

Del Campillo, as well as representatives of the principal criminological research centers in Argentina, Chile, Venezuela, Brazil and Mexico, the names to be decided upon at a later date. It is also decided that a member of the Council of Europe and of the United Nations should be invited.

7. The remainder of the budget shall be used to pay for the cost of local arrangements and other appropriate expenditures including simultaneous translation.

8. A coordinating committee will be created composed of members of the American Society of Criminology, the American Section of the International Association of Penal Law, and representatives of the two co-sponsoring Canadian organizations.

9. As regards the topics to be discussed at the 1971 meeting, it is understood that there is a particular interest in the following topics: 1) airplane hijacking, in particular with respect to the evaluation of methods already employed; 2) Legislative Responsibility for Criminal Justice; and, 3) Prevention, Control and Treatment of Crime: An International Perspective. It is also understood that these topics range across all branches of criminology, including forensic psychology, criminal psychiatry, international and comparative criminal law, criminalistics and other fields of law enforcement and criminal justice."

The Executive committee approved the suggestion that the President -elect be made responsible for the stellar topic of the 1971 meeting. The President was to appoint the Program Chairman for this meeting.

Item II: AIDP-ASC Co-Sponsored Meeting

Albert Hess, representing the American Section of the AIDP, ask the Board if ASC would be interested in considering co-sponsorship of a meeting to be held in the Spring of 1971. The meeting would focus on the history of crime and delinquency as it relates to present day problems. Hess indicated that he had preliminary approval from the State College of New York at Brockport to proceed with tentative planning. The ASC Board indicated strong interest in pursuing the co-sponsorship of such a meeting and requested the Dr. Hess complete the proposal and submit it as a working document to all concerned.

Item III: Reports

A. The minutes of the March 1970 Executive Board meeting were approved.

B. The Treasurer reported that the Society's total assets amounted to $2728.00 (including the $1000.00 bond). Debit to Sage Publication amounted to $2,898.00.

Sylvester requested that the Board consider the following recommendations:

1. That the committee grant permission to cash in the present bond which is earning $4\frac{1}{2}\%$ interest when it comes due in August, and reinvest at a higher interest rate (perhaps in Louisville, New York, or Boston).