a priority project to develop a new track in Sociology within an expanded Department of Criminal Justice and Sociology. The new Sociology major will draw on the strengths of existing faculty and have concentrations in criminology, deviance, and social organization. Preference will be given to applicants with a doctoral degree in sociology, criminal justice, or criminology, but outstanding candidates with degrees in related fields who have publication records with a criminal justice or criminology focus will be considered. We seek applicants who have demonstrated substantial productivity in research and teaching with administrative experience. We are a diverse and interdisciplinary group of scholars so the new chair should value diversity and interdisciplinary efforts. We are an applied discipline and plan to retain an applied focus in the new department. The search will continue until an outstanding applicant is identified and committed to the University. Information about our department can be found at http://bama.ua.edu/~bamicaj/. The University of Alabama is committed to diversity and to equal opportunity for all, thus applications from women, minority, and challenged Scholars are actively sought. Applications and inquiries can be directed to: Chair Search Committee, University of Alabama, Department of Criminal Justice, P.O. Box 70320, Tuscaloosa, AL 35487-0320 (205) 348-7795.

UNIVERSITY OF BALTIMORE
The Division of Criminology, Criminal Justice and Social Policy seeks applications for one full-time tenure track appointment at the Assistant or Associate Professor level starting August, 2002. Responsibilities include teaching within the Criminal Justice B.S. and M.S. programs' core encompassing theory, criminal justice administration, research methods, statistics and planning, and in a specialization which strengthens the programs' offerings, and actively pursuing research and service. Qualifications for the Assistant level include clear potential to contribute significantly to the Division's teaching, scholarship, and service. A doctorate in Criminology, Criminal Justice or related field is required at the time of appointment. An Associate appointment requires demonstrated commitment to excellence in criminal justice education, a proven record of distinguished scholarship, and demonstrated professional service. Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience. The Division seeks candidates with a strong commitment to teaching in a multicultural and applied educational environment. The University of Baltimore is an upper-division undergraduate and graduate university within the University System of Maryland offering courses on its main campus, off-campus and via interactive technology and the web. To apply, please send a letter of interest, vita and three reference letters to: Dr. Benjamin Wright, Search Committee Chair, Division of Criminology, Criminal Justice and Social Policy, University of Baltimore, 1420 N. Charles Street, Baltimore, MD 21201-5779. FAX: 410-837-6051. E-mail: bwright@ubmail.ubalt.edu. Review of applications will begin January 25, 2002 continuing until the position is filled. The University of Baltimore is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Active Institution.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA IRVINE
The Department of Criminology, Law and Society at the University of California, Irvine invites applications for a position in law and society at the Assistant Professor level to begin July, 2002, (teaching duties to begin Fall, 2002). Substantive areas are open. Fit for the position will be determined by scholarship and teaching (Ph.D. and/or joint Ph.D./J.D. degree). The Department of Criminology, Law and Society is one of four departments in the interdisciplinary School of Social Ecology at the University of California, Irvine, and our research and teaching programs reflect a strong commitment to interdisciplinary scholarship. Applicants should submit a letter of interest, a curriculum vitae, representative publications, and three letters to: Richard Leo, Chair, Law and Society Search Committee, Department of Criminology, Law and Society, University of California, Irvine 92697-7080. To ensure consideration, application files should be complete by January 15, 2002. The University of California, Irvine is an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to excellence through diversity.

UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI
The Division of Criminal Justice at the University of Cincinnati may have as many as three faculty openings, with appointments starting in September 1, 2002. Applications will begin to be reviewed immediately and will continue until openings are filled. The University of Cincinnati, with an enrollment of 35,000 students, is a Research I institution that grants doctorates in 90 areas. The Division of Criminal Justice grants the B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees and houses the Criminal Justice Research Center. The city of Cincinnati, in which the University is located, is one of the most livable urban environments, offering a range of cultural activities and professional sporting events, affordable housing choices, and moderate weather. All positions are contingent on funding. Two positions are designated for the area of corrections. We look to fill the first position with a person who specializes in rehabilitation and early intervention programming. The second position gives preference to scholars who specialize in minorities and corrections. Each position requires evidence of scholarly research and a Ph.D. in criminal justice or a related social science. Each position is at the Assistant rank. Exceptional ABD's will be considered. A third position will give preference to scholars in the area of policing. This position is at the rank of Assistant and also requires evidence of sustained scholarly productivity and a Ph.D. in criminal justice or a related social science. Exceptional ABD's will be considered. Women, minorities, and Vietnam Veterans are strongly encouraged to apply. John Wright, Chair, Faculty Search, Division of Criminal Justice, University of Cincinnati, P.O. Box 210389, Cincinnati, OH 45221-0389.

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA
Applications are invited for the position of Professor and Director of the Center for Studies in Criminology and Law to begin August 2002. The Center is a budgeted multi-disciplinary unit in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. The Center's 12 faculty members are affiliated with the Departments of History, Psychology, and Sociology and are active in graduate education in those departments. The Center has recently expanded its commitment to research by establishing the Institute for Crime, Justice, and Policy Research. Candidates must have a demonstrated record in some area of Crime and/or Law and Society. They must have a Ph.D. in a related discipline, a distinguished record of scholarly achievement, experience with funded research, and the interpersonal and leadership skills to enhance the Center's research and teaching missions. Interested applicants should submit a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, a statement of administrative philosophy, and the names and addresses of three references who can evaluate their administrative potential and scholarly achievements to Professor Richard Hollinger, Chair, Search Committee, Center for Studies in Criminology and Law, 201
Walker Hall, P.O. Box 115950, University of Florida, Gainesville, FL 32611-5950. The University of Florida is an Equal Opportunity Employer with a strong commitment to diversity. Anyone requiring accommodations to make an application should contact the Chair of the Search Committee. The deadline for receipt of applications is January 18, 2002. Applicants may visit the Center's website at WWW.CRIM.UFL.EDU.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS AT SPRINGFIELD
Criminal Justice Department invites applications for tenure-track Assistant Professor position beginning Fall 2002. Responsibilities include teaching core theory course for majors, with other areas of interest open; ability to teach one or more courses in juvenile delinquency/juvenile justice is desirable. Requirements: Ph.D. in criminal justice, criminology, or related discipline preferred, but ABDs will be considered; strong commitment to excellence in teaching, and potential for scholarly achievement. The Criminal Justice Department offers a B.A. degree and a graduate concentration as part of the MPA degree. The University of Illinois at Springfield is a comprehensive institution located in the state capital, serving over 4,000 students. Opportunities exist for interested candidates to participate in one or more of the following initiatives: research and evaluation activities through the Center for Legal Studies and the Institute for Public Affairs; campus-based Innocence Project or comparable project on wrongful conviction; Capital Scholars program for first- and second-year students providing an interdisciplinary, team-taught curriculum with public affairs focus; development and delivery of on-line courses. Review of applications will begin November 19, 2001 and continue until position is filled. To apply, submit letter of application explaining your interest in the position, qualifications and areas of specialization; curriculum vita; statement of teaching philosophy; and 3 letters of reference. Apply to Search Committee, Criminal Justice Department, Brookens 330, University of Illinois at Springfield, P.O. Box 19243, Springfield, IL 62794-9243. E-mail: hayler@uis.edu. UIS is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer and women, minorities and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS BOSTON
The Center for Policy Research in Family and Community Violence and the Department of Sociology invite applications for a tenure track position at the Assistant Professor level to begin in the Fall of 2002. This will be a joint appointment, 1/2 time with the Center and 1/2 time with the Department of Sociology. The successful applicant will serve as the Principal Investigator for research and evaluation of projects associated with the Center, with a special emphasis on family and community violence. S/he will also develop funding for research and will be available for consultation to community organizations and faculty engaged in related research. Candidates must have experience in research and evaluation in violence and social conflict are urged to apply. The Department of Sociology administers majors in Sociology, Social Psychology, and Criminal Justice, as well as Alcohol and Substance Abuse Studies Program and the Graduate Program in Applied Sociology. The ability to teach core courses in the criminal justice curriculum is an important consideration. Candidates must have a Ph.D. in Sociology, Criminal Justice/Criminology, or in a related discipline and must demonstrate potential for excellence in research, published scholarship and teaching. Interested candidates should send a letter of application highlighting their qualifications, current curriculum vitae, and a list of at least three references to be contacted at a later date to: University of Massachusetts Boston, Human Resources Search 515, 10 Morrissey Blvd., Boston, MA 02125.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA DULUTH
The Department of Sociology/Anthropology at the University of Minnesota Duluth invites applications for a tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor rank in Criminology beginning September 1, 2002. An ABD by 9/1/2002 in Criminology, or related field is required for initial appointment to be made at the instructor level with all requirements for the Ph.D. to be completed by 12/31/2002. A Ph.D. by 9/1/2002 in Criminology, Sociology, or related field is required for the appointment to be made at the Assistant Professor rank. The Department of Sociology/Anthropology is a unit of the College of Liberal Arts. The Department teaches courses in anthropology, criminology, cultural studies, and sociology and offers bachelor's degrees in anthropology, criminology, and sociology. The study of inequality is a major theme in the curriculum. The Department is in the process of proposing a M.A. in Criminology. Candidates must have experience (minimum one year) and competence in teaching college courses in criminology, sociology, or related field (Graduate Teaching Assistant experience is acceptable) and demonstrate scholarly potential. Preferred candidates will have two years or more experience and competence in teaching college courses in criminology, demonstrate an active research and publication agenda, and show evidence of service to the campus, discipline, and community. All specializations in criminology will be considered. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Review of complete applications begins January 15, 2002 and the position will remain open until filled. A complete application file consists of a letter of application, curriculum vita, three current letters of reference, graduate transcripts, writing sample (e.g., conference paper, article, draft chapter, etc.), and supporting material providing evidence of teaching ability (e.g., teaching evaluations, course syllabi, etc.). This position is subject to final budgetary approval. Send all application-related material to: Janelle Wilson, Chairperson, Criminology Search Committee, Department of Sociology/Anthropology, 228 Cina Hall, University of Minnesota Duluth, 10 University Drive, Duluth, MN 55812-2496 (Voice 218-726-6364; Fax: 218-726-6386; e-mail: socanth@d.umn. edu – use SUBJECT: SEARCH).
UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA
AT OMaha
The Department of Criminal Justice invites applications for a tenure-track Associate Professor with tenure position to begin August 2002. We seek candidates with strong research records, as well as demonstrated achievement in teaching, with Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, Criminology, Sociology or the equivalent. All areas of specialization will be considered however, some attention will be given to specialties that complement or extend departmental strengths. The Department is located in Omaha and Lincoln and the successful applicant’s assignment will be in Lincoln. This position will also provide some administrative oversight to the daily operation of the Department on the Lincoln campus. Review of applications will begin December 1, 2001 and continue until the position is filled. Applicants should send letter of interest, vita, evidence of teaching and other scholarly ability, and three letters of reference to: Robert F. Meier, Chair, Department of Criminal Justice, University of Nebraska at Omaha, Omaha, NE 68182. The University of Nebraska at Omaha is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer: minorities, women, handicapped, and Vietnam-era veterans are encouraged to apply.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
FELLOWSHIPS AVAILABLE
The University of New Hampshire Family Research Laboratory (FRL) has fellowships for research on family violence available beginning immediately. Applicants interested in starting dates beyond June, 2002 may apply pending funding from sponsor. These NIH-funded positions are open to new and experienced researchers with doctorates in the fields of psychology, sociology, social work, law, nursing, public health and medicine. The fellowships are intended for work in the area of child abuse, marital violence, elder abuse, sexual abuse, child victimization, rape, homicide and other family-violence related topics with special attention to mental health impact. Scholars use the one-year fellowships (with possible one-year extension) to collaborate with FRL faculty on a current project, to work on one of the many data sets archived at the FRL or, in the case of senior candidates, to work on their own projects. Fellows must be able to reside within commuting distance to UNH (one and a half hours from Boston). Annual stipends run from $26,916 to $42,300 depending upon the number of years since receipt of doctorate. Applications from scholars with backgrounds in developmental or cognitive psychology, or interests in family violence in minority families, or families of persons with disabilities are particularly encouraged. Applications (FRL application form required from website (www.unh.edu/frl) letter of interest, curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation and publications or work sample) will be accepted beginning immediately. For more information, contact David Finkelhor, Co-Director, Family Research Laboratory (603) 862-1888; email: david.finkelhor@unh.edu. Complete applications should be sent to Program Administrator, Family Research Lab, University of New Hampshire, 126 Horton SSC, Durham, NH 03824.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA
AT CHARLOTTE
The Department of Criminal Justice at UNC Charlotte invites applications for two (2) tenure track Assistant Professor positions to begin Fall, 2002. Requirements for both positions include: (1) a Ph.D. in an appropriate social science discipline at the time of appointment; (2) evidence of or solid potential to teach both undergraduate and graduate courses in the discipline and in the candidate’s areas of specialization; (3) evidence of or potential to develop an ongoing research agenda, including the pursuit of extramural funding. Areas of specialization are open; however, for position #1, some preference will be given to applicants with a focus on juvenile justice, law enforcement, and/or corrections. For position #2, some preference will be given to applicants with a focus on race, gender, class and criminal justice or drugs and crime. The Department of Criminal Justice consists of nine faculty members with considerable growth potential. The B.A. and M.S. degrees are offered, and the Department contributes to the Interdisciplinary Ph.D. Program in Public Policy. More information about the department and university can be found at www.uncc.edu/colleges/arts_and_sciences/criminal_justice/. Information about Charlotte, one of the country’s most rapidly growing metropolitan areas, is available at www.charlotte.com. To insure full consideration, applications should be received by February 1, 2002. Submit letter of application indicating teaching and research interests, a vita, and the complete contact information for three references. Materials should be sent to: Criminal Justice Search Committee, Department of Criminal Justice, UNC Charlotte, 9201 University City Blvd., Charlotte, NC 28223-0001. UNC Charlotte is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Applications from historically underrepresented groups are strongly encouraged to apply.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH TEXAS
The Department of Criminal Justice invites applications for one tenure-track faculty position at the rank of Assistant Professor to begin Spring 2002. UNT is located in the Dallas-Fort Worth metropolitan area and has more than 27,000 students. The Department serves more than 500 undergraduate majors and more than 70 master’s students, and offers a core emphasis in an interdisciplinary Ph.D. program in information security and law. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in criminal justice or a closely related field. Areas of specialization are open. In addition to quality undergraduate and graduate teaching, the successful candidate is expected to have a scholarly research agenda and actively contribute to departmental research projects. Applicants should send a letter of application, vita, contact information for five references, and copies of recent scholarly activity to: Peggie Tobolowsky, Department of Criminal Justice, University of North Texas, P.O. Box 305130, Denton, TX 76203-5130; fax: 940-565-2548; e-mail: peggy@scs.cmm.unt.edu; phone: 940-565-4085. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. UNT is an EO/AA Employer committed to diversity.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS-PAN AMERICAN
The Department of Criminal Justice is accepting applications for the position of Associate or Assistant Professor. This full-time tenure-track appointment is in the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences. A person whose Ph.D. is not in Criminal Justice or Criminology must demonstrate through teaching, research, or professional field experience a justification for appointment to the department faculty. All teaching fields will be considered, but primary needs are Corrections (Adult and Juvenile) and Research Methods. Teaching assignments are both undergraduate and masters levels. Criminal justice agency experience is desirable. The competitive candidate will demonstrate potential for excellence in teaching, research, publication, and professional service. Salary is competitive. Applicants must submit: letter of interest; resume or CV; unofficial transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate degrees; and three reference letters, written specifically for this position announcement. Applicants should indicate in the letter of interest whether they are seeking appointment at the Associate or Assistant rank. Only complete application folders will be considered. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis with review of applications beginning on November 15, 2001, continuing until the position is filled. Make application to: Nigel Cohen, UTPB Department of Criminal Justice, SBS321, 1201 W. University Dr., Edinburg, TX 78539-2999. The University of Texas-Pan American is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Position pending final budget approval. Position #F01/02-27.

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS OF THE PERMIAN BASIN
The University of Texas of the Permian Basin is accepting applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor beginning January, May, or August 2002. Doctorate in Criminology, Criminal Justice, or related field. ABDs with firm completion dates will be considered. Responsibilities will include teaching undergraduate and graduate courses, conducting research, and providing university service. Expertise in law enforcement and research, as well as an interest in developing and teaching web-based courses, preferred. Department offers undergraduate degree in Criminal Justice and Master's degree in Criminal Justice Administration. Salary commensurate with qualifications. Please send letter of application, curriculum vitae, names and phone numbers of three references, and copies of graduate transcripts to: Chair of Criminology Search Committee, Behavioral Science Department, University of Texas of the Permian Basin, 4901 East University Blvd., Odessa, TX 79762. Review of applicants will begin October 15 and will continue until the position is filled. For more information, contact Dr. Richard Kiekbusch at (915) 552-2537 or Kiekbusch_r@utpb.edu. UTPB is an AA/EOE Employer.

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH ALABAMA
The University of South Alabama invites applications and nominations for the position of Chair of the Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice at the rank of Associate or Full Professor to commence Fall 2002. Applicants must possess an earned Ph.D. in political science with the ability to teach public law and/or criminal justice preferred. Candidates should demonstrate a commitment to research and teaching; a record of significant scholarly publications; evidence of successful teaching; experience in curriculum development; and proven administrative skills. Salary is commensurate with rank and accomplishments. The University of South Alabama was chartered by the Alabama State Legislature in 1963 and is located in Mobile, on the upper Gulf Coast, an area with a population of more than one million within a 100-mile radius of the city. Current enrollment exceeds 12,000 students. The Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice consists of ten full-time faculty and offers undergraduate degrees in Political Science and Criminal Justice, and a Master’s in Public Administration, serving approximately 450 majors. (Web page at http://www.southalabama.edu/polisci/index.html). Send a letter of application that includes a statement of administrative philosophy, a curriculum vitae, and three letters of recommendation to: Professor Leonard Macaluso, Interim Chair, Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice, University of South Alabama, Humanities Bldg., Room 226, Mobile, AL 36688-0002. Deadline for application: The Search Committee will begin reviewing applications December 17, 2001 and will continue to do so until the position is filled. AA/EOE/M/F/D.

VERA INSTITUTE OF JUSTICE
Applications are available for the 2002 Andrew W. Mellon Foundation/Vera Institute of Justice Postdoctoral Fellowship on Race, Crime and Justice. The fellowship encourages new scholars of diverse backgrounds to work and publish in this important field. One fellowship will be awarded each year for a two-year residency at the Vera Institute in New York. Fellows will receive a $45,000 annual salary + benefits and a modest research allowance to pursue a scholarly project of their own design. Applicants must have completed doctorate within seven years of applying for the fellowship. Applications are due January 10, 2002. Download information and application at www.vera.org (click on "Advancing Research") or contact Suzanne Mueller, Administrative Director, Research, Vera Institute of Justice, 233 Broadway, 12th Floor, New York, NY 10279; e-mail: smueller@vera.org; fax: 212/941-9407.

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
The Department of Political Science/Criminal Justice Program, Pullman campus at Washington state University, announces an opening for a tenure track position as Assistant/Senior Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice beginning August 16, 2002. A Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, Criminology, Political Science, or related social science field required at the time of appointment. Evidence of clear potential for excellence in teaching and scholarly achievement is required. The candidate will be expected to teach undergraduate and graduate classes (course load of two courses per semester), pursue an active research agenda, and engage in service activities for the department, university, and community. The Department is seeking a generalist broadly trained in criminal justice and has expertise and interest in quantitative methods and applied policy research. Areas of substantive specialization are open. Applications are strengthened by training, experience and intellectual interest in areas of: courts, corrections or crime prevention policies. Review of applications begins December 1, 2001 and will continue until filled. Candidates must provide letter of application summarizing qualifications, teaching and research interests, a current vitae, graduate transcripts, teaching evaluations, an (optional) sample of writing, and three letters of recommendations. Send to: Nicholas Lovrich, Chair, Criminal Justice Search Committee, Department of Political Science/Criminal Justice Program, Washington State University, P.O. Box 644880, Pullman, WA 99164-4880. Washington State University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action educator and employer. Members of ethnic minorities, women, Vietnam or disabled veterans, persons with disabilities, and people over the age of 40 are encouraged to apply.

YORK COLLEGE OF PENNSYLVANIA
The Criminal Justice Program of the Behavioral Sciences Department has a tenure-track Assistant Professor position available Fall 2002. The position requires a candidate with a primary teaching interest in law enforcement. Candidates should have an enthusiastic commitment to teaching and interacting with students. A doctorate or ABD status in criminal justice is required. Faculty assessment includes excellence in teaching, scholarship, and service. Review of applications will begin immediately; the search will continue until the position is filled. Submit a letter of application explaining interest, qualifications, and statement of teaching philosophy and research interests. Include vita with names of three references and teaching evaluations to Dr. Barbara Hanbury, Coordinator, Criminal Justice, Behavioral Sciences Dept, York College of Pennsylvania, York, PA 17405-7199. York College is an EO Employer.

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY SACRAMENTO
The Division of Criminal Justice seeks to fill two one-year lecturer positions with a salary range of $35,004-$52,872 depending upon experience and education. Minimum educational requirement is a Master's degree in criminal justice or closely related field. Evidence of one-year successful teaching experience in a college or university is required with a minimum of five years professional experience in criminal justice. Preference will be given to applicants able to teach in more than one area of emphasis (e.g., corrections, criminology, investigations, management and administration, and law). The ability to work with diverse groups is necessary. Courses to be taught include undergraduate and graduate courses in criminal justice. Further, the position entails student advising, active participation in division, college, and university committees, involvement in scholarly and creative activities, and utilizing computers. In addition, faculty are required to participate actively in a variety of community activities, including those directly connected to their professional field. Submit cover letter of application, names, addresses, and phone numbers of three professional references, curriculum vita, transcripts and statement of qualifications to Division Chair, California State University, Sacramento, Division of Criminal Justice, 6000 J Street, Sacramento, CA 95819-6085. Review of applications begins January 22, 2002 and will continue until the position is filled. AA/EOE.

ELIZABETHTOWN COLLEGE
Elizabethtown College announces a tenure-track, Assistant Professor position in Criminal Justice beginning August 2002. Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, or in Sociology, with Criminal Justice specialization required. The successful candidate will teach Criminal Justice courses (specifically policing procedures, criminology, and the Criminal Justice System), as well as sociological theory and introductory sociology. Other upper level courses that the individual may be prepared to teach can be accommodated. A strong commitment to undergraduate education is required, as is a willingness to include students in one's research interests. Experience in the Criminal Justice System or substantial research/teaching required. We are seeking an energetic faculty member who will help build enrollment in our Criminal Justice Program, which has just transitioned from a concentration in the Sociology-Anthropology major to its own major. Elizabethtown College, rated as one of the best northern liberal arts institutions by U.S. News and World Report, offers its 1,700 students 41 major programs in traditional liberal arts and professional fields. The Elizabethtown motto, "Educate for Service," expresses the College's mission of linking the world of work with the world of the spirit to advance the values of peace, justice and human dignity. Review of materials begins January 15, 2002. Send vita, 3 current letters of reference, and evidence of quality teaching (e.g. summary of teaching evaluations) to Elizabethtown College, Human Resources, One Alpha Drive, Elizabethtown, PA 17022. As an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer, Elizabethtown College is seeking candidates who will enhance the diversity of its faculty, staff, and administration. See our website: www.etown.edu/humanresources.

LEES-McRAE COLLEGE
Lees-McRae College, a private baccalaureate degree granting college located in the Blue Ridge Mountains of western North Carolina, invites applicants for an entry-level, full-time position in Criminal Justice beginning Fall 2002. Preference given to candidates who will have completed Ph.D. in criminal justice, criminology, or closely related social science field by August 2002. We seek a scholar with broad interests who teach a variety of undergraduate courses, including: Principles of Law Enforcement, Judicial Process, Criminal Law & Procedures, and Comparative Criminal Justice. Experience with academic advising, internship supervision, and freshman programs a plus. Significant off-campus teaching is expected. To be assured full consideration, all requested materials should be received by February 20, 2002. Submit a letter of application, statement of teaching philosophy, evidence of teaching excellence, curriculum vitae, copy of graduate transcripts, and three letters of reference to: Criminal Justice Search Committee, c/o Office of Academic Affairs, Lees-McRae College, P.O. Box 128, Banner Elk, NC 28604-0128. For additional information on the college, see our website at www.lmc.edu. Lees-McRae is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY
The School of Criminal Justice at Michigan State University invites applications for an academic-year (nine-month), open rank, tenure track position to begin Fall, 2002. Applications are invited from individuals with research and teaching interests in policing. Candidates that combine expertise in policing with interest in private security, quantitative methods or other related areas are also encouraged to apply. Candidates must have completed a Ph.D. prior to the position starting date and must have demonstrated potential for excellence in teaching, research, and published scholarship. Review of applications will begin December 2, 2001 and will continue until the position is filled. Candidates should send a letter of application including a detailed statement of their interests and research plans, three letters of reference, and curriculum vitae to Professor Tim Bynum, Chair, Search Committee, School of Criminal Justice, Michigan State University, 650 Baker Hall, East Lansing, MI 48824-1118. The School of Criminal Justice is the oldest continuous degree-granting program in criminal justice with excellent Ph.D., masters, and undergraduate programs and considerable support for faculty. Michigan State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Institution. Persons with disabilities have the right to request and receive reasonable accommodation.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE UNIVERSITY
The Department of Political Science and Public Administration at the North Carolina State University is seeking a faculty member to teach in its criminal justice educational and training activities. These include (a) the Administrative Officers Management Program (AOMP, <www2.chass.ncsu.edu/aomp>) which is an extension-credit program in Raleigh, (b) the Supervisory Certificate Program that is being offered via interactive video on the internet, and (c) the professional development Law Enforcement Executive Program. In addition, there will be opportunities to teach in the undergraduate political science program and the MPA and Ph.D. in Public Administration degrees and to pursue research interests through interaction with many criminal justice scholars and professionals at NC State. A Ph.D. in Political Science, Public Administration, or Criminal Justice with teaching and training experience in criminal justice is preferred. Research in criminal justice and publications are desirable. Submit applications, including a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, transcripts, three letters of reference, examples of scholarly writing, and syllabi and teaching evaluations, if available, to Director, Administrative Officers Management Program, Department of Political Science & Public Administration, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC 27695-8102. The deadline for applications is February 15, 2002. North Carolina State is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Individuals with disabilities desiring accommodations in the application process should contact Carol Apperson, Political Science, apperson@social.chass.ncsu.edu, phone 919-515-5074.

MICHAEL J. HINDELANG
AWARD WINNER
Making Good: How Ex-Convicts Reform and Rebuild Their Lives

SHADD MARUNA

Shadd Maruna is currently a Lecturer for the Institute of Criminology at the University of Cambridge (UK). Previously, he was an assistant professor with the School of Criminal Justice at the University at Albany, State University of New York. His book _Making Good: How Ex-Convicts Reform & Rebuild Their Lives_ (American Psychological Association Books, 2001) examines the topic of desistance from crime from a phenomenological perspective. He is currently co-editing a new book (with Russ Immarigeon) on the policy implications of desistance research for improving the process of ex-convict re-entry (SUNY Press, 2002). He is also the co-principal investigator (with Ros Burnett) of a 10-year follow-up study of the Oxford University Dynamics of Recidivism Study, and a study of the process of juvenile reintegration (with David Duffee). Dr. Maruna has been a Fulbright Scholar, a Guggenheim Fellow, and the recipient of Northwestern University's Phi Delta Kappa Outstanding Dissertation Award for 1998.
DIVISION NEWS

DIVISION ON PEOPLE OF COLOR AND CRIME

The Division on People of Color and Crime (DPCC) is pleased to announce the members of their Board for 2002. They are:

Chair: Stephanie R. Bush-Baskette
Vice Chair: Ramona Brockett
Secretary: Suman Kakar
Executive Counselors: Delores Jones-Brown, Katheryn Russell, and Everette Penn

The DPCC’s activities were well supported at the Annual Conference in Atlanta, Georgia. The sessions were well attended, the joint social with the Division on Women and Crime was, once again, a success, and our symposium/luncheon, with guest speaker Fulton County District Attorney Paul L. Howard literally had an overflow crowd! On behalf of the DPCC, I thank all of you who were a part of these activities.

Our committee work has begun for 2002. It is your active participation on the committees that allows the DPCC to address the issues of concern of its membership and to promote its mission, which includes bringing together members of all racial ethnic groups interested in the advancement of different perspectives concerning issues related to people of color and crime and the criminal justice systems. This includes facilitating and promoting research and theory development, providing tools for teaching, supporting the development of faculty and students who are interested in the goals of the DPCC, and creating forums for networking, in order to promote different racial ethnic views of crime and criminal justice systems. If you have not joined the DPCC, consider doing so. If you are a member and have not been active, consider joining a committee. The committees are as follows:

Membership: Suman Kakar
Outreach: Everette Penn
Communications (website, Newsletter, Listserv): Ramona Brockett and Kareem Jordan
Awards: Delores Jones-Brown
Student Affairs: (chair to be announced)
Research: Ramona Brockett
Program: Katheryn Russell

We are expecting a very exciting and productive year. We look forward to you being a part of it.

Best Wishes,

Stephanie R. Bush-Baskette, Division Chair
sbushbask@aol.com
850-894-0364
NEWS FROM THE DIVISION OF INTERNATIONAL CRIMINOLOGY

The Division of International Criminology (DIC) organized a series of successful activities at the Atlanta meetings. Besides sponsoring some very interesting panel sessions, the DIC gave out two awards, ran a successful business meeting, piloted a hosting service and held a sold-out luncheon.

This year, the DIC book award goes to Stanley Cohen (London School of Economics) for States of Denial (Polity, 2000). "States of Denial is the first comprehensive study of both the personal and political ways in which uncomfortable realities are avoided and evaded. It ranges from clinical studies of depression, to media images of suffering, to explanations of the 'passive bystander' and 'compassion fatigue'. The book shows how organized atrocities - the Holocaust and other genocides, torture, and political massacres - are denied by perpetrators and by bystanders, those who stand by and do nothing." ASC members may wish to purchase this book with a 10% discount offer available in the near future through the DIC webpage (www.asc41.com/divintrcime.htm).

The second DIC award, the lifetime achievement award, was given to Mike Levi at the University of Wales, Cardiff. Mike Levi commented, "I am also honoured on behalf of all those European scholars who have been grinding away in the unfashionable areas of white-collar crime that still remain largely untouched by policy priorities and research funding. With no Freedom of Information legislation of any value, and no US-style tradition of muck-raking congressional and media enquiries - not that those things have visibly reduced white-collar crime in the US - it has taken a level of stubbornness on my part stimulated both by Bill Chambliss' work on conflict theory and by my Cambridge mentors, who tried to dissuade me from selecting it as a Ph.D. topic. My work on money laundering regulation has also given me a healthy if unwise scepticism of the claims of the makers of the New World Economic Order to be able to kill off terrorist finance by an advanced form of situational opportunity reduction."

The DIC was also happy to see that the ASC Michael J. Hindelang Book Award was given to a scholar from abroad this year, Shadd Maruna, University of Cambridge, for Making Good: How Ex-Convicts Reform and Rebuild Their Lives. Additionally, DIC members congratulate Martin Killias, University of Lausanne, for receiving the Thorsten Sellin and Sheldon and Eleanor Glueck Award. Dr. Killias is one of the founders of the new European Society of Criminology, its first President and the organizer of the first ESC annual conference held in Lausanne last September. The DIC applauds Ron Huff's decision to hold an international plenary on Friday, entitled "Reflections on Criminology in Europe and the USA."

The DIC luncheon on Thursday was sold out with 67 attendees - in fact, two extra tables had to be set up to accommodate so many people. A special effort was made this year to offer a reduced price to students, and also to select a delicious menu (a typical Southern buffet). The DIC hopes to have an even larger turnout next year in Chicago.

For the first time this year the DIC piloted a hosting service whereby a longtime ASC conference attendee offers to host a scholar from abroad who is attending the ASC for the first time. This service did not receive as much publicity as it should have, but the participating hosts and guests thought it worked well. DIC member Otto Marenin from Washington State University, who hosted Louise Westmarland from the University of Leicester, commented "the hosting idea is one we should continue. I had some good chats with Louise. In addition to hosting her I also learned a lot about her own work in England. So it works both ways."

The DIC business meeting, held on Thursday morning, was well attended. Newly elected officers were introduced: Chair, Rosemary Barberet; Secretary, Nancy Grosselfinger; Treasurer, Bonnie Fisher. The DIC Executive Council was also appointed: Bill Chambliss (past President), Liqun Cao, Cindy Smith and Alexander Vazsonyi. At the business meeting four short-term objectives were agreed upon for 2001-2003: (a) increase interest in and recognition of comparative/international criminology and criminal justice in the ASC at large; (b) increase communication among DIC members of research, policy and educational initiatives in comparative/international criminology and criminal justice; (c) increase the visibility of the ASC via the DIC at international meetings and international policy venues; and (d) foster liaising of American criminologists with those from other countries and the transfer of works in translation. Membership and financial reports were given. The DIC currently has nearly 300 members. A membership recruitment flyer will be included with the 2002 general ASC renewal packets. The newsletter will be produced and distributed electronically in the future, which will save over $1,000. Liqun Cao heads up the DIC webpage committee. The book award committee will be lead by Mitchel Roth, and the Lifetime Achievement Award by William Chambliss.
DIC members suggested two possible plenaries to ASC President Lawrence Sherman for Chicago: ‘Trafficking in Human Beings’ and ‘the International Criminal Court’.

Discussion then moved to efforts by the ASC to become more “global”. First of all, the ASC is engaged in much international outreach to professional associations of criminologists in other countries. Much of this outreach is done by Executive Director Chris Eskridge but this year, the ASC is formally sending a number of envoys to professional meetings abroad. Joan McCord will be attending the ISC meeting, Rosemary Barberet will be attending meetings of French and French language criminologists, Bob Bursik and Todd Clear will be attending the British Society of Criminology conference, Lawrence Sherman and Chris Eskridge will be attending the European Society of Criminology meeting, and Christy Visher will be attending the Australian and New Zealand meeting. DIC members strongly feel that there needs to be a wider discussion of which meetings should be attended, what the envoy’s role is and how they are selected and what feedback they bring to the ASC membership. DIC members will be polled early in 2002 to assess their relationship histories with criminological associations abroad, language skills and willingness to act as envoys. A suggestion also arose regarding the possibility of offering reduced ASC membership fees to criminologists from less wealthy countries, as judged by a standard indicator such as GNP.

Nancy Grosselfinger reported on the ASC’s application for Consultant NGO status at the UN Crime Commission meetings. This application was filed last year thanks to the efforts of William Chambliss, Paul Friday, and Chris Eskridge. The application will most likely be reviewed this Spring. DIC members would like to continue to play a role in supporting the application and being involved with the international criminal justice policymaking recommendations that will be expected of the ASC once the application is approved. In addition, the DIC is exploring a similar role for the ASC in the Council of Europe and the OAU.

Josine Junger-Tas and Martin Killias gave a short presentation on the European Society of Criminology and its next conference to be held in Toledo, Spain, where an open invitation has been made to the entire ASC membership. William Chambliss informed DIC members of the possibility of sponsoring panels at the ISC (International Society of Criminology) meeting in 2003 in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

A motion was passed to communicate to the ASC Board the recommendation that the DIC Chair be a permanent member of the ASC Board. This has been suggested in the past. Members felt that the DIC is a unique division, and given the increase in international issues and activities being taken on by the ASC Board, the presence of the DIC Chair was seen as necessary.

Rosemary Barberet
Chair, Division of International Criminology

DIVISION ON CRITICAL CRIMINOLOGY

New officers for the DCC are as follows:

Chair: Walter DeKeseredy, Ohio University
Vice Chair: Claire Renzetti, St. Joseph’s University
Secretary-Treasurer: Jody Miller, University of Missouri-St. Louis
At Large Members: Meda Chesney-Lind, University of Hawaii at Manoa
David Friedrichs, University of Scranton
DIVISION NEWS

DIVISION ON CORRECTIONS AND SENTENCING

The Division on Corrections and Sentencing recognized Division award winners at its breakfast meeting in Atlanta. The honorees were Michael Tonry, Castine Research Corporation, Distinguished Researcher; Jeff Ulmer, Penn State, New Scholar; and Brian Johnson, Penn State, Best Student Paper.

The officer election was also held: Pamela K. Lattimore, Research Triangle Institute, was elected Chair; Patricia Van Voorhis, University of Cincinnati, was re-elected Vice Chair; and John Kramer, Penn State, was elected Executive Counselor. Doris MacKenzie, University of Maryland, is immediate Past Chair. Other officers whose terms continue until November 2002 are Steve Van Dine, Ohio Department of Correction, Secretary-Treasurer; Elaine Duxbury, California Youth Authority (retired) and Gerry Gaes, Federal Bureau of Prisons, Executive Counselors.

DIVISION ON WOMEN AND CRIME

The DWC had a very successful time in Atlanta! In addition to our always popular joint social held with the Division on People of Color and Crime, we had two productive business meetings. For readers of the ASC newsletter, please know that all current DWC members or curious/potential DWC members (including students) are most welcome to attend any of our business meetings. Moreover, these meetings defy the perceptions that (1) business meetings are boring, and (2) feminists don’t have a sense of humor! The meetings and social are great ways to meet new folks, too.

This month (November), Nancy Wonders stepped down after completing her two-year term as Division chair, and the incoming chair is Joanne Belknap. Nancy did a Herculean job with the Division over the past two years and we are grateful for her innovativeness, hard work, and dedication. Debra Stanley stays on as our Vice Chair. Drew Humphries and Nanci Koser Wilson stepped down after serving their two years on the Executive Committee and were replaced with Vernetta Young and Susan Sharp. Our new treasurer/secretary is Kim Cook, after Carolyn Block stepped down from her role as secretary for the past two years. This year’s DWC Division Award winners were Elizabeth Stank for the DWC Distinguished Scholar and Jody Miller for the DWC New Scholar.

The Division on Women and Crime is the largest division in the ASC and we are optimistic about further growth. We want to remind interested ASC members that you don’t have to be researching gender, girls/women, to be a member (nor do you have to be a woman). Rather, we want to advocate for feminist research and researchers, as well women’s and person’s of color leadership in the ASC. Ideally, we also hope to influence policy outside of the ASC meetings, for example, in the area of incarcerated women.
ASC ATLANTA 2001 HIGHLIGHTS

President C. Ronald Huff presenting the Edwin Sutherland Award to Professor Robert Sampson

Lynne Goodstein, Treasurer, and Doris L. MacKenzie, Executive Secretary, enjoying “scooping” at the Ice Cream Social

*****************************

FIRST CONFERENCE OF THE EUROPEAN SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY

by Josine Junger Tas
ESC President

When the European Society of Criminology was founded just over one year ago, one of its objectives was to organize annual meetings. The first one, on 6-8 September 2001 in Lausanne was more successful that we had anticipated. We had expected to have at that moment about 200 members and the same number of conference participants. However, the number of participants was 360, practically all of which are members, resulting in 5 plenaries with 13 presentations, 55 panels and a total of 227 papers. Attendants came from the UK, Germany, Netherlands, France, Italy, Spain, Sweden, Finland, Norway, Denmark, Belgium, Switzerland, Hungary, Austria, Poland, Greece, Slovenia, Croatia, Czechoslovakia, Ukraine, Russia, the US, Canada, Israel, South Africa and Japan. The president of the ASC, Ronald Huff, as well as the president of the BSC, Keith Bottomley were among those attending the conference. Both the spread and number of countries represented, as well as the unexpectedly high number of criminologists attending the conference, have shown how great there was a need for a European platform of Criminology, allowing both experienced and young, promising researchers to present their work.

The conference was opened in the usual way, but the provisional president and chair, Martin Killias, then gave the floor to ASC president Ron Huff. This was something of a surprise to the audience, but Ron Huff made a short, extremely nice talk, offering ASC support to the young Society and announcing that the ASC’s Sellin-Gluck Award of this year would be offered to Martin Killias. The conference itself was very successful, in particular because many of us discovered colleagues working in neighboring countries, who were unknown to us and presented quite interesting studies in similar fields as our own. I think that one of the main functions that the ESC conferences will have for the European research community will be to serve as a meeting point for European researchers. Also, there was a sizable US representation, many of which have had long standing contacts with researchers in different European countries. Although the official language of the ESC is English, we decided that there should be room for other-language presentations. As a consequence there were some presentations in French as there will no doubt be some in Spanish next year. Conference chair Martin Killias had taken great pains as he usually does - to organize a great after meeting program. The first night this consisted of a steamboat trip and dinner on Lake Geneva, the second night there was a banquet in the University restaurant, including classical music of a pianist and a singer and a speech of Norval Morris, receiver of the ASC Sutherland Award. Norval Morris, citizen of many countries, made a moving as well as elegant talk, emphasizing international collaboration and declaring his warm attachment to Europe.

Of course there were a number of errors and mistakes: abstracts got lost, panels were wrongly placed and there were long queues of participants who had not paid their dues beforehand. In addition we had not planned a lunch break: worse than a mistake, in Europe a crime! So we will make amends next year in Toledo.

I think this is the place and moment to express, in the name of the founders of the ESC and the organizers of the conference, that we are extremely grateful to the ASC, in particular to Chris Eskridge and Ron Huff, for all the assistance and support they have provided to help us realizing what we wanted to achieve.
CONTEMPORARY JUSTICE REVIEW

CALL FOR PAPERS

Symposium on Radical Criminology: Whatever Happened To It?

A decade ago, a goodly number of criminologists were offering a variety of alternative perspectives on crime and social harm that were considered to be "radical" in nature. Today, in comparison, we see relatively few in part because many of those who considered themselves radical have retired from active scholarship and writing.

But, at the same time, we see more than a few criminologists who regard themselves as radical having embraced highly abstract and non-accessible models of social life, opting to discuss issues of crime and punishment in arcane, abstruse language. Not only have many of the ideas discussed become ideas for a few, intellectual elites but they have also failed to engage many of those directly affected by violence--interpersonal and social structural--in a dialogue on meaningful social change.

In the meantime, some criminologists have begun to discuss issues of crime and punishment in terms of social justice, globalization, the environment, transnational economics, community justice, and restorative justice. But, even in some of these instances, scholars take a benevolent state for granted and do not question existing market economy networks that constrain people's lives oftentimes in the most deadly ways.

The editors of CJR are planning to put together a symposium of articles on the evolution or devolution of criminology in the 21st century. Is criminology being rejected by some, albeit slowly and subtly, as a formal field of study, its ideas, models, and questions increasingly viewed as the domain of the state and market economy? To what extent are the visions of criminologists being affected by the economics and generally changing nature of the university?

However these questions are responded to, authors might wish to discuss what models of crime, punishment, and justice are relevant for a society in which the needs of all are met, a society in which all are given the opportunity to enjoy each other's company? What are the visions of social life that promise to halt at least social structural violence in our lives?

Those seeking immediate clarification about the project can contact Editor-in-Chief, Dennis Sullivan (gezellig@global2000.net). Those wishing to contribute an article to the symposium should send the title and abstract of the proposed article to CJR Managing Editor by December 31, 2001:

Lisa Trubitt, Managing Editor
Contemporary Justice Review
School of Criminal Justice
University at Albany
135 Western Ave. Draper 222A
Albany, NY 12222
Tel: 518-442-4217 Fax: 518-442-5212
E-mail: trubitt@albany.edu

The authors of the articles selected for the symposium will be notified by January 15, 2002; completed articles will be due in the appropriate APA format by September 1, 2002.
CONTEMPORARY JUSTICE REVIEW

Call for Film Reviews

The editors of Contemporary Justice Review would like to invite its readers, scholars from all disciplines, activists, practitioners of justice, and others interested in issues of justice to submit film reviews for publication in the journal. Reviewers might select any film that deals with issues of justice defined in the broadest sense. This might include films that depict people having their rights, needs, and well-being denied by others—individuals, the state, and corporate institutions. It might also include films that demonstrate how people's needs are met and personal well-being fostered through alternative primary social institutions such as the family, school, and community. Authors might also wish to examine the oeuvre of a particular director, illustrating the extent to which that director's work contributes to a sense of justice as equality, human development, and personal well-being. Or several films might be compared for how they differentially depict people being marginalized and denied voice, or on the contrary, included and listened to. This might involve clarifying the effects of popular culture and the media on how we view certain aspects of justice as important and others not.

CJR has a keen interest in offering its readers insights into life portrayed in international films, especially those that bring to light the effects of globalization, oppressive regimes, and nation-state terrorism on the quality of life of individuals, families, schools, the workplace, and neighborhoods. With respect to harm, some of the reviews might deal with how a particular film casts some people as worthy victims—that is, people worthy of our attention—and others as not. Reviewers should keep in mind that the purpose of the reviews is not primarily to offer pedagogical tools to teachers but simply to clarify and expand upon particular aspects of justice within films. However, reviewers might choose to demonstrate how a particular film could be valuable to teachers for use in a classroom to illustrate a particular aspect of justice.

The length of reviews should be between 750 and 1500 words. Longer reviews will be considered from time to time as Review Essays. For additional information on review specifications, please contact Contemporary Justice Review Film Review Editor Julie Stump. Voorheesville Public Library, Voorheesville, New York 12186; Tel: 518-765-2791; E-mail: stumpj@uhls.lib.ny.us.

Search For Book Review Editor

The journal Contemporary Justice Review: Issues in Criminal, Social, and Restorative Justice is looking for an energetic scholar to serve as book review editor. The Book Review Editor is responsible for: (1) selecting and obtaining books for review that are consistent with the vision of the journal (this includes titles in all areas of justice but particularly criminal, social, restorative, and economic justice); (2) soliciting reviewers who are appropriate for reviewing specific titles; (3) editing manuscripts when needed; (4) working cordially with the editor-in-chief and associate editors; and (5) staying apprised generally of the publication of new titles relevant to the interests of the journal. Those interested in applying for this position should be prepared to make a commitment of at least two years. Immediate questions for clarification can be addressed to: Editor-in-Chief, Dennis Sullivan (gezellig@global2000.net) or Associate Editor, Javier Treviño (jtrevino@wheatonma.edu). Written statements of interest in the position should be sent, by January 31, 2002, to:

Lisa Trubitt, Managing Editor
Contemporary Justice Review
School of Criminal Justice
University at Albany
135 Western Ave. Draper 222A
Albany, NY 12222
Tel: (518) 442-4217 Fax: (518) 442-5212
E-mail: trubitt@albany.edu
University of Cambridge

Institute of Criminology

The Institute of Criminology, founded by the University of Cambridge in 1959, has a strong international reputation for academic excellence. The Institute has one of the world’s most distinguished senior faculties which includes Sir Anthony Bottoms, David Farrington, Michael Tonry, Per-Olof Wikström and Andrew von Hirsch. Its multi-disciplinary staff have backgrounds in criminology, sociology, psychiatry, psychology, philosophy, geography, history, and law.

Radzinowicz Library
The Institute’s Library is named after Sir Leon Radzinowicz, the first Director of the Institute, and has one of the world’s pre-eminent criminology research collections, including a wide selection of books, papers, periodicals and historical materials. The Library holds over 50,000 books and 18,000 pamphlets, receives nearly 300 periodicals and has an aggressive acquisitions policy.

The Institute offers a wide range of graduate programmes:
- M.Phil. Degrees in Criminology or Criminological Research (the largest full-time graduate criminology course in the UK)
- Ph.D. in Criminology
- Diploma/M.St in Applied Criminology and Police Studies
- Diploma/M.St in Applied Criminology and Prison Studies

Students come from around the world, with very strong undergraduate records in law, or social or behavioural science subjects, or extensive professional experience in the criminal justice system. The Institute admits approximately 40 M.Phil. students and 4-8 Ph.D. students each year. A number of awards and studentships are available from the University of Cambridge, including the recently established Gates Cambridge Scholarships for non-UK citizens, and other funding bodies:

For UK Students
- Arts and Humanities Research Board
- University of Cambridge
- Domestic Research Studentships
- Millennium Scholarships
- ESRC Studentships

For International Students
- Cambridge Commonwealth Trust
- Cambridge Overseas Trust
- Cambridge European Trust
- Gates Cambridge Trust
- Institute of Criminology
- Wakefield Scholarships
- Lopez-Rey Studentships

Further information is available from The Graduate Secretary, Institute of Criminology, University of Cambridge, 7 West Road, Cambridge, CB3 9DT, United Kingdom, telephone +44-1223-335363, facsimile +44-1223-335356, email graduate.secretary@crim.cam.ac.uk, web-site www.crim.cam.ac.uk, www.admin.cam.ac.uk/offices/gradstud/
RENEWAL NOTICE
2002 ASC MEMBERSHIP DUES
(JANUARY 1 - DECEMBER 31)

Please check the appropriate box below, and return this form and your check (in U.S. FUNDS or International Money Order) in the enclosed envelope, or Master Card and Visa accepted.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>TYPE OF MEMBERSHIP</th>
<th>MINORITY FELLOWSHIP</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>□ One Year ($70)</td>
<td>The ASC will provide a fellowship to a minority graduate student. Donations can</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>□ Three Year ($195)</td>
<td>be made along with membership dues. Please note the amount of your contribution</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>□ Life ($1,050) (15 times annually dues)</td>
<td>to the Minority Fellowship fund:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>□ Institutional ($250)</td>
<td>$</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>□ Partner/Spouse ($75)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(one set of publications)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>□ Student, full-time ($35)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>□ Student Partner/Spouse ($40)</td>
<td>(one set of publications)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>□ Retired ($40)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

DIVISION DUES
- Corrections & Sentencing ($10)
- Students ($5)
- Critical Criminology ($30)
- Students ($5)
- International Criminology ($10)
- Students ($5)
- People of Color and Crime ($10)
- Students ($5)
- Women & Crime ($10)
- Students ($5)

ASC membership required for Division membership.

Dues include subscriptions to CRIMINOLOGY: AN INTERDISCIPLINARY JOURNAL and THE CRIMINOLOGIST.
If active member dues are not paid by April 1, 2002, you will not be eligible to vote in the 2002 election of officers.

Name: ____________________________ Telephone ( ) ____________________________
Position or Title: ____________________________ Fax Number: ____________________________
Department: ____________________________ E-Mail Number: ____________________________
Institution/Agency: ____________________________
Business Address: ____________________________

______________________________ ________________
Home Address: ____________________________ Telephone ( ) ____________________________
______________________________ ________________
Zip + Four ____________________________

Please check the following:
Publication mailing address: □ Business □ Home
Membership Directory listing: □ Business □ Home □ Neither
Telephone listing: □ Business □ Home

Payment by credit card - MasterCard (MC) or VISA.
Please provide card number & expiration date.
M.C. ____________________________ exp. date ______
VISA ____________________________ exp. date ______
MARK YOUR CALENDAR
FUTURE ASC ANNUAL MEETING DATES

2002  November 13-16  Chicago
       Palmer House Hotel
2003  November 19-22  Denver
       Adams Mark Hotel
2004  November 17-20  Nashville
       DoubleTree Hotel
       Holiday Inn Crown Plaza
       Renaissance Nashville Hotel
2005  November 16-19  Toronto
       Royal York Hotel
2006  November 1-4   Los Angeles
       Hyatt Regency Los Angeles
2007  November 14-17  Atlanta
       Atlanta Marriott Marquis Hotel
       Atlanta Sheraton
2008  November 12-15  St. Louis
       Adams Mark Hotel
       Marriott Hotel

MAKE YOUR RESERVATIONS EARLY FOR CHICAGO

2002 ANNUAL MEETING

November 13-16, 2002
Palmer House Hilton Hotel

Phone Reservation: 312/726-7500
Fax Reservation: 312/917-1735

MAIN HOUSE
Single: $151; Double/Twin: $151
EXECUTIVE LEVEL
Single: $253; Double/Twin: $253
STUDIO ROOMS
Single: $120; Double: $125

Please be aware, to guarantee your room reservation, the Palmer House will charge your credit card for the first room night.

SUBMISSION DEADLINES
FOR
POSITION ANNOUNCEMENTS

January/February  Dec. 1
March/April     Feb. 1
May/June        Apr. 1
July/August     June 1
September/October  Aug. 1
November/December Oct. 1

PERIODICAL
POSTAGE PAID
COLUMBUS, OHIO

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY
1314 Kinnear Rd., Suite 212
Columbus, OH 43212-1156
ISSN 0164-0240