2002 ASC PROGRAM - CHICAGO

Lawrence W. Sherman, President
Christy A. Visher, Vice President

Dear Colleague:

We are writing to invite you to participate in the 2002 ASC Program in Chicago in several new and exciting ways. But we also want you to know that you can participate in the same way as in past years.

In keeping with the Program theme of “Re-Inventing Justice: Theories, Innovations and Research,” the Executive Council of ASC has approved some re-inventing of the program format by adding to, but not subtracting from, the established format. In addition to the usual panel sessions and round tables, we will also offer a Presidential Plenary Poster Session on Thursday evening at 6:00 pm with complimentary wine and cheese. Both of us will present our own work in this session, along with the members of the Program Committee. We will also invite unsolicited submissions of papers and completed panels for an unlimited number of Presidential Panel Sessions, a designation assigned to papers that demonstrate a high level of preparation by April 1.

In the spirit of empirical testing of innovations, we invite you to join with us in exploring these additional ideas for making the ASC program more interactive, more coherent, and more rewarding for both presenters and listeners in each session. Our hypothesis is that we will obtain those results by inviting everyone to participate in one or more of the following ways:

1. Same as Last Year. Anyone who submits an abstract for a panel session by April 1 to any member of the Program Committee will be assigned to the most relevant and coherent panel possible. In a modification of the original call for papers distributed at the Atlanta meetings, we have now set the April 1 date as the standard submission deadline for all participation in the Program. In an effort to enhance the intellectual coherence of these sessions, we have added three policies to the assignment of papers:

   a. The limit of one primary presentation is suspended for 2002. In the spirit of testing new approaches to the program, the ASC Executive Council has approved a one-year trial suspension of the rule that each participant may make only one presentation as the primary presenter. We leave that decision up to each participant, and we will assess the impact it has on the overall Program quality and availability of meeting rooms.
AROUND THE ASC

KITTY CALAVITA, University of California, Irvine, received the 2001 ASA Albert J. Reiss, Jr. Award for Distinguished Scholarly Publication (with Henry Calavita and Robert Tellman) for Big Money Crime: Fraud and Politics in the Savings and Loan Crisis.

DAN R. HOYT has joined the Sociology Department at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln where he will direct the Bureau of Sociological Research.

VALERIE JENNESS, University of California, Irvine, received the 2001 Lee-Founders Award from the Society for the Study of Social Problems in recognition of significant achievements, that over a distinguished career, have demonstrated a long-time devotion to the ideal of the founders of the SSSP.

b. We will add no papers to completed panels submitted by the presenters.
   If you and your two or three colleagues have a set of papers you want to present, the program committee will not add any other papers to your session. This will allow you to have as much time for questions and discussion as you wish.

c. You decide how to structure your own sessions. Completed sessions with as few as two papers and a discussant will be acceptable, in order to encourage more discussion and interaction in the sessions. Or you may offer one paper and three discussants, or two and two, you decide. We have no rule that says every panel must have three or four papers and a discussant.

2. Presidential Panel Sessions. Anyone who submits at least a five-page “preview” or excerpts of a paper by April 1 to any member of the Program Committee will be assigned to a Presidential Panel Session. This assignment is conditional on a peer review process that is expected to have a minimal rejection rate. Peer-review is intended merely to help make these sessions as strong as possible. We expect that most papers will be accepted without comment, but we reserve the right to ask for revisions and re-submissions. The standard to meet is simple: a clear research or discussion question, a clear method of analysis, and some preliminary results or conclusion. Any method of analysis is acceptable, including qualitative and philosophical analyses as well as quantitative papers. Papers returned for revision may, as an alternative, be included in regular panel sessions, at the discretion of the author.

   The five page previews may include any not necessarily all--of the following:
   • abstract
   • partial text e.g., introduction, literature review or hypotheses
   • references or bibliography
   • tables
   • graphs, charts or maps
   • theoretical models or diagrams
   • bullet points or outlines
   • pictures or cartoons to be used in the presentation

   We leave up to the presenter the best way to demonstrate that the paper meets the “clear and substantial effort” test that Presidential Panel Sessions are expected to meet. While we especially encourage pre-formed panels for these sessions, solo papers are welcomed. Graduate students in particular are encouraged to submit presentations for Presidential Panels. We will make every effort to group each solo submission with other relevant solo submissions, and will ask one of the presenters in each session formed this way to serve as panel chair. Presidential Panels will be scheduled for more attractive times and places on the program, in order to recognize the greater and earlier effort required to prepare the materials by April 1.

3. Presidential Plenary Poster Session. Anyone who submits a title of a poster session by April 1 will be assigned a place in the Thursday evening Presidential Plenary Poster Session. This session will have at least 50 participants from the Program Committee, including the President and Vice-President. Locations in the room for each presenter will be assigned at random, so that the audience will be encouraged to make the rounds of the entire session room over the 90 minutes. The session will be offered on Thursday night because that is the peak attendance point of most ASC Programs. Complimentary wine and cheese will be offered to all participants, based on empirical evidence that these substances have enhanced dialogue in poster sessions at other learned society meetings. Details for ASC poster session format may be found at www.asc41.com.

4. Round Tables. Anyone who submits a completed round table request by April 1, or a solo paper with a request for round table presentation, will be assigned as requested. Anyone who submits an abstract for a panel session after April 1 may be assigned to a round table.
Why Innovate? Some ASC members have asked us why we are making any changes in Program format. The answer is that many other ASC members have been asking for change for many years. These innovations reflect an extensive process of consultation among the various units within ASC, including representatives of the five Divisions. The innovations have the unanimous endorsement of the Association of Doctoral Programs in Criminology and Criminal Justice. Most ASC Program Chairs from recent years have also endorsed the innovations, saying that the previous system has posed many difficulties. Continuing with the old system can have enormous opportunity costs, costs which cannot even be estimated unless we test alternatives. Just as the criminal justice system can benefit from research that tests innovations based on normative and causal theories, so can the ASC program benefit.

Give us your assessment. In order to get the most out of this year's test of the innovations, the ASC needs you. Next November, after we complete the test, we encourage you to write to the Executive Director with your comments on the innovations. Our Constitution gives each year's ASC President wide latitude in choosing program themes, plenary sessions and formats. Future ASC presidents will be watching this test very carefully to see what effect it produces on the ability of the Society to accomplish its mission: to foster the advancement, dissemination and uses of knowledge in criminology. Many different indicators of this effect will be used, and comments from members must be an important part of any democratic deliberation. But the only way you can help us make this assessment is to participate in next year's program, as fully as possible. We strongly encourage you to offer both Presidential Panel papers and Presidential Plenary Poster Session presentations, and to organize others into pre-formed panels.

Theme and Plenary Sessions. Perhaps the best reason to come to Chicago is the theme of “Re-Inventing Justice: Theories, Innovations and Research.” In thematic plenaries on reinventing justice for victims, offenders and communities, leading criminologists from around the world will try to show how Beccaria's vision of criminology in the cause of greater justice can be extended today. Enlightenment criminology led to re-inventing justice around the world, including the spreading abolition of the death penalty. New criminological theories and research designs can do even more today to prevent crime and promote fairness.

In the words of Crosby, Stills and Nash, “Won't you please come to Chicago for the help that you can bring? We can change the world!”

Sincerely,

Lawrence W. Sherman, President
Christy A. Visher, Vice President

Biosocial Criminology
Introduction and Integration
Anthony Walsh

This book argues for the integration of a biosocial perspective into contemporary explanations of criminality. It shows how existing theories can be better understood, expanded and revised by the incorporation of relevant methodological, conceptual and theoretical insights from the biological sciences.

The first four chapters explain why criminology needs biology and describe the three major biosocial perspectives of human behavior (evolutionary psychology, behavior genetics and the neurosciences). The remainder of the book goes on to evaluate the propositions of traditionally dominant sociological theories, reflecting on how biosocial concepts and principles might be embraced and utilized. In-depth coverage is given to the differential association/social learning tradition, the social control/self-control tradition, the human ecology tradition, and critical and feminist theories. The final chapter summarizes the lessons of the book and offers a discussion of ethical concerns.

Family Violence and Criminal Justice
A Life-Course Approach
Brian K. Payne & Randy R. Gainey

The historical context of family violence is explored, as well as the various forms of violence, their prevalence in specific stages of life, and responses to family violence made by the criminal justice system and other agencies. The linkage among child abuse, partner violence, and elder abuse is scrutinized, and the usefulness of the life-course approach is couched in terms of its potential effect on policy implications; research methods that recognize the importance of life stages, trajectories, and transitions; and crime causation theories that can be enhanced by incorporating the life-course perspective. The book concludes with recommendations for future research and policy, and predictions regarding the future of family violence in the United States.
ACA Seeks Article Submissions for Peer-Reviewed Research Journal

Have you just completed a research study or scholarly essay that you think would be of interest to those in corrections? Corrections Compendium, the monthly journal of the American Correctional Association, is seeking submissions for upcoming issues. Its international readership includes individuals involved in various sectors of the corrections and criminal justice fields, including individuals employed in academia, correctional institutions and community corrections, to those in probation and parole and juvenile services. A leading peer-reviewed publication in the corrections field, Compendium welcomes you to submit your research-based papers for possible publication. We are open to submissions on all subjects — provided that they relate to corrections and adhere to standards of quality scholarship. A typical article is approximately 3,000 to 6,000 words, excluding references, endnotes, tables, charts, etc. All submissions are reviewed by members of our editorial advisory board. Articles must not have been published elsewhere or be under consideration by another publication. Do you think you may have just what we are looking for? If so, please send your article on an IBM-compatible disk in WordPerfect or Microsoft Word format, double spaced, with any tables or charts at the end of the copy, and accompanied by a hard copy to: Susan Clayton, Managing Editor, American Correctional Association, 4380 Forbes Boulevard, Lanham, MD 20706-4322; or e-mail it to: susanc@aca.org. Please remember to include your name, title, affiliation, address, daytime telephone number, fax number and e-mail address.

LAW AND SOCIAL INQUIRY

GRADUATE STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION

The editors of Law and Social Inquiry are pleased to announce a competition for the best journal-length paper in the field of sociolegal studies written by a graduate student. The winning paper will be published in Law and Social Inquiry and the author will receive a cash prize of $500.00. Submissions will be judged by the editorial board, and the winning submission will be internally reviewed for publication. The author must be a graduate student or law student at the time of submission. Entries should be received by March 1, 2002. The winner will be selected by May 1 and the prize will be awarded at the annual meeting of the Law and Society Association. Law and Social Inquiry publishes both empirical and theoretical studies of sociolegal processes from a variety of disciplinary perspectives. Please send your best work to: The Editors, Law and Social Inquiry, American Bar Foundation, 750 N. Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, IL 60611. For further information send e-mail to: Isi-afb@abfn.org, or call 312-988-6517.

JUSTICE POLICY JOURNAL: The Official Journal of the Justice Policy Institute
The purpose of the Justice Policy Journal is to provide a forum for the publication and discussion of current policy issues related to criminal and juvenile justice. The specific focus of the journal will be on the promulgation of innovative policy ideas and initiatives. Theoretical and historical approaches are encouraged, as long as these are related to current policy issues. Stipends of $500 will be provided for each article accepted for publication. The overall goal is to provide a professional venue to practitioners, researchers, policy makers and critics on current issues related to criminal and juvenile justice. Each issue will not only have scholarly articles, but also commentaries, news briefs and up-dates on current legislative initiatives. Article submissions should be provided on a disk or e-mail attachment. Include title page, abstract, institutional affiliation, brief biographical sketch and an e-mail address. Send the manuscript to: Dan Macallair, Justice Policy Journal, 1622 Folsom Street, San Francisco, CA 94103; 415-621-5661; journal@jcri.org Scholarly articles should not exceed 30 typed pages (double-space), excluding endnotes, references, tables, etc. An abstract of no more than 250 words must accompany the title page of all manuscripts submitted. We also encourage individuals to submit brief commentaries, reviews of current legislative initiatives, and news briefs. A stipend of $100 will be awarded for the publication of commentaries. The length of these reports may vary, but should not exceed five pages.
CALL FOR PAPERS

CRIMINAL JUSTICE: The International Journal of Policy and Practice
This is a peer-reviewed journal that will include scholarly articles that focus on the policy-making process, current criminal justice policies and practices, and the gap that sometimes exists between policy and practice. It will also include regular features on policy development and national practice initiatives and a book review section. For submission details, contact the following. Regarding papers from Europe, contact Tim Newburn (t.newburn@gold.ac.uk). Regarding papers from Australia, contact David Dixon (D.Dixon@unsw.edu.au). Regarding papers from the Americas, contact Martin D. Schwartz (schwartz@ohio.edu)

CRITICAL CRIMINOLOGY: AN INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL
This open call requests quality manuscripts pertaining to critical criminology in all its manifestations, including critical legal studies and social justice issues. We welcome qualitative and quantitative methodologies, including non-traditional approaches to data gathering and analysis. Papers should expose and oppose forms of domination that include class, gender, race/ethnicity and sexual orientation—especially their intersecting and interlocking nature. We encourage works that focus on creative and cooperative solutions to justice problems, plus strategies for the construction of a more inclusive society. All manuscripts are subject to peer review. Papers should be 4,000 to 6,000 words (including tables, illustrations, notes and references) and framed in a manner that would be of interest to an international audience. Book reviews are also welcome and shorter research notes (3,000 words) will be considered for publication. Submissions not from North America or Europe are welcome and can be sent to any editor.

European/Continental Editor: Jock Young, Centre for Criminology, Middlesex University, Queensway, Enfield EN3 4SF, United Kingdom - j.young@mdx.ac.uk
North American Editor: Paul Leighton, Dept. of Sociology, Anthropology & Criminology, 712 Pray Harrold, Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, MI 48197 - paul@stopviolence.com

JOURNAL OF CRIME AND JUSTICE
The Journal of Crime and Justice, the official publication of the Midwestern Criminal Justice Association, is a biannual peer-reviewed journal dedicated to the presentation of original empirical works and theoretical commentaries relevant to criminal and social justice. Both quantitative and qualitative pieces are solicited on a broad range of crime and justice related topics. The manuscript should not exceed 30 pages (including tables and references) and must be in APA style and double-spaced. An abstract of no more than 200 words and a $10.00 submission fee (payable to MCJA) must also be included. Send to: J. Mitchell Miller, Editor, Currell College of Criminal Justice, University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC 29208. Correspondence to: Hololy Ventura, Graduate Editorial Assistant, University of South Carolina. Email: ventura@gwm.sc.edu FAX 803-7770108.

CRIME, LAW AND SOCIAL CHANGE: An International Journal
Crime, Law and Social Change is a peer-reviewed journal that publishes essays and reviews dealing with the political economy of organized crime whether at the transnational, national, regional or local levels anywhere in the world. In addition, the Journal publishes work on financial crime, political corruption, environmental crime, and the expropriation of resources from developing nations. The Journal is also committed to publishing in the general area of Human Rights including studies of genocide, essays of compensation and justice for survivors of mass murder and state-sponsored terrorism, analyses of international human rights organizations (both governmental and NGO’s), and essays focused on gender, racial and ethnic quality. Crime, Law and Social Change invites scholars from all disciplines to submit book reviews. The Journal recently expanded its book review section, and will work with scholars to match their research interests with books we have received for review. Furthermore, Crime, Law and Social Change will, on occasion, solicit books from publishers at the request of prospective authors. Young scholars looking for publishing opportunities are also encouraged to submit reviews. For further information, please contact Sean Patrick Griffin, Book Review Editor, Crime, Law and Social Change, 134 Brackett Hall, Clemson, SC 29634-1356, USA, (864) 656-3814, griff@clemson.edu.

JOURNAL OF QUANTITATIVE CRIMINOLOGY
The Journal of Quantitative Criminology invites ASC members to submit their research to the journal. JQC publishes papers that use quantitative techniques to address substantive, methodological, or evaluative topics in criminology and criminal justice. While some articles are at the forefront of quantitative methodology, others apply familiar methods to substantively important topics. The Journal emphasizes the use of sound quantitative methods, not methodological sophistication for its own sake. Persons interested in submitting their work to JQC should send four copies of their manuscript to: Journal of Quantitative Criminology, School of Criminal Justice, University at Albany, State University of New York, Albany, NY 12222. Style guidelines and a sample copy are available at the Journal's web site: www.wkap.nl/journalhome.htm/0748-4518

POLICE PRACTICE AND RESEARCH: An International Journal
Manuscripts are solicited for Police Practice and Research: An International Journal, which is published in four issues per volume. The journal presents current and innovative police research, as well as operational and administrative practices from around the world. Articles and reports are sought from practitioners, researchers, and other interested in developments in policing, analysis of public order, and the state of safety as it affects the quality of life everywhere.

The Journal seeks to bridge the gap in knowledge that exists regarding who the police are, what they do, and how they maintain order, administer laws, and serve their communities. Attention is also focused on specific organizational information about the police in different countries and regions, and periodic special issues are devoted to studying police policies and practices regarding a particular topic or issue.

The editors aim to improve cooperation between those who are active in the field and those who are involved in academic research, as such a relationship is essential for innovative police work. To this end, the editors encourage the submission of articles co-authored by police practitioners and researchers that highlights a particular subject from both points of view.

Submission of Manuscripts
Manuscripts should be no more than 30 typed, double-spaced pages with text presented on one side of paper in English. The manuscripts should be accompanied by an abstract of no more than 100 words, up to six key words, and a brief biographical sketch. For a complete Notes for Contributors, contact: Arvind Verma, Managing Editor, Department of Criminal Justice, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47405, USA, or any other member of the Journal team.

THE JUSTICE PROFESSIONAL
The Justice Professional is a refereed journal published quarterly by Thomas & Franklin. It is housed at the C.W. Post Campus of Long Island University, Department of Criminal Justice. The Justice Professional publishes articles that deal with substantive criminal justice and criminological issues, inviting both qualitative and quantifiable papers. We welcome all articles relevant to areas of criminal justice as well as areas such as public administration and public affairs. Literature reviews, summary reports of innovative research projects, and research notes are all considered. MANUSCRIPTS: Typewritten, double-spaced manuscripts must be submitted in quadruplicate to: Roslym Muraskin, Ph.D. Editor, THE JUSTICE PROFESSIONAL, Dept. of Criminal Justice, C.W. Post Campus-Long Island University. 720 Northern Blvd., Post Hall 3C3, Brookville, NY 11548.
An abstract of not more than 100 words, as well as a brief biographical statement describing the authors' current affiliation and rank should accompany the manuscript along with the article on disk in Word. THE JUSTICE PROFESSIONAL regards submission to the journal as commitment to publish herein. Permission for use of copyright materials is the responsibility of the author. Manuscripts should not exceed 20 typewritten double spaced-pages. All footnotes, references, tables, figures and illustration must be camera ready on an eight and one half by eleven wide paper. Footnotes and bibliographic citations must follow the journal style based upon that followed by the American Psychological Association (APA). Since manuscripts are sent out anonymously for editorial evaluation, the authors' name should appear on a separate cover sheet. INQUIRIES: 516/299-3146 (phone); 516/299-2640 Fax; muraskin@liu.edu

JOURNAL OF ETHNICITY IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE
The Journal of Ethnicity and Criminal Justice is affiliated with the Minorities and Women of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences. The first issue will be published in spring 2002. This unique multidisciplinary journal will be the only publication that focuses exclusively on crime, criminal justice, and ethnicity. As a peer-reviewed journal, we encourage critical analyses of ethnicity and criminal justice; empirical data on criminal justice and ethnicity; international and cross-cultural perspectives of ethnicity and criminal justice, and articles that explore the broad themes of ethnicity and criminal justice and advance theory, research, and policy in these areas. Four copies of the manuscript should be submitted. The manuscript should be approximately 15-20 pages double-spaced with a one-inch margin on all four sides and should include an abstract of 100 words, a title page, and a brief biographical sketch of author(s). References, citations, and general style of manuscripts should follow the Chicago style (as outlined in the latest edition of the Manual of Style of the University of Chicago Press). References should be double-spaced and placed in alphabetical order. Send all requests and manuscripts to: Dr. Janice Joseph, Editor, Journal of Ethnicity and Criminal Justice, Criminal Justice Program, Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, Jim Leeds Road, Pomona, NJ 08240

HOMICIDE: AN INTERDISCIPLINARY AND INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL
Thomas A. Petee, Auburn University, and Jay Corzine, University of Central Florida, have been appointed as Co-Editors of Homicide: An Interdisciplinary and International Journal for a six-year term, beginning August 1, 2001. For the first three years, the journal's editorial office will be located at Auburn University; the office will move to the University of Central Florida for the second three years. Authors should submit manuscripts in triplicate to: Thomas A. Petee, Co-Editor, Department of Sociology, 7030 Haley Center, Auburn University, Auburn, AL 36840-5209/. Phone 334/844-5018 or 844-2821; fax 334-844-2851; email: peteeta@mail.auburn.edu
Homicide Studies is a publication dedicated to the dissemination of empirical research addressing issues pertinent to the study of homicide. Submissions for review should be empirically based, using quantitative or qualitative methods. Theoretical papers, research summaries and public policy reviews are also welcomed.

PRAEGER SERIES ON CRIMINAL JUSTICE, DELINQUENCY, AND CORRECTIONS
Book: Racial Issues in Criminal Justice: The Case of African Americans
Marvin D. Free, Jr., will be editing a book of readings for the Praeger Series. He will consider both qualitative as well as quantitative works that examine racial issues using a critical perspective. He has set up a website for prospective contributors to visit (http://facstaff.uww.edu/freeem).

BRITISH SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY CONFERENCE
"Crossing Borders"
July 17-20, 2002 - Keele University

The conference will be 'Crossing Boders' through a variety of topical streams, and the organizers invite creative proposals for presentations and discussion. We would like to receive proposals for themed sessions, for round-table discussions, book discussions, poster sessions and postgraduate sessions. European and international perspectives will be particularly welcomed. We invite European and International research groups, networks, and projects to take advantage of the site and topic to convene their partners at the conference.

The organizers are offering two Pre-conference Workshops on Tuesday, July 16: 'Doing Restorative Justice: Practice and Research' and 'Criminology Meets the Media'. Both workshops will provide training opportunities.

The beautiful rural campus of Keele University has been voted 'Best UK Academic Conference Venue' for the past three years in the prestigious MIT awards and will provide an attractive location for a stimulating and exciting conference experience. All information on the programme, proposals and registration for the conference and the pre-conference workshops can be found on the conference website: http://www.keele.ac.uk/depts/cr/bsc/. Forms for proposals and registration will be available at this site. For further information, inquiries and suggestions please contact the conference administrator: SIAN PAYNE, BSC202@keele.ac.uk – or – SUSANNE KARSTEDT, S.karstedt@crim.keele.ac.uk. SENTENCING & SOCIETY: SECOND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
Strathclyde University, Glasgow - June 27-29, 2002

The aim of the International Conference is to bring together those working in the area of sentencing and punishment, whether as scholars and researches, judges and practitioners or policy makers to exchange ideas, and develop knowledge and debate. As well as well-established areas of study (such as the politics of sentencing reform; effectiveness; disparity etc.), the international conference organisers also welcome papers developing newer areas of socio-legal interest (such as the social history of punishment, restorative justice, the use of IT, judicial education, organisational perspectives etc).

Strathclyde’s Centre for Sentencing Research organised and hosted The First International Conference on Sentencing & Society in 1999, which attracted over 130 delegates from over 15 countries: a mix of researchers, senior policymakers, and senior practitioners. The organisers warmly welcome papers and participation from all those concerned with the study of sentencing and society.

Contact: Neil Hutton OR Cyrus Tata, Centre for Sentencing Research, Law School, Strathclyde University, Glasgow, G4 0RQ. E-mail: Cyrus.Tata@strath.ac.uk OR n.hutton@strath.ac.uk OR click on www.law.strath.ac.uk/CSR.
CALL FOR PAPERS

TEACHING ABOUT SEPTEMBER 11TH

In the aftermath of September 11th, the U.S. media launched a relentless search for information about the nineteen men who committed the suicide bombings. Reporters scrambled for details about the places the killers came from, and the ideas and beliefs that could possibly drive these men to sacrifice their own lives for the chance to massacre ordinary Americans. The country focused on two basic questions: “What is Islam?” and “Why Do They Hate Us?” Adding to the shock of thousands of violent deaths was the alarming fact that people who so passionately want us dead belong to nations and groups that most Americans have never heard of. Americans are generally uniformed about the world beyond our borders, even when our own government is playing a key role in those events. American educators must now help provide resources for exploring a wide range of issues that are suddenly (and rightfully) so important; blissful ignorance is no longer an option.

Concerns about terrorism, religion, national security, trauma, and the Middle East call for interdisciplinary study. Many disciplines have something to offer and we all have something to learn from others. The goal of this pamphlet is to address that need by presenting course descriptions, syllabi, learning activities, and other teaching materials relevant to understanding September 11th. This includes historical, sociological, criminological, cultural, and geographical perspectives on the attack, as well as domestic security, economics, humanities, political science, and women’s studies perspectives. We have created a website, StopViolence, that can be used as a companion to the pamphlet to facilitate use of the vast internet.

Please submit syllabi, reading lists, learning activities, suggested videos, websites or helpful ideas to either of the editors below. We are open to a wide variety of topics, organized around the following areas:

* Hate Crime and Terrorism (including violence, prejudice, and genocide)

* Domestic Preparedness (including bioterrorism and airline security)

* Middle East, Afghanistan, Islam and Anti-American Sentiment

* Civil Rights in a Time of Terrorism and Crisis

* International Law, Courts, and Global Policing

Tentative due date for submissions is February 15, 2002. The pamphlet will be published and distributed free of charge by Anderson Publishing Company during the summer of 2002.

ASC STUDENTS

CALL FOR ENTRIES

2002 ASC GENE CARTE STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION

We invite participation in The American Society of Criminology Gene Carte Student Paper Competition. These awards are given to recognize outstanding scholarly work of students. Following are the procedures for the 2002 competition.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

Any student currently enrolled on a full-time basis in an academic program at either the undergraduate or graduate level. Persons who are previous first place prize winners of this competition are ineligible.

SPECIFICATIONS FOR PAPERS

No paper may be submitted to more than one ASC student competition for the same year. Any paper that has previously won any prize in any ASC competition is ineligible for submission to another ASC competition. Papers may be conceptual and/or empirical but must be directly related to criminology. Papers must be typewritten, double-spaced on 8-1/2 x 11 white paper, and no longer than 7,500 words. The CRIMINOLOGY format for the organization of text, citations and references should be used. Authors' names, departments and advisors (optional) must appear ONLY on the title page, since papers will be evaluated anonymously. The next page of the manuscript should include the title and a 100-word abstract. The author must submit EIGHT copies of the manuscript, accompanied by a letter indicating the author's enrollment status and co-signed by the dean, department chair or program director.

DEADLINE

Papers must be submitted with a postmark on or before April 15, 2002 to:

NANCY WONDERS
Department of Criminal Justice
Northern Arizona University
P.O. Box 15005, Building 65
Flagstaff, AZ 86011-5005
520/523-6336  520/523-8011 FAX
nancy.wonders@nau.edu

PROCEDURES FOR JUDGING ENTRIES

The Student Awards Committee will rate entries according to criteria such as the quality of the conceptualization, significance of the topic, clarity and aptness of methods, quality of the writing, command of relevant work in the field, and contribution to criminology. The Committee's award determinations will be final.

AWARDS

The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place papers will be awarded prizes of $500, $300, and $200, respectively and will be eligible for presentation at the 2002 meeting of The American Society of Criminology in Chicago, Illinois, November 13-16, 2002. The 1st place winner also will be granted a travel award to the meeting. The Committee may decide that no entry is of sufficient quality to declare a winner. Fewer than three awards may be given. Prize-winning students will be acknowledged at the Annual Meeting Awards Ceremony.

NOTIFICATION OF AWARDS

The author(s) of entries selected by the judges for awards will be notified in writing by August 1, 2002.
MICHAEL J. HINDELANG AWARD

For the Most Outstanding Contribution to Criminology

Nominations for 2002

The American Society of Criminology has established the Michael J. Hindelang Award, to be given annually for book/published during the previous two to three years that makes the most outstanding contribution to research in criminology.

To be considered, books may be submitted by individuals, publishers, or institutions. The Committee will not consider anthologies and/or edited volumes. The Award will be presented during the annual meeting of the Society. The Executive Board may decide not to give the Award in a given year.

The Award Committee is soliciting nominations for the Michael J. Hindelang Award. To nominate a book, please send the title of the book, its authors, the publishers, the year of the publication, and a brief discussion of your reasons for the recommendation to the Award Committee.

The deadline for receiving nominations is March 15, 2002. Send your nominations to:

FELLOWSHIPS AVAILABLE
University of New Hampshire, Durham

The University of New Hampshire Family Research Laboratory (FRL) has fellowships for research on family violence available beginning immediately. Applicants interested in starting dates beyond June, 2002 may apply pending funding from sponsor. These NIMH-funded positions are open to new and experienced researchers with doctorates in the fields of psychology, sociology, social work, law, nursing, public health and medicine. The fellowships are intended for work in the area of child abuse, marital violence, elder abuse, sexual abuse, child victimization, rape, homicide and other family-violence related topics with special attention to mental health impact. Scholars use the one-year fellowships (with possible one-year extension) to collaborate with FRL faculty on a current project, to work on one of the many data sets archived at the FRL or, in the case of senior candidates, to work on their own projects.

Fellows must be able to reside within commuting distance to UNH (one and a half hours from Boston). Annual stipends run from $26,916 to $42,300 depending upon the number of years since receipt of doctorate. Applications from scholars with backgrounds in developmental or cognitive psychology, or interests in family violence in minority families, or families of persons with disabilities are particularly encouraged. Applications (FRL application form required from website (www.unh.edu/frl) letter of interest, curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation and publications or work sample) will be accepted beginning immediately. For more information, contact David Finkelhor, Co-Director, Family Research Laboratory (603) 862-1888; email: david.finkelhor@unh.edu. Complete applications should be sent to Program Administrator, Family Research Laboratory, University of New Hampshire, 126 Horton SSC, Durham, NH 03824.
National Institute of Justice — Data Resources Program

Annual Workshop on Criminal Justice Data at ICPSR, University of Michigan

June 17–21, 2002

This one-week workshop focuses on a topical area of criminal justice and examines the most important datasets in that area. Lectures are given by guest speakers, often the investigators who originally collected the data. Participants are given the opportunity to explore datasets being discussed and to review many of the major methodological and statistical issues that arise when using the data. Past topics have included recidivism data, police data, violence, community context of crime, longitudinal data, the impact of sanctions on crime, women and crime, and prisoner reentry. The topic for the 2002 program is under review.

Social scientists and researchers from colleges and universities, nonprofit organizations, and government agencies are eligible to participate in this workshop. Enrollment will be limited to no more than 20 participants, selected on the basis of their interests in the topical area, prior methodological training, and potential for research contributions to the topical area.

Interested applicants should request application materials from the Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR) or obtain them from the ICPSR Web site at http://www.icpsr.umich.edu/sumprog in early 2002. The National Institute of Justice will provide stipend support to offset transportation and per diem expenses for enrolled participants. The workshop is offered as part of the ICPSR Summer Training Program in Quantitative Methods. Participants may apply for other courses in the program at their own expense.

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY
Annual Meeting 2002
CALL FOR PAPERS
Chicago, Illinois
November 13-16, Palmer House Hilton Hotel

THEME: RE-INVENTING JUSTICE:
Theories, Innovations and Research

William S. Laufer, University of Pennsylvania, Program Chair
Ellen G. Cohn, Florida International University, Program Co-Chair

The 2002 Annual Meeting of the American Society of Criminology will be held from Wednesday, November 13 through Saturday, November 16, 2002. The 2002 Program solicits papers for presentation in six broadly-defined areas:

-- Theories of Crimes, Criminality and Justice--both normative and empirical
-- Innovations and Experiments in Justice and in Crime Prevention
-- Types of Crime, Victims and Offenders
-- Crime and Justice Over the Life Course
-- Crime and Justice in Social Settings
-- What We Do and Don’t Know: Systematic Reviews and Methods

All submissions for papers presented are due by April 1, for four types of sessions:

1. Presidential Plenary Poster Session, based on title and abstract
2. Presidential Panel Sessions, based on peer-reviewed 5-page “previews”
3. Panel Session papers, based on a title and abstract
4. Round Tables, based on title and abstract

Panel session papers will not be peer-reviewed. Only papers presented to the new, experimental "Presidential" panel sessions will be peer-reviewed, based on a five-page “preview” of the research question or normative argument, research design or data analysis, theoretical model or other evidence of the substance of the presentation. All submissions by the April 1 deadline are guaranteed a program listing. Panels organized by presenters will be listed exactly as received, with no additions made by the Program Committee. For this year only, there is no limit on the number of papers each individual may present. Submissions for any format of paper presentation may be sent to any member of the Program Committee listed below, or directly to the Program Co-Chairs at

ASC 2002 Program Committee
Lee Center of Criminology, Fels Building
University of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia PA 19104
lauferw@wharton.upenn.edu
Presidential Plenary Poster Session. This session will be held on Thursday, November 14 from 6:00 to 7:30 pm with complimentary wine and cheese. It will include presentations by distinguished scholars recruited by the Program Committee, as well as by anyone who submits an abstract by the deadline. Poster sessions should display data, policy analyses or theoretical work in a visually appealing recommended poster format to encourage more interactive communication (see www.asc41.com for details). Authors should submit a title and abstract by April 1, 2002.

Presidential Panel Sessions will feature papers that have demonstrated substantial preparation, although not completion, by April 1. A five-page “preview” of Presidential Panel papers should be submitted by April 1, 2002, in whatever form is appropriate for the substance of the paper, such as the research question or normative argument, research design or data analysis, theoretical models, or other evidence of the substance of the presentation. Each preview will be reviewed by one or more members of the Program Committee. Papers not accepted for research panels will be returned to authors for revision and re-review, or assigned to regular panel sessions, at the discretion of the author.

All participants are encouraged to submit proposals for entire Presidential Panel Sessions, focused on a specific topic, theme or issue. The Program Committee will not alter or add presenters to participant-formed panels accepted for presentation. All accepted five-page previews submitted by individuals will be combined with other relevant papers into Committee-formed Presidential Panel Sessions. In order to encourage more interaction with session audiences, we suggest that each panel contain no more than four papers or three papers and a discussant for the 90 minute session.

Panel Sessions for presenting papers will follow the same format as the Presidential Panel Sessions. The only differences between the two types of session are in the depth of material to be submitted by April 1 and the times and days the sessions will be scheduled. Panel sessions will be scheduled in all time slots during the ASC meetings, and will require only the submission of an abstract and title by April 1. Participants are encouraged to submit proposals for entire panel sessions focused on a specific topic, theme or issue. The Program Committee will not alter or add presenters to Participant-Formed Panel Sessions.

Round Tables will be the venue for all papers submitted after April 1, 2002, but may also be the authors’ venue of choice for submissions at any time. Round Tables will consist of three to five presenters on related topics organized either by the Program Committee or by participants in Participant-Formed Round Tables. Submissions should include an abstract and title.

Any and all submissions may be sent to one, and only one, member of the Program Committee. Please do not submit the same paper to more than one committee member. Please direct questions about the program format to the Program Committee Chair or Co-Chair at the following email addresses:

Quantitative Analysis of Crime and Criminal Justice Seminar
June 24–July 19

Part of the ICPSR Summer Program, this four-week seminar will introduce participants to major surveys sponsored by the Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS), which are part of the holdings of ICPSR’s National Archive of Criminal Justice Data. The instructor and various guest speakers will focus on innovative applications of survey methods and incident-based data in criminal justice. Each participant will also design and conduct a quantitative research project. Enrollment will be limited to ten, and preference will be given to postdoctoral scholars who have prior methodological training. Applicants must show evidence of an intellectual interest and commitment to this substantive area and should include vitas with their applications. Stipend support for those admitted will be provided by BJS.

A Gateway to Knowledge: The ICPSR Summer Program in Quantitative Methods of Social Research

First session: June 24–July 19, 2002
Second session: July 22–August 16, 2002

More About Seminars at the ICPSR Summer Program

The ICPSR Summer Program is a comprehensive, integrated program of studies in research design, statistics, data analysis, and social methodology. Typical four-week courses include offerings on Dynamic and Longitudinal Analysis, Regression Analysis, Dimensional Analysis, Time Series, Analysis of Variance, "LISREL"-Type Models, Categorical Analysis, and Rational Choice. In addition, special workshops oriented toward specific datasets are offered in the curriculum. These include Quantitative Historical Analysis and The Study of Aging. Also, one-week workshops are conducted on advanced statistical topics such as Logit and Log-Linear Models, Spatial Analysis, Social Science Data Services, Network Analysis, and Hierarchical Linear Models.

The Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR) is part of the Institute for Social Research at the University of Michigan. For more information, contact:

NOMINATIONS FOR ASC FELLOWS

The ASC Fellows Committee invites nominations for Fellows in the Society. This title is available to those members of the Society in good standing who have achieved distinction in criminology. The last meeting of the ASC Executive Board approved the following clarification of this distinction: "The honorary title "Fellow" recognizes persons who have made a scholarly contribution to the intellectual life of the discipline, whether in the form of a singular, major piece of scholarship or cumulative scholarly contributions. Longevity alone is not sufficient. In addition, a Fellow must have made a significant contribution to the field through the career development of other criminologists and/or through organizational activities within the ASC."

The names of those who have been awarded the Fellow status will be announced at the 2002 Annual Meeting and the candidates will be acknowledged by the Society with the presentation of a Certificate.

In your nominating letter, please describe the reasons for your nomination and include a copy of the nominees curriculum vitae (or make arrangements to have it sent to the Committee). All materials should be received by March 1, 2002 to:

ATENTION MEMBERS

MEMBERS’ NEW BOOKS

A new section is being added to the newsletter entitled "Members’ New Books”. We would appreciate you sending the name, date and publisher of your new book that has recently been published or shortly will be. You may email this information to the ASC office at: asc41@infinet.com

Ted Palmer has recently completed Individualized Intervention With Young Multiple Offenders (Routledge, New York and London; 1,173 pages). Due to circumstances and sudden time-constraints resulting from the September 11, 2001 attack, the book had to be printed without an Index. For a free copy of the soon-to-be-completed Index, and also of an Errata, please write to: Dr. Ted Palmer, 1908 12th Avenue, Sacramento, CA 95818.

NEW EDITOR SOUGHT

FOR

CRIMINOLOGY

The American Society of Criminology invites applications for the position of Editor of CRIMINOLOGY, one of its official journals. The new Editor will be responsible for three volumes beginning with the February, 2004 issue. It is anticipated that manuscript submissions will transfer to the new Editor during the spring of 2003.

In addition to supervising the peer review process and selecting articles for publication, the Editor is responsible for the production of the journal. The American Society of Criminology now pays for copy editing, printing, and mailing of the journal and for a one-half time managing editor. The Editor's supporting institution normally provides office space, file storage, equipment, and funds to cover office expenses such as postage and phone for editorial correspondence, copying, graduate student assistance, and release time for the Editor. Supporting institutions may propose to assume some of the expenses now provided by the ASC. ASC will provide a $5,000 honorarium to the Editor each year.

Application materials should include (1) a statement of editorial philosophy, (2) resumes of all proposed personnel, including the Editor, Managing Editor, Copy Editor, and Associate Editors, and (3) assurances and details of institutional support.

Interested applicants may contact the current Editor, Robert Bursik (314-516-6644) for additional information regarding the logistics or operational details of editing and producing the journal. Applicants are also encouraged to call Christy Visher, Chair, ASC Editorial Board, to discuss their applications before submission.

Applications (ten copies) should be sent to:

Christy A. Visher
Chair, ASC Editorial Board
The Urban Institute
Justice Policy Center
2100 M Street, NW
Washington, DC 20037

They must be received by May 15, 2002.
AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY

ELIGIBILITY:

The Fellowship is designed to encourage African American, Asian American, Latino, and Native American students to enter the field of criminology and criminal justice. Applicants need not be members of the American Society of Criminology. Individuals studying criminology or criminal justice issues are encouraged to apply. The recipient or recipients of the Fellowship must be accepted into a program of doctoral studies.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:

A complete application package must be received no later than March 1, 2002. A complete application must contain (1) up-to-date curriculum vita; (2) indication of race or ethnicity; (3) copies of undergraduate and graduate transcripts; (4) statement of need and prospects for financial assistance for graduate study; (5) a letter describing career plans, salient experiences, and nature of interest in criminology and criminal justice; and (6) three letters of reference.

NOTIFICATION:

Award(s) will be made by June 1, 2002.

Applications should be sent to:

Sarah Hall, Administrator
American Society of Criminology
1314 Kinnear Road, Suite 212
Columbus, Ohio 43212-1156

The Society reserves the right not to award the Fellowship.
POSITION ANNOUNCEMENTS
THE CRIMINOLOGIST will regularly feature in these columns position vacancies available in organizations and universities, as well as positions sought by members of the Society.

A charge of $150.00 with the absolute maximum of 250 words allowed will be made. The position announcement will also appear on the ASC website: www.asc41.com. A charge of $75.00 will be charged to institutional members of ASC to place a position announcement in the newsletter and on the ASC website.

It is the policy of the ASC to publish position vacancies announcements only from those institutions or agencies which subscribe to equal education and employment opportunities and those which encourage women and minorities to apply.

Institutions should indicate the deadline for the submission of application materials. The Professional Employment Exchange will be a regular feature at each Annual Meeting. Prospective employers and employees should register with the Society no later than three weeks prior to the Annual Meeting of the Society. Appropriate forms may be obtained by writing to the ASC offices in Columbus, Ohio.
To place announcements in THE CRIMINOLOGIST, send all material to: Sarah Hall, ASC, 1314 Kinnear Road, Suite 212, Columbus, OH 43212-1156. Telephone (614) 292-9207, Fax (614) 292-6767.

GEORGE MASON UNIVERSITY
TWO POST-DOKTORAL RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS-DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY
I am seeking two post-doctoral fellows to collaborate on research examining clinical, social, and developmental aspects of moral emotions (shame, guilt, and empathy). (1) An NSF-funded position supports continued work on our longitudinal family study of moral emotions and behavioral adjustment (drug, alcohol use, safe sex, arrests and convictions, driving record, community service involvement, etc.). Of special interest are candidates who have experience with complex longitudinal data sets and a strong background in developmental theory. (2) A NIDA-funded position supports work on a longitudinal study of criminal recidivism and HIV-risk behaviors, focusing on offenders' moral emotions and moral reasoning in addition to established predictors of rehabilitation and reoffense. Of special interest are candidates who have strong quantitative skills and experience working with offender populations. For both positions, an interest in the interface between behavioral research and public policy would be a real plus. The term of the NSF-post doctoral fellowship is 1 year, with the possibility of renewal. The term of the NIDA-post doctoral fellowship is open. A review of applications will begin on December 17, 2001 and continue until the position is filled. Both positions are available immediately. Please submit a curriculum vita, statement of interests and research, and the names and contact information of three references to: June Tangney, jtangney@gmu.edu, Department of Psychology, MSN 3F5, George Mason University, Fairfax, VA 22030. UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA
The Department of Criminal Justice in the College of Arts and Sciences seeks a chairperson (tenure track, associate/full) beginning in the Fall 2002 semester. The Department presently has seven faculty, approximately 200 undergraduate majors and approximately 25 masters students. The new chairperson will lead a priority project to develop a new track in Sociology within an expanded Department of Criminal Justice and Sociology. The new Sociology major will draw on the strengths of existing faculty and have concentrations in criminology, deviance, and social organization. Preference will be given to applicants with a doctoral degree in sociology, criminal justice, or criminology, but outstanding candidates with degrees in related fields who have publication records with a criminal justice or criminology focus will be considered. We seek applicants who have demonstrated substantial productivity in research and teaching with administrative experience. We are a diverse and interdisciplinary group of scholars so the new chair should value an applied focus in the new department. The search will continue until an outstanding applicant is identified and committed to the University. Information about our department can be found at http://bama.ua.edu/~bamaj/. The University of Alabama is committed to diversity and to equal opportunity for all, thus applications from women, minority, and challenged scholars are actively sought. Applications and inquiries can be directed to: Chair, Search Committee, University of Alabama, Department of Criminal Justice, P.O. Box 870320, Tuscaloosa, AL 35487-0320. 205/348-7795.

Assistant PROFESSOR of CRIMINAL JUSTICE
Two Faculty Positions
Marist College
www.marist.edu

Marist College invites applications for two tenure-track positions at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor of Criminal Justice, beginning Fall 2002. The criminal justice program offers the undergraduate degree, a dual degree in criminal justice and psychology, and a five-year program for the BS in criminal justice and the MPA from the School of Management. The program is noted for its strong theoretical foundation combined with sophisticated practica assignments. The program enjoys the respect of the broader criminal justice community. The program is in the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences along with psychology, teacher certification, and social work.

The successful candidates will have a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, Criminology or other related field. College level teaching experience is strongly preferred. Scholarship, activity, student advisement, and service to the College, students and the community is expected. One position will be filled by a generalist in criminal justice who will teach Introduction to Criminal Justice, Criminology, Juvenile Delinquency as well as other courses based on the candidate's area of research/scholarship specialization. The successful candidate for the second position will have some expertise in one or more of the emerging fields of forensic criminal justice, international criminal justice, cyber crime and cyber terrorism. This position is designed to fulfill developing needs for joint ventures with programs in science, computer science, and psychology. Both positions may include opportunities to teach at the graduate level through the concentration in criminal justice in the MPA program. Candidates may be expected to teach at alternate sites and/or in alternative delivery formats.

Marist College is a comprehensive, independent, liberal arts institution known for its excellence in teaching. It is located in Poughkeepsie, New York midway between Albany and New York City. The College enrolls 3,600 full-time undergraduate and 800 graduate students.

(1953 - 2001)

Richard A. Wright suffered a heart attack and passed away December 9th, 2001 in Chicago, Illinois. A private service was held in Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania. Richard had just completed his first semester as Chair of the Department of Criminal Justice at Chicago State University. His career involved service on the sociology and criminology faculties at various institutions: Arkansas State University (1997-2001), University of Scranton (1989-1997), Kansas State University (1987-1989) and McPherson College (1979-1987). He received his Ph.D. in Sociology from Kansas State University in 1988.

Richard contributed broadly to criminology and the criminal justice sciences. Foremost, Richard was a careful scholar and a prolific author. He authored and coauthored over eighty refereed articles in a broad range of journals and over twenty academic book chapters. His books included In Defense of Prisons (1994) and Evaluating Criminology and Criminal Justice (1998) with David Farrington and Ellen Cohn. He was working on a theoretical criminology textbook with colleagues for Allyn and Bacon and was cofounder and senior partner of the Program Evaluation Research Group. Richard rendered considerable professional service, particularly on the editorial boards of several journals and as an invited guest lecturer at several institutions. He was an associate editor of the Journal of Crime and Justice and the Second Vice President of the Midwestern Criminal Justice Association.

His sudden absence is and will be deeply felt by his friends and associates. Richard helped to shape the careers of several younger scholars as a mentor and role model and will be remembered as a kind, gentle and giving man. In the months prior to his passing, Richard was settling into life in Chicago and was enjoying both his professional and personal life. Three sons, William, Emerson, and Austin survive him.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS
2002-2003 ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Following the recent call for nomination of officers by the ASC Nominations Committee, the following slate of officers was approved by the ASC Executive Board for the 2002-2003 election:

President-Elect
Robert Crutchfield, University of Washington
Francis T. Cullen, University of Cincinnati

Vice President-Elect
Adele Harrell, The Urban Institute
Henry Pontell, University of California, Irvine

Executive Counselor
Finn Esbensen, University of Missouri-St. Louis
Rosemary Gartner, University of Toronto
David Greenberg, New York University
Robert Langworthy, University of Alaska Anchorage

In accordance with the ASC constitution, this slate must now be presented to the ASC active membership. Active members may place additional candidates for each office on the ballot if such candidates receive nominations from two percent of the membership — 43 nominations. Active members may suggest additions to the slate if such additions are received by March 29, 2002. If any Active member receives the required percentage of nominations, his/her name will be placed on the ballot that will be submitted to the membership April 16, 2002. Please forward your nominations by March 29 to: ASC Executive Office, 1314 Kinneir Road, Suite 212, Columbus, OH 43212-1156.
JOIN THE DIVISION OF INTERNATIONAL CRIMINOLOGY (DIC)!

How many of you have among your 2002 New Year’s resolutions to join the Division of International Criminology? Well, if you do not, add this goal to your list. And by checking the DIC membership option on the membership renewal form, you can easily accomplish this goal. It does not get much easier!

Why is NOW the time to join the Division of International Criminology? Here are the top-ten reasons why you should join today:

1. You can help globalize the ASC and make it a truly international organization.

2. You can make your own research and teaching more international as you learn from experiences and good practice in other countries. You might also teach someone else a thing or two!

3. You can meet criminologists from all over the world.

4. Membership could lead to joint comparative research and maybe a trip abroad to collaborate!

5. It is inexpensive. $10.00 gives a key for making friends all over the globe, gets you a reduced luncheon ticket, and allows you to receive regular free newsletters that are filled with international updates.

6. The luncheon at ASC 2001 was sold out! It was THE place to be for lunch. The luncheon at ASC 2002 promises to be even bigger and better, and the food equally good!

7. You can host a first-timer to the ASC meetings from another country and share your secrets of how to "do" the conference.

8. You can ensure that international research gets the attention from publishers that it deserves.

9. You can serve on one of the many DIC committees (Webpage, Newsletter, Awards), and have e-discussions with members in other countries at strange times of the day and night…

10. You can help the ASC develop good international criminal justice policy recommendations.

So, after reading all these reasons, how could you not have as one of your New Year’s goals to join the Division of International Criminology? We welcome everyone and look forward to meeting new members in Chicago at ASC 2002.

THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY

ASC EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING, Tuesday, November 7, 2001, 3:00 PM
Marriott Marquis Hotel, Atlanta, Georgia

MINUTES

I. Report on Atlanta Annual Meeting (Sarah Hall, Richard Leo).

II. Sally Hillsman has resigned from the ASC Board. Wayne Osgood will take her place because he received the next highest number of votes in the last election. (Ron Huff).

III. November Board Meeting Minutes accepted (Doris MacKenzie).

IV. Executive Director’s Report (Chris Eskridge):
   1. Financial Status. Despite the downturn in the economy, ASC remains a financially stable and sound organization. Our total assets have declined only marginally during this downturn of the economy.
   2. 2002 Budget approved.
   4. Criminology and Public Policy. ASC received a grant for $206,000 from the National Institute of Justice to support the publication of the new ASC journal, Criminology and Public Policy. This is a one-year grant, with a two-year renewal option. Abstracts will be published on the ASC webpage.
   5. Policies and Procedures Manual. The manual has been updated with decisions made by the Board at the mid-year meeting, with job descriptions for the President, Vice-President, Executive Counselors and program chairs. The revised manual is on the ASC website.
   6. A revised ASC brochure has been completed and is available for distribution.
   7. Personnel. The Board voted to contribute to Sue Beelman’s retirement/pension program, to allow her 10 days of paid sick leave per year and to give both Sue Beelman and Sarah Hall pay raises.
   8. A. Atlanta was selected as the 2007 Annual Meeting site.
   B. A contract was signed with the Adams Mark, St. Louis for the 2008 Annual Meeting. However new allegations of racial discrimination arose this summer. Chris Eskridge contacted Adams Mark corporate offices, Conferon, and the St. Louis Convention Bureau to express our deep and serious concern. He formally communicated the fact that while we have signed for now, unless progress is made we will cancel the contract. In St. Louis we are in the Marriott and the Adams Mark. The Board discussed whether ASC should cancel our 2003 and 2008 contracts with Adams Mark due to the racial discrimination allegations.
   C. Three cities are being considered for the 2009 meeting: Dallas, Vancouver and Philadelphia. The Board accepted the motion that the ASC not consider Adams Mark Hotel in Dallas for 2009 for two reasons: (1) the Justice Department has currently charged the Adams Mark with racially discriminatory practices; and (2) the Texas criminal justice system is among the leaders in miscarriages of justice and in the use of the death penalty and that the Executive Director of the ASC be asked to communicate the decision and related concerns to the Adams Mark and to the Chamber of Commerce of Dallas. Chris Eskridge visited the Marriott in Philadelphia and reported on its potential as a site for the 2009 meetings. He and Ron Huff will also assess Vancouver as the second potential site for 2009.
   D. The CEO of Conferon wrote to say that ASC should (1) decrease room blocks in future contracts and (2) sign contracts now while hotels are offering “fire sale” rates. The timeline for the 2009 meeting includes making a decision between Philadelphia and Vancouver in late April.
   9. A. Atlanta (2001). The Board gave special recognition to the work of the local arrangements committee who developed local information on the web. There is some concern that we will not make our hotel room quota for the meeting.
   B. Chicago (2002). Plans have begun for the meeting. The Board voted to accept the proposed budget for the Chicago meeting.
   10. Chris Eskridge will continue to make periodic visits to ASC offices.
   11. Chris Eskridge attended the International Society of Criminology meetings in Paris, a regional meeting of the British Society of Criminology, the European Society of Criminology, the University of Pennsylvania criminology program.
   12. Chris Eskridge explored the possibility of using a marketing firm to increase our membership but recommended against it.
13. Materials were submitted for the United Nations Initiative. It will take approximately 18 months for the application to be processed.

14. ASC will have a special session and a coffee at the British Society of Criminology (BSC) meeting. ASC purchased BSC’s membership list and will mail BSC members a copy of Criminology & Public Policy.

15. The International Society of Criminology (ISC) Board approved two ASC Board initiatives: (1) The ISC North American Vice-President will also function as the ASC liaison/representative on the ISC Board, and (2) ASC will be responsible for organization 13 sessions at the next bi-annual ISC meeting (August 10-15, 2002, Rio de Janeiro). The Division on International Criminology will organize four sessions, other Divisions, 2 sessions and Paul Friday will organize an at-large session on victimology. ASC will also sponsor a coffee at the meeting.

16. ASC Participation in International Criminology Meetings. The Board accepted Chris Eskridge’s recommendations for the following people to act as ASC representatives at the following international meetings: (a) French Society of Criminology, Rosemary Barberet, Chair of International Division; (b) Campbell Collaboration and the International Society of Criminology Board meetings, David Farrington. Chair of Campbell Collaboration; (c) British Society of Criminology, Bob Bursik, Editor of Criminology, and Todd Clear, Editor of Criminology and Public Policy; (d) European Society of Criminology, Larry Sherman, ASC President; (e) Australia/New Zealand Society of Criminology, Christy Visher, ASC Vice-President. The Board passed a resolution that the ASC Board support ways to promote the global representation of ASC.

17. A. The Board gave the Ad Hoc Committee on Student Travel the following charges: (1) Identifying foundations that would support student travel to professional meetings and, in coordination with the executive office, submit applications for such funding, and (2) begin to develop criteria and a procedure for awarding those funds to our student members.

B. Due to redundancy in committee structure (ASC designates ASC representatives to other professional organizations and also has an Interorganizational Relations Committee), the Board voted to abolish the Interorganizational Relations Committee.

18. Critical Division has been publishing a journal, Critical Criminology, for some years. They want to transfer ownership of the journal to Kluwer. Members of the Division will receive the journal at a cost of $25/member. The journal will be identified as the official journal of the Division but not an official journal of ASC. The Division will appoint the Editor and have responsibility for the content of the journal. The arrangement will have minimal financial impact on ASC. The Board authorized Chris Eskridge to sign a contract with Kluwer for the journal for the period of January 2003-December 2007.

19. Guardsmark wants to give the Marvin E. Wolfgang Award during the ASC award ceremony. This has been controversial because it is not an official ASC award. They may be willing to give the ASC the responsibility for the award and selection of the winner. The cash prize is $10,000. The discussion focused on procedures for selecting winners, cash prizes, whether ASC could take the Guardsmark award and make the award an official ASC award, and ASC awards (numbers, decisions, etc.). The topic was tabled until the Saturday Board meeting.

21. Decade of Behavior. The group would like ASC to develop lesson materials for a 45 minute presentation on criminology/criminal justice for a high school class (20 page instruction booklet and a few overheads). The topic was tabled until the Saturday Board meeting. Chris Eskridge will call the people to find out more about what they expect and how the materials will be used.

22. The Executive Director reported on the MacNamara gift and continuing efforts to define an appropriate use of the funds.

23. COSSA dues for 2002 are $6,200.

24. The Board voted in favor of the three following proposed By-Law changes:

A. Article 5, Section 3. Term. The Editor is normally appointed for a three (3) year term by the President upon the recommendation of the Editorial Board and upon ratification by the Executive Board…

B. Addition to Article 5, Section 4. The Editor of Criminology & Public Policy shall be a voting member of the Executive Board.

C. Addition to Article 5, Section 5. The Editor of Criminology & Public Policy shall be a non-voting ex-officio member of the Editorial Board.

V. Editorial Board Report (submitted by Todd Clear). As Vice President of ASC, Todd Clear was responsible for soliciting lead articles for The Criminologist this year. The first edition of Criminology & Public Policy will be published under the existing editorial policy. The ASC Executive Board was asked by the Editorial Board to review the editorial policy of the Criminology & Public Policy journal. Discussion was tabled until the Saturday Board meeting so the Board would have time to review the policy.

VI. As requested by Todd Clear, Chair of the Editorial Board, the Board voted to waive the fees and give permission for Criminology articles to appear in a book edited by John Laub on “The Craft of Criminology: Papers by Travis Hirschi.”

VIII. Criminology Report (Bob Bursik)

IX. Proposed Committee Appointments (Larry Sherman). A new committee will work toward raising money for a Nobel Prize in Criminology and to consider what are the long term development/funding needs of ASC (voted in last spring). Motion accepted to amend the composition of the Development Committee to include 5 more people to be added by the 2003 president and an additional 5 people to be added by the 2004 president.

X. 1. Nominations Committee Report (submitted by Terrence Thomberry, Chair). The Board voted to accept the slate of candidates recommended by the committee: President-Elect, Robert Crutchfield, Francis Cullen; Vice President-Elect, Adele Harrel, Henry Pontell; Executive Counselor, Finn Ebenson, Rosemary Gartner, David Greenberg, Robert Langworthy.

   2. Minority Affairs Committee Report (submitted by Orlando Rodriguez, Chair). The committee submitted a proposal for a “Minority Undergraduate Research Training proposal” modeled after ASA’s “Minority Opportunities Through School Transformation (MOST)” program. The Board requested President Ron Huff to write a letter to Orlando Rodriguez to ask him to attend the mid-winter Board meeting in Chicago to discuss the proposal.

   3. Ethical Issues Committee Report (submitted by Matthew Zingraff). A revised draft of the “American Society of Criminology Code of Ethics” was submitted by the committee. The Board discussed the report.

   5. National Policy Committee (NPC) Report (submitted by James Austin). A finalized policy statement on “The Use of the Death Penalty” was presented by the National Policy Committee to ASC. The statement will be presented at the Annual Meeting and will be released to the press. The committee asked that ASC post the report on the ASC website. Within the death penalty policy paper the NPC asked ASC to poll its membership on views held by the NPC. The committee is working on a second policy statement on the topic of juveniles in adult court. The committee considered whether the ASC should take a position related to persons nominated to take governmental position in the U.S. There was no consensus and therefore the committee recommends that the ASC not become involved in such matters. The NPC requests yearly funding of $6,500 for (1) modest honorariums for three papers to be commissioned by the NPC ($500/paper), (2) travel costs for the NPC to meet at least once outside the ASC Annual Meeting to review the commissioned papers and to discuss the NPC recommendations and/or positions (two day meeting - $5,000) and (3) costs associated with the editing and production of the NPC policy paper ($1,000). The Board accepted a motion to encourage the Public Policy Committee to submit the paper on “The Use of the Death Penalty” to Criminology & Public Policy for consideration for publication using the stated editorial review process but without the final section of the report (without section #7 with recommendations to ASC). The Board accepted the motion to tell the Public Policy Committee the Board applauded the good work of the committee. The Board voted to decline to poll the membership as requested by the committee because the board does not want to poll the membership on research findings and response rates to such polls would not insure a representative sample and (2) the Board declined to offer the annual funding requested at this time.

   6. Student Affairs Committee Report (submitted by Lanette Dalley, Chair).

XII. Atlanta Meeting Report (Valerie Jenness and Richard Leo, Co-chairs).

XIII. Chicago Meeting Report (William Laufer and Ellen Cohn, Co-chairs).
